

Gleaned by the Way.

Why waste your time keeping a diary when the Recording Angel is writing?

Nell—Maude is studying painting. Belle—it's about time judging from her complexion.

Knew Dr. Chase in 1867.
Dr. C. W. French, Georgian Bay, Ont., writes that he went to Dr. Chase at Ann Arbor, Mich. in 1867 for pills for kidney disease, was cured and has watched the gradual increase in the popularity of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills until they are now known in practically every home in this country as well as throughout the entire continent and Europe.

I hear yer frim 'Tanson's marriet again.

'Aye, so he is. He's cost me a dear frim' 'tae me. He's got me 'n' three weddin's presents an' 'tae wreaths.'

If some of those girls of ours who are reputed to have such a comprehensive sweep upon the piano' would use it about the house, it would be more to the point.

Angry Scot—'Look here, Mr. O'Brien! I've the verriest greatest respect for yer country, but ye mauna forget this: Ye can sit on a rose, and ye can sit on a shamrock, but O, mon, ye canna sit on a thistle.'

'I seldom make a mistake,' said the man as he placed the lighted end of his cigar in his mouth.

'But when I do,' he continued, 'I rectify it immediately, please.'

And he reversed the cigar and went on with his conversation.

Widow—'Do you know that my daughter has set her eyes upon you?'
Gentleman (lattered)—'Has she, really?'

Widow—'Yes. Only to-day she said: 'That's the sort gentleman I should like for my pa.'

'Man to see you.'

'What does he want?'

'Wants you to take back something which was printed in yesterday's paper.'

'Tell him it will not be necessary for him to come in; we've already taken back everything we printed yesterday.'

Sleep—Nature's Great Restorer.

While you sleep Nature is restoring the worn and tissues wasted during the hours of waking. You can live longer without food than without sleep and persistent sleeplessness usually points to nervous collapse. Dr. Chase's Nervous Food cures sleeplessness by building up the nervous system and its benefits are therefore lasting.

'I am older than I look,' said the matron at whose house the sewing circle had met. 'More than forty winters have passed over my head.'

'Then you haven't lived long in this climate, if that's all,' observed the elderly spinster. 'I've sometimes seen as many as forty winters here in one spring.'

Twenty-five Cents is the Price of Peace.

The terrible itching and smarting, incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price 25 cents. For sale by Retail Drug Stores.

'I observe,' said the editor of the magazine, looking over the manuscript that had been submitted to him by the aspiring author thereof, 'that you have used the phrase, "lean hours." How can there be such a thing as a "lean" hour?'

'Why not?' demanded the other. 'There is such a thing as a spare moment, is it not?'

Piles

To prove to you that Dr. Chase's Ointment is certain and absolute cure for each kind of Piles, we have prepared a booklet containing the daily reports and ask your neighbor what they think of it. You can see it at any drug store or get it by mail for 25 cents. Send for it at once.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

A Scotchman telegraphed a proposal of marriage to the lady of his choice. After spending the whole day at the telegraph office he was finally rewarded in the evening by an affirmative answer.

'If I were you,' suggested the operator, 'I'd think twice before I'd marry a girl that kept me waiting all day for an answer.'

'Na, na, returned the Scot. 'The lass who waits for the night rates is the lass for me.'—Everybody's.

Victim of Delusion—Doctor, I'm awfully afraid I'm going to have brain fever.

Doctor—Pooh, pooh, my dear friend! That is all an illusion of the senses. There is no such thing as fever. You have no fever. You have no brain fever. No material substance upon which such a wholly imaginary and supposititious thing as a fever could find any base of operation.

Victim—Oh, doctor, what a load you have taken from my—from my—I have a mind, haven't I, doctor?

WILFRED GAGNE.
Prop. of Grand Central Hotel, Toronto, Montreal, and N. Y.

In making his way stealthily through the back yard to the window he intended to enter the burglar found his progress impeded by several lengths of clotheslines stretching from fence to fence, from which depended a formidable array of sheets pillow cases, undergarments, and other evidence that it had been a day of activity in the household.

'Delayed by a wash out!' he muttered, stepping down and crawling along on his hands and knees.

Honest But Tactful.

Money is a powerful factor nowadays. It will buy a position in the world—but it can't buy the breeding necessary to the upholding of that position.

It will buy the good things of life—but it can't buy the appetite to enjoy them.

It will buy superb clothes—but it can't negotiate for the proper knack in wearing them.

It will buy a wife—but it can't buy a woman's love.
