THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAR. 13, 1891.

Local and Provincial.

Is it spring?

Next Tuesday will be St Patrick's day.

The weather this week has been decidedly spring-like and from present indications an early spring is assured.

The new Congregationalist church at Kingsport is to be formally opened for public worship on Sunday next.

Mr. J. A. Andrew, of the Hants Journal, Windsor, spent last Sunday in Wolfville, the guest of C. W. Roscoe, Esq.

Mr. J. D. Chambers left on Monday for his new home at Yarmouth. The best wishes of his many friends here go with him.

Rev. Mr. Denovan is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ross.

The regular monthly communication of St George's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will be held this evening. Business, election of officers for ensuing year.

The work of erecting the building at Kingsport Station for the proposed milk condensing factory will be begun at once. Mr. Carleton Nelly, of Kingsport, has the contract.

Mr. R. Pratt is about to add an addition 30 feet long to his store for a store-house, with a view of increasing his business. The work will begin at once and will be rapidly pushed forward.

The steamer Yarmouth, of the Yarmouth line, is again on the route, having been thoroughly refitted during the winter. The Yarmouth will lay up until the missing link is completed.

The students on the hill are to give an athletic exhibition in the gymnasium on Saturday evening, with a view to raising money to furnish the new gymnasium. A good performance of athletic feats may be expected.

Mr. Earl Stacey, of this town, will sell the promising young mare, "Kato Morgan," by "Harry Morgan." Kate will be six years old this spring, and is sound, kind and a good driver. She will weigh over 1000 lbs now, and can speed a three minute clip any time.

J. B. Mills, Esq., M. P. for Annapolis, presented to the College on Tuesday a valuable Canadian flag. As that was a declaration day in Annapolis county the students at once threw the flag to the breeze from the Chipman Hall flag-staff with cheers for the donor, the Queen and Canada.

Horsemen are reminded that the entries for the Maritime Province colts stakes close on Monday, March 16th, with J. W. Power, Halifax. The stakes include yearlings, three-year olds and under, and four year olds, and are open to all colts owned in the Maritime Provinces prior to Jan. 1st.

The provincial legislature will meet for the despatch of business on Thursday, April 24. We understand that it was contemplated to fix the meeting for the 24th inst., but as this would be the eve of the Easter holidays it was thought that there would be no loss of time in deferring the meeting for another week.

Rev. G. O. Gates, M. A., of St John has been spending a week in Wolfville, assisting the students of the College in their extra religious services. He preached on Sunday evening last in the Baptist church to a large and attentive audience. Mr. Daley, of the Senior class, supplied for Mr. Gates in St John last Sunday.

Fine oranges, 25 cents per doz. New maple syrup at 24 R. PRATT'S.

On election day Mr Bert Jordan's roan, harnessed to a covered carriage, with the Union Jack flying over it, drove into Port Williams. It was soon learned that Mr Jordan had been sent to bring Hon. Samuel Chipman, centurion, and Richard Kidston, Esq., who is in his 85th year, to the Port to vote. These two old veterans were frequently cheered while at the booth. Owing to the inclemency of the weather it was a great undertaking for these gentlemen to venture out. It is evident they believe in Canada, and Canada for Canadians.

Spencer's copier for machinery boxes, for sale by WALTER BROWN.

Local and Provincial.

Mr G. W. Borden has sold the standard bred filly, "Daisy Lambert," to Mr H. C. Vaughan.

Mr. J. S. Dodd has sold "Benkbonite" orchard to Mr C. M. Vaughan. We did not hear the figures.

Boston papers of Friday morning contained from two to three columns each of details of the Dominion elections, with editorials thereon.

On Sunday evening last Rev. Dr. Higgins, assisted by Rev. E. M. Keirsteal, administered baptism to seventeen candidates in the Baptist church.

The religious statistics of the miners killed at Springhill are given as follows: Presbyterian, 44; Episcopalian, 28; Roman Catholic, 24; Methodist, 19; Baptist, 2. Remainder unknown.

The directors, managers and employees of the Windsor & Annapolis railway have given $379.50 to the sufferers by the late Springhill calamity. This is certainly a very good showing, and speaks well for the generosity of our railway men.

In another column will be found a notice of the death of Mrs. Arthur Murphy, one of the oldest residents of Wolfville, and for a long time familiarly known as the popular mistress of the Village House. Mrs. Murphy was a general favorite with all, and her many friends here will long remember her kind and cheery face.

The Thompson building, north of Yarmouth Hotel, recently purchased by Chambers & Harvey for a drygoods store is being completely remodelled. The stairway on the north side has been taken out and the shop extended across the whole building, which is twenty-five feet wide. The front will be fitted with large plate glass windows. A new hardwood floor has been put down, and the ceiling covered with matched sheathing. In the rear left hand corner is an elegant hardwood staircase leading to the upper stories, and a small apartment to be fitted up for an office. The shelves and counters are being placed in position, and the new store will be ready for business in a few weeks. This will make another fine store on Main street. The carpenter work is being done with that thoroughness and neatness characteristic of Mr. Benj. Wyman, the contractor.—Yarmouth Light.

Ash sifters to fit on barrels, great coal sifters, for sale by WALTER BROWN.

GOOD NEWS OF A WOLFVILLE BOY.—At the last meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa society of Harvard, the first eight scholars of the class of ninety-two were elected. East Boston was in it. Mr. William Fenwick Harris of Webster Street, stood second on the list. The election to this society is considered the highest tribute that can be paid to an undergraduate. Mr. Harris has had a brilliant record at Harvard. Last year he took second year honors in Classics and this year will be graduated with the class of ninety-one, thus doing the regular four years' course in three. How superior men are justified.

The following are the correct election returns for this county, as made known on declaration day:—

Mr. Mill's constituents in Ward 4, at a gathering of the electors at Grant Warehouse, Annapolis, on Declaration Day, presented him with an elegantly framed fine crayon portrait of himself, executed by Mr. W. A. Bradshaw, of this town. It is pronounced an excellent likeness, and its execution reflects great credit upon Mr. Bradshaw, who is making himself known as an artist of no mean ability.—Bridgetown Monitor.

R. PRAT. Wolfville, March 12th, 1891.

S. P. C. A. "AND THEY HAD NO HELPERS."

There is a society in Wolfville professedly for the prevention of cruelty. In other parts of the world there are humane organizations specially for the protection of the lower animals: but Wolfville left off the "A," so as to devote all her strength to protecting—tho' in a peculiar fashion—as we shall see—men, women and children, and leaves the "Animals" to look after themselves. This our humble friends cannot always do, because there is, not enough liberty accorded them to allow of it, as we shall see from the following:

On Wednesday last a team of two fine horses, one of which reminded me of "Black Beauty" that he wasn't black, was compelled by their cruel owner to stand fastened from early in the afternoon till the evening without food at one of our village rum-sellings, drunkard-making inns, the owner meanwhile being very comfortable and happy (?) inside, guzzling the vile, maddening, poisoned stuff there in secrecy retailed. But it has not transpired that any member of the S. P. C. interfered or even took the trouble to see the poor horses. Yet the eyes of the horses were not so dull, for in the most expressive and imploring manner they besought any that came near them to furnish food and shelter or at least give them their liberty to go home. As before intimated our Wolfville humane society did nothing for the horses, and I think I can say with certainty that the Temperance societies of the village did as little for the owner. And yet the rum-seller and the proprietor of the horses were in danger, tho' they were not aware of it for just about the time that the horses were released, one of the inhabitants of the village, not a member of the S. P. C., and not belonging to a Temperance society was taking measures to have the law-breakers looked after. The release and departure of the horses stopped the proceedings that were contemplated. Query, what are these humane societies for, except to hold annual meetings?

It has been the aim of the publishers of the ACADIAN in the past to present to its readers a county newspaper second to none, a newspaper that will demand a circulation on account of its merit. How well we have succeeded rests with our patrons to judge. Certain it is we have met with a measure of success, and encouraged by our constantly-increasing circulation we intend to make the ACADIAN for 1891 better than ever before.
