erally is going shead and doing well, the city of Halifax is going to the dogs. The statistics which he held in his hand did not prove it. He would mention one fact. In 1886 there was entered at the port of For Whom do You Halifax, of sea-going vessels, 881 For Whom do Lou Vote, craft of 556,657 tons, with 19,569 of Facts Compiled from the Public Recrews. In the same year there was entered at the port of Montreal, of sea-going vessels, 851 craft of 530,- 897 tons, and with 14,153 of crews. Thus By lifax was shown to larger number of sea-going vessels visiting it than Montreal,—the commercial metropolis of the Dominion Yet Montreal was counted one of the livest places in the world, and no Montreal man could be found to cry down the credit of his city. (Hear, hear.) Still Halifax leads it in ocean trade!

Sir Charles Tupper on Prohibition,

In his speech at Amherst, Sir

Charles Tupper said:
There was one question of such a grave and important character as to induce him to refer to it on the first abl opportunity, namely, prohibition. He referred to the first time be stood on a hustings in Cumberland county, and to pledging himself to support that policy in the Legislature; that he redeemd that pledge by voting for a measure to enforce total prohibition A like measure in the meantime had been carried by Sir Leonard Tilley in New Brunswick, but any attempt at en-forcement had utterly failed. He then spoke of the time he presented himself before the people as provin-
