A subsequent cable has been received stating the wound will not be fatal and there is good respect of recovery.

OBITUARIES

MRS. RUBY COX

The death of Ruby Woodworth Cox took place at Canard on Tuesday Sept. 17th., in the one hundredth year of her age. The funeral service was held on Thursday conducted by Rev. F. Friggins and the sermon was delivered by Dr. A. C. Borden a former pastor of deceased. Rev. Wm. Ainley and A. J. Prosser also were present. The Canard mixed quartet rendered appropriate music.

The large attendance at the funeral and the numerous floral offerings attested to the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Mrs. Cox was born at Woodside June 1st., 1819. In her early teens she experienced a remarkable conversion which gave a distinct religious cast to her whole life of nearly a century. Until her death she was a devoted and consistent member of the Methodist Church. She leaves one daughter Mrs. W. L. Borden with whom she has resided for many years. The remains were interred at Habitant near her former home.

ALICE J. HUNTLEY.

The death occurred at Halls Harbor, N. S. Aug. 27th of Alice J. Huntley, formerly Miss Grey of St. Martins, N. B. age 41 years. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband a son, Alfred Brown by a former marriage, also two sisters Mrs Robt Gillis of Bangor Me. and Mrs. James Wood of Hammond Kings Co. N. B. and one brother, John Grey, of Chelsea Mass.

The interment took place at Halls Harbor, cemetery Aug. 29th. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. W. West Baptist pastor of Kentville.

HOWARD PINEO

Mr. Howard Pineo a well known oculist died at his residence Wolfville on Wednesday Sept. 18th., after a long illness. While of late years he has attended to his business in different parts of the county, it was only by the greatest effort on his part that he could do so. The funeral service was held on Thursday last.

Mr. Pineo has been a resident of Wolfville about 25 years. He was prominent in church and temperance work being a member of the Baptist Church. He was a reliable oculist but his own ill health and sickness in his family prevented him from extending his business as much as he otherwise could have done. He leaves a sorrowing widow, one daughter Jennie at home and two sons, Harold in the West and Robt. on Home Guard in the Halifax Garrison.

MRS. I. W. PORTER

On Saturday Sept. 14th., there passed away at her home Wolfville Mrs. Porter wife of Rev. I. W. Porter after a short illness.

Mrs. Porter during her residence in Wolfville made a large circle of friends who will miss her very much. She was a devoted wife and mother and active in all good philanthropic and church work. Of late years Mr. Porter's health has been very poor and he has met a great loss in the tender and constant ministrations of his wife. Besides a husband Mrs. Porter leaves three children Mary who left a short time ago to take charge again of the Port Morren School, C. B., and Grace and Evelyn at home.

"The Real Front"

Capt. Arthur Hunt Chute, son of Rev. Dr. Chute, of Acadia University, a member of the First Canadian Contingent, invalidated home after severe battlefield work, has brought out a book of 300 pages, entitled "The Real Front," that give an insight into the life of the soldier, that is most attractive and instructive.

It is not an ordinary story of the war and an exciting tale of the boy's but Capt. Chute, has got away down into the souls of his fellow-fighters and tells "why" our brave men accomplished deeds, that have made

No Launching at Canning on Saturday.

Despite the rainy weather a great crowd gathered at Canning on Saturday to witness the launching of the staunch three masted schooner General George E. Hogg. The railways brought in about four hundred people mostly from Kentville and the North Mountain Section, and by estimation there was fully two hundred autos on the Main Street and in different yards in the village, which probably brought in fully 1200 people. With the teams from the vicinity including the citizens of the town must have reached nearly 3500 people, probably the largest number ever gathered in that town.

The great crowd taxed the hotel and restaurant accommodations to the utmost. Mr. Huston at the Waverly had many more guests than he could accommodate. The ladies of the Red Cross served excellent meals and lunches to a jolly and hungry crowd and reaped as a reward for their hard labor and unselfish work about $200.00 in cash for Red Cross purposes.

The tide was high and the wind boisterous when at 1.30 o'clock the ship was about ready for the water. The swell of the water caused the weights on one of the launchways to go overboard and the launchway floated to the surface. In five minutes more the vessel would have been sliding to the water. This accident made necessary a delay in launching and the props were again put in place and the launching postponed until Monday.

With the boisterous wind it seemed fortunate that an accident occurred as the vessel propelled by the wind might have reached a bank before being placed under control and been damaged.

The General Hogg is a fine bit of sea going property worth fully $75,000 and a credit to the builder Mr. Hatfield.

Colonel H. M. Jacques, D. S., has taken a residence on Oxford Street for the winter. Mrs. Jacques and family arrived in the City from Canning last week. Hx. Chronicle

CANARD

Mr. C. H. Eiton made a large shipment of fine young pigs last week to Mr. Leslie at Spry Bay.

Miss Jean Borden has been at Middleton visiting her aunt Mrs. (Dr.) F. S. Messenger.

Mrs. Prosser returned home on Thursday last.

Miss Elizabeth Eaton has returned to Winnipeg to resume her school work.

The funeral of Mrs. Ruby Cox took place on Thursday last.

KINGSPORT

Mrs. W. G. Parsons, of Middleton, has been spending a week here.

Mr. Fred Hiltz and family intend moving to Kentville from the 'Point' as soon as a house can be obtained.

Murray Farnham, of Yarmouth, formerly of Kingsport has gone to Mt. Allison to study.

Canada glorious for ages.

The author is a brilliant writer and good speaker. He had training as a war correspondent in the Balkan and Mexican campaigns and his fluent pen serves him well as he puts before the public not merely the hidden things of the trenches but the inmost things of the hearts of the men, who were his companions in arms. He tells a War Story as a writer, who knows his business and he takes you right into the training camp, the battle, the trenches, and Hospital and you long to linger with this clever war correspondent, while he discourses of the "Unseen glories of the War."

The book is from the publishing home of Harper Brothers, New York and London, and can be ordered through your local stationer: and considering the forebears of the author were Colchester's sons there should in this county be a large reading Constituency for "The Real Front."
