WAS GOOD FOOD ON TRANSPORTS

Vancouver, Dec. 27.—"Soldiering is no picnic and you can not always expect first-class hotel accommodation when you are being transported," stated a returned soldier who reached Vancouver this morning with a party of about forty men who had crossed the Atlantic on the steamships Regina and Essequibo. The man was speaking in reference to a complaint emanating from W. J. Dyson, of the Alberta Returned Soldiers' Commission, who made charges of petty grafting against the crew of the Regina.
 "We had all we wanted to eat on the ship, and good food at that," said Sergeant H. Bishop, of Victoria, a 7th Battalion man who enlisted in July, 1915. "Probably some of the boys had to pay for extras between meals, but anyone who has traveled much knows that this is the case on ships the world over."

Sergeant R. F. McKenzie, a 15th Battalion man who enlisted on February 1, 1915, who overheard Sergeant Bishop, endorsed his statement. Pte. W. V. Bailey of Nanaimo, a member of the 29th Battalion, who has been with the regiment since 1915, said that he had had all he wanted to eat on the trip at all times.

A man who has seen much service is Sgt. Grey, M. M., of Victoria. As a member of the 16th Battalion he took part in many big engagements and was wounded at Vimy Ridge, at Messines, and the third time at Amiens. He looks very fit. When asked how he won the Military Medal, he replied: "For doing as I was told."

Ottawa, Dec. 27.—A cable from the overseas military authorities to the Director of Public Information here states that a special Order of the Day addressed to all ranks of the Canadian Corps was issued on Christmas Day by Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Currie, the Corps commander. The text of the Order follows:

"Christmas in each year since 1914 brought a message of hope, but the hearts of our people at home were heavy and full of forebodings. We on the torn fields of battle could only harden our purpose to keep on fighting until Christianity and civilization were vindicated and re-established. And now we have reached our goal: The foe is vanquished. The powers of darkness are defeated. We can this year celebrate with joy the anniversary of the birth of Christ, the Prince of Peace.

 "The message to our people in is born again."

"HINDY" SAYS TERMS SEVERE

States Turning Over of Rolling Stock to Allies Will Cause Much Suffering in Germany.

Toronto, Dec. 27.—The Toronto Mail and Empire has the following dispatch from Lincoln Byres, a special correspondent:

"Our (the German) troops are withdrawing to the east bank of the Rhine in good order and as fast as possible. We are doing our best to carry out the terms of the armistice laid down by Marshal Foch, but the severity of the terms makes it very hard for us to succeed in this. In fact, it may be physically impossible to do all that is asked of us."

Thus Field Marshal von Hindenburg, military leader of defeated Germany, pressed his view of the situation of his armies when I saw him at his headquarters. Hindenburg received me in the reception room in the Schloss Wilhelmshof Hotel in Cassel, whither he had moved his headquarters from Spa, in Belgium. Across the park was the great Wilhelmshof Castle, which was the Kaiser's favorite summer home, in which Napoleon III. was interned following his capture at Sedan in 1870. German General Headquarters was a gloomy place. Outside, a single sentry still wearing a coal scuttle helmet mounted guard. Inside, Staff Officers with drawn, white faces, fitted silently about the long corridors. None of them ever laughed and few could even smile. We were immediately ushered into the presence of the Commander-in-Chief, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, a giant of a man, bowed gravely as we entered and bade us be seated. He was clad in the familiar gray-green field uniform.

"You have come to us at a time of great sorrow and stress," he said, "I am glad to see you and tell you of the situation confronting us." Then followed the statement quoted above concerning the difficulty of carrying out the armistice terms. I inquired what he deemed the feature of the terms hardest for Germany to comply with.

"Delivery to the Allies of so large a number of locomotives and railroad cars in so short a time" came the quick reply. "To turn this rolling stock over in the time stipulated can not be accomplished except at the expense of great suffering for the German people."

In answer to another question he observed: "I have remained at the head of the army because I consider it my duty to remain in order to save my country from chaos. After the army has got home and been demobilized my duty will have been done. I am getting to be an old man and I am ready to retire."

"Is there any likelihood of the old governing elements returning to power?" he was asked.
 "I can not discuss political matters. They are beyond my domain," he replied.

Von Hindenburg also said he could not forecast what form the German army would assume in the future.

"Events must decide," he remarked. Among other things Hindenburg admitted that Germany had lost the war. He intimated that he would retire as soon as his army was safely entrenched in his new lines.

Hindenburg was very particular to emphasize his allegiance to the new German government.

FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick, Wavy and Beautiful—Try This.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is sure evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff; that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dandérine, tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

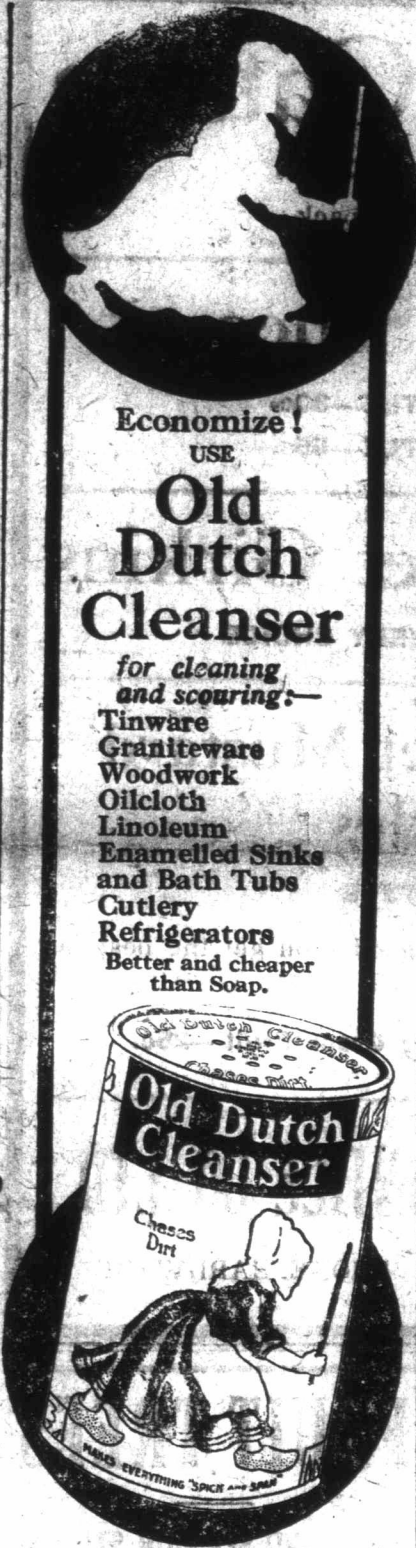

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dandérine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.
