

In Big League

Like Champions NEW YORK—The Bostonians showed real world's championship form yesterday and defeated the New Yorkers 8 to 1. They batted Schultz, the first New York pitcher for fourteen hits, and scored almost at will. Hoff held the visitors in the last two innings. Bedient pitched a fine game for Boston and received great support until the ninth innings, when wild throws by Speaker and Engle prevented the Soxman from scoring a shut-out. Score: Boston 8, New York 1.

Stovall's Hit ST. LOUIS—St. Louis won from Cleveland yesterday by 2 to 0. Pitcher Gregg was unsteady in the early innings but always pulled out without being scored on. St. Louis won the game in the eighth. J. Johnson singled to left and Williams followed with another single. Both runners advanced on Pratt's sacrifice and scored on Stovall's single to centre. Score: St. Louis 2, Cleveland 0.

Dubic Beaten DETROIT—Chicago yesterday gave Dubic one of the worst beatings of his American League career and defeated Detroit 8 to 3. Consistent hard hitting, coupled with loose fielding and batting errors enabled the visitors to win with ease. Cicotte was also pounded hard, but his spitalism seldom failed him. Right places and he kept Detroit's hits well scattered. Weaver in the sixth robbed Crawford of what looked to be a clean single by a thrilling stop near second base, and quick throw to first. Score: Chicago 8, Detroit 3.

Johnson Inevitable PHILADELPHIA—A pitching duel between Johnson and Plank here yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for Washington over Philadelphia 2 to 0. Both runs were made in the ninth with one out, Milan on second and Gandil on first, a double steal was tried on the ball which Morgan fanned. Lapp threw to catch Gandil at second, but neither Collins nor Barry covered the bag. When the ball went to the outfield, Milan scored and Gandil reached third. The latter scored on Atsmith's single. Plank fanned ten batters in ten by Johnson and each gave only one base on balls.

Oh You Dodgers BROOKLYN—Brooklyn came from behind with a rally in the seventh inning and made it two out of three games on the series with New York. The score was 5 to 3. New York leading by 3 to 1 to the seventh when with two out and one on first and second and two strikes on Cutshaw, the latter banged a long double to centre, sending home the tying run. Hits by Stengel, Wheat and Daubert sent two more runs across. Both Ragon and Ames gave way to pinch hitters, Crandall batting for Ames and finishing the game. Allen struck out three men in the last two innings. Ragon however gets credit for the victory. Score: Brooklyn 5, New York 3.

Steele Was Good PITTSBURGH—Pittsburgh was unable to hit Steele to any extent yesterday, and lost the fourth straight game. St. Louis taking the first game of the series, 6 to 1. O'Toole relieved Robinson in the fourth and pitched one ball, only one run being made off him. Very pitched in the ninth and allowed another another run. It was stated yesterday that Hans Wagner may be able to play in Boston next Tuesday. Score: St. Louis 6, Pittsburgh 1.

Boston's Third BOSTON—Boston won its third game of the season after an eleven innings pitchers' battle between James and Bennett yesterday. James a recruit twirler having won two of the local team's three victories, both extra innings affairs. Maranville's error made Philadelphia's only run possible. The visitors filled the bases in the eleventh, with only one out but James hid them scoreless. Score: Boston 3, Philadelphia 1.

Evers Still There CHICAGO—The Cincinnati Reds, with the return of their regular playing paraphernalia, gave the local Nationals a close call in the second game of the series yesterday, but lost by 3 to 4. Suggs and Pearce were opposed to each other in what proved to be a pitchers' battle, but with the luck of the game in favor of the Chicago flogger. The locals were credited with two homers on drives which were misjudged. Had these been played correctly the outcome might have been different. The score: Cincinnati 4, Chicago 3.

LEAFS HAND IT TO BALTIMORE

Pitchers Were Wild and Ineffective—More Sad News.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 1.—The Leafs and the Orioles opened up in their first clash of the season yesterday, and the result was a decidedly choice article that came to the lot of the home crowd to the tune of 10 to 7. "Come to" is used advisedly, for both teams did their level best to hand it to their opponents. Baltimore's generosity was in the way of fielding, while Toronto's charity inclinations were mostly on the part of the hurlers, Brant and Hearne. Bases on balls were handed out in profusion by the pair of Leaf twirlers, and if ever a game was handed to a team on a silver platter yesterday afternoon's was.

If there can be any satisfaction gotten out of the fact that the Leafs looked better as a whole, the Canuck fans should be happy. Dave Roth, who has been pitching ball of the highest variety, was touched up decidedly lively by Joe Kelly's Klan yesterday, having more runs scored on him than in the several other games he has pitched this season. While it is true that his team mates blundered much too often, it is also a fact that Kelly's boys were generally on hand with the bingle when it was needed.

Mighty Tim Back on Job. Tim Jordan got back to his old place at first and Schultz was finally given a try at the short field job, for which Kelly originally intended him. The youngster did not perform badly by any means, although from his work yesterday afternoon no one would venture to say that he is a coming big leaguer. Joe intends to keep Schultz at short for the present, and will give him a personal course of instructions. As a matter of fact, Kelly has gotten the permission of Manager Dunn to use the ball park for an hour or so each morning, and Kel has ordered morning practice.

Yesterday was the warmest the Leafs have struck, and it is believed that when a steady run of real baseball weather is had, the Kelleyites will soon show that they have no intention of remaining in the cellar berth for any extended length of time.

Football

Continued from Page 7 blame him. All the same, the effect on the majority of the league clubs is serious. Players of native birth and training naturally rebel against a preferential treatment given to the Australians, and the term "frozen-nut men" has become one of the recognized sarcasms of the local professional when referring to the football importations from New Zealand and Australia.

Football Council. The Brantford Football Executive Council met last night in the Borden Club rooms when the following business was put through. Reports from the referees re last Saturday's games were accepted. Wm. Land not being in good standing with the 25th Dragoons his release can not be given till he adheres to the rules of the league.

The Ar Scots Football club will hold a meeting to-night at the Borden Club, at 8 o'clock. All players and members are requested to attend, as some important business will be discussed. F. J. Daniels goes to 25th Dragoons, and F. Locke to St. Andrews. All Scots Meeting.

Miller's Worm Powders were devised to promptly relieve children who suffer from the ravages of worms. It is a simple preparation, warranted to destroy stomach and intestinal worms without shock or injury to the most sensitive system. They act thoroughly and painlessly, and though in some cases they may cause vomiting, that is an indication of their powerful action and not of any nauseating property.

WE ARE USED TO IT EVERYDAY STUNT

Brant's Wildness Gave Birds First Victory—Montreal Field to Be Fixed Up—Gossip.

The World. These are indeed sad days. Outhit and outfielded the Birds, but yet we couldn't win. Grover Cleveland Brant blew. Bases on balls gave it to John "Grab" Dunn.

Poor Joe Kelley. Those Baltimore fans must have given him an awful panning. Those Paragon fans are true sports. The crowd at the Star yesterday called encouragement to the luckless band and nearly raised the seats when the Leafs came through with a few runs near the finish.

Schultz was moved over to short and performed in grand style at the knee joint is loose, in which case the Little Rebel is liable to have serious trouble with the injured member. If the knee shows no further improvement within a day or two Tommy will probably go to Rochester for special treatment.

Cubans

(Continued from Page 7.) the Red Sox broke away and scored a trio, one a home run by Brundage, the heavy hitting outfielder secured from the St. Kitts disbanded team. The visitors have a fast infield which are right in the game from start to finish and they were given rounds of applause for their superior playing. That outfield will take good care of anything that happens to some other way. The Cubans are not a bit backward at the bat and sent O'Reilly to the bush in short order. It would take some real good pitching to keep them from getting on bases, let alone scoring.

There were three outstanding features on the part of the Red Sox: Their inability to hit. Brundage's home run. The wretched work of McFadden at shortstop. From all appearances and from the showing of the recruits Kane is up against it hard for a shortstop, as none of the new comers have shown anything like form in that department. If any of them have the goods it is up to them to produce the same at once for there has not up to date been anyone who even has the resemblance of a shortstop A week hence and Ottawa will be here for the opening game and Kane cannot waste any time in filling that position. On the pitchers who are working for a berth Clearmont is the only one so far that has shown up to any extent and he may be put on the pay roll next week.

The Game. Umpire Fraser started the game sharp at nine and the Cuban Stars went to bat. O'Reilly started to pitch for the Red Sox with English doing the catching. Kane also used Clearmont and Chapdelaine and Donovan and Lamond—three batteries in one game.

Rattle of Tin Pails (Continued from Page 7) what they can do in there against Coose, Donovan and Collins." Ambrose would have liked to have had the Cuban shortstop, but there is said to be no chance of getting him. The Red Sox manager would have to learn Spanish, but at that he would not need to tell the shortstop how to play the position. At times yesterday the Spanish jargon on the base lines was like the rattle of a lot of tinpails.

The Phillies whaled the padding out of the Dodgers; the Giants mauled the padding out of the Phillies, and the Dodgers thumped the wadding out of the Giants. In which you have the essence of it.

It remains to be seen whether or not Ty Cobb can spot Eddie Collins' twenty-two base hits and overhaul the Mackian Star. Ty has compiled more hits than any other athlete from either league for the last three or four years. But in each season before he had an even start. Starting twenty-two hits back of a hustling bloke like E. Collins is another problem with acute angles involved.

Slipping, the well-known guardian of realms Plutonian his due, C. Webb Murphy has first long guffaw, anyway. Whether he has the last remains for another interval of time to unravel.

"The Tigers" as Hughie Jennings remarked, "could get along without Cobb." Mr. Carnegie could get along without his bankroll, but he couldn't get very far along.

The consensus of opinion among base ball scribes is that all Frank Chance needs is a base ball team. The patterning sound in the office is caused by the tears of C. Webb Murphy as he reflects on the position of Frank Chance's athletes.

Paris News

(From our own Correspondent.) PARIS, April 30.—The marriage took place this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Wilson, Capron St., K. to Mr. George Willis Hall, the Rev. R. C. MacBeth officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a handsome gown of ivory duchess satin with tunic and drapery of silver embroidered nylon with trimmings of pearls and rosebuds, wearing a tulle veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament being a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. Mr. T. Ives, A.T.C.M., rendered Mendelsohn's wedding march. The ceremony took place in the large window of the drawing room, which was attractively decorated with palms, ferns, etc., forming an effective background. The only attendant was Miss Essie Wilson of Brantford, who made a charming flower girl, attired in a dress of white silk and rosebud trimming. She carried a basket of pink roses and wore a gold bracelet. The gift of the groom. During the signing of the register, Miss Kate Wilson, sister of the bride, sang very sweetly "O fair, oh sweet and holy matrimony." After the ceremony a dinner was served in the dining room by four girls, friends of the bride, Miss Jessie Helliher, Miss Jean Cole, Miss Lottie Hicks and Miss Grace VanEvery of Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on the 5.43 train for Toronto and other Eastern points, the bride traveling in a tailored suit of pearl grey chiffon brocade with black hat and pink rose buds. The bride was the recipient of a large number of gifts, among them being a dozen sterling silver spoons from the Presbyterian church choir, carving set from the groom's friends in the Paris fire department and track crystal bowl and nappies from the employees of the Sanlerson Harold Co.

The new clock tower is being erected on the Paris post office, the frame work being put in place yesterday. It will add much to the appearance of the structure.

International Strike. AUBURN, N.Y., April 30.—Militia called out last night did not prevent rioting at the International Harvester Company's twin mills this morning, and for a time there were pitched battles between police, soldiers, deputies and strikers. Six strikers were arrested, three being women. Among them was the strike leader, Gaetano Termini, the organizer of foreign unions here. The soldiers kept the 150 pickets moving and the rioting occurred several blocks from the mill on the streets approaching it. The break in the ranks of the strikers grew this morning, and by 9 o'clock 150 had entered the mill and were busy at the looms. This is an increase of 50 over the number who risked the danger yesterday.

American Girl's Ideas About a Model Husband

All the colleges for women in Kansas have been canvassed on the question, "What is your description of the ideal man?" The result was made known officially on Monday, and this is what the male being should be like in order to meet the requirements of the girl graduates:

- Height, 5 ft. 11 in. Weight, 150 lbs. Chest, 40 in. expanded, 34 in. contracted. Waist, 30 1/2 in. Must make a good appearance, but need not be handsome. Must be careful of his personal appearance, but not a dandy. Must be jolly, accommodating, considerate, and a true sportsman. Must be a good conversationalist, but not a flatterer. Must reverse and respect the aged. Must show courtesy to men and women. Must not smoke or drink or be guilty of attendant evils. Must not sneer at religion or joke lightly of it. Must not recognize a different standard for men and women. The physical qualifications were averages taken from thousands of letters, in reply, each girl being asked to submit the measurements of what she considered her ideal man. Some of them liked giants, and some liked little fellows. The usually tall girl liked short men, while the plump girl liked tall, attenuated fellows. The rule of contrasts was followed, almost invariably in every case, where the girl who made her choice of an ideal man was small or large compared with the average girl. Mental and moral requirements varied a great deal, too. Some girls put ability to cook ahead of all other standards. One surprising feature, says The Telegraph is that the girls canvassed seemed to prefer men of good appearance, "who could put up a good front," to just handsome men.

WAGNER LOYAL TO THE BOYS

CINCINNATI, May 1.—Hans Wagner, the wonderful star, of whom this story told—a tale that shows how the German had a heart that was purest gold—

Four years ago Hans Wagner, rich in this world's goods, and even then weary of the game, announced his retirement. No holdout, no demand for money or privilege—just determined to quit and take things easy. Panic prevailed in Pittsburg—and Harry Pullman now dead, came up to see the German. He found Wagner obdurate, immutable, immovable. "I'm through," that's all, growled Hans. "I've got money and sore muscles. I need more money—I can't stand much more ball playing. I'm done."

"Hans," said Pullman, "that old town is full of hard working honest toilers, men of the mills. Little pleasures is theirs in life's bright little. A Saturday afternoon—a few hours under the blue sky—and the chance to see Hans Wagner play ball. They go there to that field by thousands, just to see you. That's a joy and a real delight to those poor fellows—and you don't want to take that pleasure away from them." "Give me that pen," growled Wagner—"I'll sign it Harry, and I will stay as long as they want me to."

No hold-out and hold-out—only a sacrifice of the strained body that yearned for rest and ease—only a sacrifice to please a gentleman and to please the smoke begrimed thousands that made Wagner the idol of the leisure hours. That was all, but it showed the golden weave of Wagner's heart and soul.

ALBERTON (From Our Own Correspondent.) Mrs. James Brunswick is very poorly, but her many friends hope soon to see her around again. V. Vanderlip fell off a dise harrow and broke several ribs one day last week. Mrs. Marchant is with friends in Canada. James Morwick returned home from Elmville with a fine young team of darks. Mrs. House and Mrs. Robinson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson on Sunday. Rev. A. F. Webster preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation on Sunday. Nine names were added to the church roll. The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. E. Billack's Thursday. A large gathering was present and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

BRUNFORD (From our own correspondent.) The friends of Mr. J. H. Woolley will regret to learn that he is very ill at his home in Hamilton. Death has once again made its sudden call in this vicinity. Last Thursday Mr. A. E. Brown of the 4th regiment went out to milk. When he did not return in the usual time his son went out to investigate and found him lying unconscious behind one of the cows. He was immediately taken to the house and medical aid sent for but he never recovered consciousness and died about noon. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family. Mr. White has resigned his position as baker at the Burford Bakery. A new baker is on hand to take his place. Mr. Baker who recently purchased the Stuart farm north of the village, is confined to his bed the result of a stroke taken a short time ago. Miss B. McWebb, of Hamilton, spent Sunday at her parental home. Mr. Wm. Irwin and family are going West in a few weeks. Mr. H. Stuart received a large consignment of cherry trees which he is placing on the property he purchased from Mr. Wm. Creighton. Mrs. Creighton, Sr., is on the sick list. HARTFORD (From our own correspondent.) The farmers have done considerable seeding, but the rain on Sunday has stopped them for a few days. The grass is coming up nicely, and some have turned out their young cattle to pasture. Will Fyles has commenced working for George Munn, drawing mail. Next Sunday is the re-organization of the Sabbath school, and we would like to see everybody come early. Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Higgins were visiting at S. Osborne's Sunday. Mrs. Selain Thomas spent a few days at Mrs. G. Swift's. Mrs. F. Hayes returned Saturday from a visit to Brantford. Mrs. J. R. Moore has gone to Brantford for a visit.
