

GERMANY YIELDS ALL

Fleet to be Given Up Among Other Things

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11. — The terms of the armistice will not be made public until later today. Military men here, however, regard it as certain that they include:

- Immediate retirement of the German military forces from France, Belgium and Alsace-Lorraine.
- Disarming and demobilization of German armies.
- Occupation by the allies and U. S. forces of such strategic points in Germany as will make impossible a renewal of hostilities.
- Delivery of the German high seas fleet and a certain number of submarines to the allied and American naval forces.
- Disarmament of all other German warships under supervision of the allied and American navies which will guard them.
- Occupation of the principal German naval bases by sea forces of the victorious nations.
- Release of all allied and American soldiers, sailors and civilians held prisoners in Germany without such reciprocal action by the associated governments.

CANADIANS TAKE MONS

Dominion Troops Score Last Victory in the World War

By Courier Leased Wire.
LONDON, Nov. 11. — Mons, the Belgian town near where British troops engaged in bitter fighting with the Germans at the beginning of the war, was captured early this morning by Canadian troops, under General Horne, according to Field Marshal Haig's announcement today.

Big Noise in Ottawa

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 11. — Practically all of Ottawa was on the streets at 4 o'clock this morning. By arrangement of the local papers, the news was conveyed through the city by the flashing of electric lights and by the blowing of siren whistles. Later the fire engines speeded through the streets and roused any who had not been wakened. Thousands gathered in Connaught Square, a military band was given the job, and the crowd was soon cheering madly as patriotic airs gave a key note for enthusiasm. Impromptu parades appeared as by magic, headed by bands recruited from all quarters. Everyone who could play an instrument apparently had brought it with them. The celebration is still proceeding.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Associated Press this morning issues the following:

After 1,567 days of horror, during which virtually the whole civilized world has been convulsed, the greatest war in history ended this morning at 6 o'clock, Washington time.

Announcement of the tremendous event was made at the State Department at the Capital at 2.45 o'clock this morning and in a few seconds was flashed throughout the continent by the Associated Press.

TERMS NOT YET KNOWN.

Details of the terms dictated by Marshal Foch on Friday forenoon to the German armistice delegates have not as yet been given out, but it is believed that they are of such a nature as to protect the world from a resumption of the struggle by the Germans. It is assumed that they call for the demobilization of Germany's army, the surrender of part of her fleet and the dismantling of the rest and the evacuation of occupied portions of France and Belgium and of Alsace-Lorraine. It is probable, also, that Germany has agreed to call home all her troops now in Russia and Roumania.

The terse announcement of the State Department did not tell anything of the scene at Marshal Foch's headquarters at the time the armistice was signed. It was stated, however, that at five o'clock Paris time the signatures of Germany's delegates were affixed to the document which blasted forever the dreams which embroiled the world in a struggle which has cost, at the very lowest estimate, 10,000,000 lives.

HUN RULERS HAVE ALL FALLEN.

When the war began the Teutonic Alliance was headed by two of the proudest houses in history—the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs. To-day William II. of Germany is a fugitive in Holland and Charles I. of Austria, while he may be still in his country, has been stripped of power and has seen his empire shattered into pieces. Ferdinand of Bulgaria has fled from his country and Mohammed V. of Turkey, who also joined in the attempt to dominate the world is dead, slain, it is said, by the hands of an assassin.

REVOLUTION IN GERMANY.

While the curtain was rolling down on the most stupendous tragedy in mankind's history, events were moving with terrible swiftness in Germany, the nation about which revolved the plot and counter-plot of the drama. Berlin, Leipzig, Stuttgart, Cologne, Hamburg and Frankfurt are in the hands of the revolutionists, who last week raised the red flag at Kiel. Germany's navy is apparently scattered into disjointed units, each seeking sanctuary in Danish ports, waiting in those harbors for the latest turn of events. Crowds singing the "Marsellaise" are marching through the streets of autocratic Berlin and a Soldiers' and Workmen's Council has taken over the government of the Empire.

Wurttemberg, Schleswig-Holstein and Hesse-Darmstadt have declared themselves independent republics following the action taken by Bavaria last Friday. Wilhelm II. of Wurttemberg is reported to have abdicated. Saxony is said to be near a like declaration and the revolutionists are said to be in control at Dresden.

The republic of Poland has served official notice on Austria that Poland has annexed the crown land of Galicia.

As the last hours of the mighty combat drew near French, British, Belgian and American forces were rapidly pushing the last German troops from France and Belgium. General Pershing's men attacked yesterday over a front of 71 miles from the Meuse southeastward into Lorraine. This drive gained an average of two or three miles and approached within ten miles of the fortress of Metz.

It is suggested that William Hohenzollern is not safe from the consequences of his deed, even though he has fled to Holland. After the sinking of the Lusitania and during the early days of aerial raids on London he was three times indicted for murder in England. Under international law, it is said, requisition for his extradition may be made by England under the indictments still standing against him.
