Adam Hunter Finishing Up His City Hall Work.

Relief Officer McMenemy has two Yesterday and to-day a young woYesterday and to-day a young woman with four small children has waited upon him several times, and told him an interesting story. About ten days ago, she said, her husband, William Walter Smith, came to this city from Toronto, He is a shoe maker, and, she understood, he started to work in a shoe factory last Tuesday. Not hearing from him, Mrs. Smith came here yesterday bringing the children, and applied to Mr. McMenemy to help her find her husband. The latter went to the McPherson factory, but he is not there. It is supposed that he may have got work somewhere else, in the city, and, if so, the Relief Officer would be very much pleased to hear from him. Up to this afternoon Mrs . Smith and children were around the City Hall, although she has a boarding place on John street south.

...e other case is a more remark... Three weeks ago a family ...inman came here from ...d and took rooms on King ... east. Mr. Weinman did not ...he place and left. It is believed ...vent back to Montreal. The woman ...t a situation in the country and ...nt to work. Before doing so, how...ever, she took their child, one year old, to the City Hospital. It had been in the Montreal Hospital, and was in a very bad state with what is called ricketts, which is due to improper or insufficient nourishment. The child improved up to a few days ago, when it collapsed and died. The hospital authorities, who had been given the name of Wedman and the King street address, sent word there, but could find no trace of the people. Relief Officer McMenemy was appealed to and got the woman's address. He also saw her employer, but she did not come for the child, and the city will bury it.

Superintendent Rae, of the House of Refuse, desires to thank the Hamilton W.C.T.U. and Youman's Y for a treat of strawberries, cream and cake for the inmates.

Adam Hunter winds up his work in the Assessment Department to-morrow, and becomes Public Librarian on Friday. He has been working overtime at the City Hall, and leaves the work in good shape. It will not be necessary to get another man to replace him.

Deputy Councillor, C. N. Stewart, is acting Mayor to-day, in the absence of Mayor Morden, and the aldermen, on the Turbinia.

SY...GOGUE WEDDING.

...Rose Cohen Marries Rochester Young Man.

A pretty wedding took place in the Jewish Synagogue, Hughson street south yesterday afternoon, when Miss Rose Cohen became the bride of Mr. Morris Levin, of Rochester. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock by Rev. Myer Rogoff. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends. The interior of the Synagogue was prettily decorated with green and all kinds of flowers in honor of the occasion. The three bridesmaids were Misses Fanny and Rhen Levin, of Rochester, and Miss Fanny Goldberg, of this city. The groomsmen were Mr. Loui Harris, Mr. A. Cohen, and Mr. M. Brown. The first named was also master of ceremonies. The maid of honor was Miss Dolly Cohen, sister of the bride, and two little sisters of the bride and one of the groom were the flower girls. The bride was prettily attired in white taffeta silk with chiffon trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were also gowned in white. Guests were present from Toronto, London, and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Levin, arents of the groom, and Mrs. Caphlin, all of Rochester, were also present. Many beautiful and costly presents were received from friends in different parts. About thirty telegrams were received from friends in all parts of Canada and the States, conveying congratulations to the young couple.

The wedding repast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, Cathcart street. About 100 sat down.

Lomas' orchestra supplied the music.

AT THE R. H. Y. C.

Many Dinner Parties at the Popular Resort.

Never was the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club as popular with Hamilton people as just now. There were no less than nine dinner parties there last evening. Ald. J. M. Eastwood entertained a party of fourteen; Mr. H. M. Watson had one of fourteen also, and Messrs. W. J. Southam and H. C. Birge each had parties of ten. Mr. J. G. Gauld had five, and Messrs. F. D. Fearman and P. H. Douglass each four. Messrs. D'Arcy Tate and S. DuMoulin had a joint party of six, and Mr. W. A. Holton one of seven.

Municipal Advertising.

The city of New York now employs an advertising expert. In an interview the Commissioner of Accounts said the municipal advertising is a vast affair and goes into many different mediums. "We use dailies, weeklies, financial journals and other periodicals, always the principal mediums in each fileld." He said he was sure the best results were from the daily newspapers, "just as in the case of a business house."

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

—There will be a garden party at the residence of Mr. Hugh Carpenter, Winona, on Friday evening.

—The members of the Fortnightly Club, as a wind-up of the season of 1903-4, picnicked at Ainslie Park last evening, and had a most enjoyable time.

—The Dowswell Manufacturing Company's employees will hold their seventh and best annual picnic at Victoria Park, Niagara Falls, on Saturday, July 16, via T., H. & B. R.

—Have the Spanish palmist, Senorita Mattilla, who is at the Waldorf, read your hand before she goes away. She is very clever. Hamilton will never have another palmist like her.

—Jane Ptolemy, 56 years of age, passed away in this city yesterday yesterday. The remains will be taken to Woodburn, and the interment will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

—Saturday, July 23, has been fixed upon as the date for the Westinghouse employees' picnic. The G. T. R. will carry the pleasure seekers to Queen Victoria Park, Niagara Falls, and a jolly time is promised.

at the Beach, will be opened by Rev. Mr. Howitt to-morrow, Thursday, afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The ladies of the committee will be glad to welcome any visitors, and afternoon tea will be served.

—The annual prize day will be held at Ridley College, on Thursday, June 30th. After the presentation of prizes the corner stone of the new upper school building is to be laid. The ceremonies will start at 3 p. m.

The 13th Regiment Band will render a choice programme on the lawn at Nona Park on Friday, July 1. Admission to park will be free. Hot water will be supplied to those who wish to picnic at the park. The show in the theatre will be given as usual at 3.30 and 8.30 p. m.

—The City Hospital authorities are carefully investigating the recent outbreak among the nurses and help, but the typhoid fever tests have all been negative. There has been one new case, but all the patients, with probably one exception, are very much better.

—The regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council will be held in the Labor Hall to-night, when officers will be elected, also delegates to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. A large attendance is requested. Plans are under way for a monster Labor Day celebration.

—William Taft, 73 years of age, passed away to-day, after an illnesss of about three weeks. He underwent an operation at the City Hospital recntly. The funeral will take place from the residence of his son-in-law, W. Hawkes, 84 Inchbury street, on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—I saw a little dickey bird, and he was violently singing. I saw another little bird that wasn't doing anythinging. The former reminds one of the fellow who buys his shirts, ties, underwear, hats and things at waugh's, post office opposite, always happy, the latter reminds one of the fellow who doesn't.

—Mr. Rod. Harris, the well-known hotel advertising man, will leave for the Soo to-night. He expects to go to the coast before returning to Hamilton. As a parting shot Mr. Harris said: "You can say I saw Forepaugh-Sells circus at Kingston and it is bigger and better than ever. I believe it is the best show in America to-day."

—This morning the Hamilton Steamboat Company's Macassa had a large number of passengers and a big load of freight. She left at 10.45 and was at her wharf in Toronto at 1.12 p. m. The Turbinia went out with her party at 11 o'clock, and beat the Macassa's time 17 minutes.

MILITARY TATTOO.

People who go early to the military Tattoo on Thursday, July 7, will be sure of getting a good seat. The officers of the Thirteenth will see that those who attend are comfortably looked after. Seats are being built in a double row around three sides of the enclosure, and the whole regiment will be paraded to make sure that order is maintained, and that everyone gets a clear view of the ceremony.

Should Get Your Trade.

Selling $15 suits for $8.98 is a pretty stiff reason why you should buy a suit at Fralick & Co's. The very latest in cut and fabrics or we couldn't have bought them.

It's better to walk and catch a later train than run and miss an earlier one.

MARKLE PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Alleged That He Swore Falsely at Ninth Division Court.

Trio of Alleged Vagrants Locked Up Last Night.

Other Small Cases—John Graham a Funny Drunk.

As a result of the instructions received by the acting Crown Attorney, Mr. Thos. Crerar, from a County Court Judge, some time ago, to take proceedings against Charles Markle on a charge of swearing falsely at a sitting of the Ninth Division Court, Markle appeared at the Police Court this morning, to answer a charge of perjury. Markle lives at 25 Hess street north, and was arrested at about 4 o'clock this morning by Detective Bleakly, and P. Cs. Reynolds, Robson and Oakes. The prisoner asked for a remand until to-morrow, to give him a chance to see his lawyer. The Crown agreed to this. As the Chief has a number of witnesses that there will be difficuty in getting, he asked for a remand until Saturday. A further remand will probably be asked for to-morrow. The charge reads as follows:

That he did unlawfully commit perjury in connection with a suit or proceedings held at a sittings of the Ninth Division Court, in the Court House, in the said city, on the 20th day of May, 1904, by swearmig to the effect that he, the said Charles Markle, worked for Alfred Hanley during the period from May 16 to July 10, 1901, under a contract with the said Alfred Hanley, to be paid at the rate of $1 a day, and that he boarded with the said Alfred Hanley during the said period; that he did not see George Stroud with reference to the said Hanley account, and did not promise to pay Stroud $10, on account thereof, and that he did not go to the office of George S. Kerr with the said Hanley with regard to the said account and discuss the matter with the said George S. Kerr, when in truth he did not work for the said Alfred Hanley during the said period under a contract for wages, and did not board with the said Hanley during the said period, and did see George Stroud with reference to the said Hanley acount, and did promise to pay him $10 on account thereof, and did go to the office of the said George S. Kerr with Hanley with reference to the said account, and discuss the matter of the said account with the said George S. Kerr.

The prisoner applied for bail, and His Worship made it $500.

P. C.'s Venard and English arrested a trio of alleged vagrants late last night. They were James Nealon, 256 Ray street north; Walter Marshall, 11 Mill street, and Harry Joy, King street west. They all pleaded not guilty, and the Chief asked for a remand until to-morrow. It is alleged that they have been going around the streets begging for the past few days. The Chief will have witnesses on hand to-morrow. The officers claim that they saw them stop thirty people in the course of an hour or so. They were arrested just as they were coming out of an hotel.

Mary Nevills, Haysland, took too much of the "influence" yesterday, and was arrested by P. C. Venard. She promised to go right back to the country, and was allowed to go.

Abraham Royal, 90 Ray street north, who shook the police station with his war whoops, last night, told the court he was not drunk. Royal was sleeping on the grass when he was arrested. He was fined $1 or five days.

"I was drunk to a certain extent," said John Graham, of bethel Mission, charged by P. C. May with being intoxicated.

"You have more money than brains; you were here yesterday," said the court.

"I am ashamed of myself. I have got sense but I don't practice it," said Graham, and continued, 'I just get overrun with good nature."

"Fined $1,' 'announced the court.

"God bless you, Mr. Jelfs. I am ashamed of myself. I will pay $1 and never drink again,' quoth Graham, as he sank back in his seat.

WON THE MEDAL.

Corbett Whitton Distinguishes Himself at College.

Among the Hamilton boys who have brought honor to the city during the past year is Corbett F. Whitton, son of F. H. Whitton, who has for the past six years been attending Loyola College, Montreal. This talented student maintained a high position in his classes during his course, and in his final examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Art, took high standing, securing 832 out of a possible tptal of 900, or over 92 per cent., thereby winning the bronze medal offered for competition in second year philosophy, by the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, Sir Louis Amable Jette. His success is due in no small degree to the excellent training received by him when a pupil in the private school of the Rev. A. T. Miller for four years. He will enter McGill College, Montreal, in September to pursue a course in engineering, his chosen profession in life.

CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

Daughter of Mrs. John Cart Weds Mr. Joseph Breek.

St. Mary's Cathedral was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning, when Miss Mary Ellen Cart, daughter of John Cart, barber, James street north, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Breek, also of this city. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock, and the relatives and the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. M'lle. Visheau was bridesmaid, and John Cart, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride and bridesmaid were appropriately gowned. The young people have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

CHOIR OUTING.

St. Thomas Church Singers at the Battlefield.

St. Thomas' Church choir had a delightful outing last evening, the members and friends going by the H., G. & B. to the Stoney Creek battlefield and spending the evening there. Tea was served when the party arrived there, and then games and a good programme of music, speeches, etc., were enjoyed. Hon. Dr. Montague, T. W. Lester and R. Tasker Steele were the speakers, and songs were sung by Mrs. Geo. S. Papps, Mrs. H. G. Beckett and Miss Bustin. Dr. Macloghlin played a violin solo, and Harry Bustin a flute solo.

A pleasant feature was the presentation to Miss Gibson of a beautiful chatelaine bag by the rector, she having attended every service and every choir practice during the year.

SHOWS PROSPERITY.

Over 700 Cases of Salada Delivered to John Stuart & Co.

One of the evidences of the general prosperity of a community is the quality of the goods its citizens purchase. The Times was forcibly reminded of this fact this morning when attention was directed to a shipment of Salada Ceylon Tea, which was being transferred from the G. T. R. freight sheds to the warehouse of Messrs. John Stuart & Co., King street west, one of Hamilton's enterprising wholesale grocery houses, to complete an order placed a few days ago.

The shipment was composed of upwards of 700 cases, containing over 30,000 sealed lead packets. In the short space of a couple of years its present proportions, and this increased their business in Salada Ceylon tea from practically nothing to it present proportions, and this in face of the fact that all the wholesale grocers in the city handle it as well. This speaks volumes, not only for this energetic firm, but also for Salada.

It is of special interest to know something of what contributes to the acknowledged excellence of this popular brand of tea, and the methods adopted to insure the customer getting it with all its original goodness preserved.

Teas only that have successfully passed that most critical of all tests, the teapot, are accepted. These fresh, succulent leaves are then judiciously blended, according to the Salada formula, the result being a tea of unequalled quality and uniformity, always up to the standard. To retain its delicious flavor it is packed in air tight lead packets and labeled "Salada," which is the consumers' guarantee of its absolute purity and flavor. In this form only (never in bulk) it may be had in practically every village and hamlet from Dawson City to Sidney, C. B., as well as in the greater part of the United States.

Are you a Salada drinker? If not, if you desire the best, ask your grocer for this most delicious tea.

LORD DUNDONALD.

His Foolish View of Canada's Relations and Duty.

(Catholic Record.)

Lord Dundonald, encouraged by the partisan championship of Conservative politicians and the unwise aggression of some militia officers, has undertaken to warn Canadians that they are living in "a fools' paradise," because of "the indifference of the men who govern the country to the welfare of the force." This is refreshing indeed from an officer who has been hardly two years in Canada, and who knows no better than to make himself the tool of partisans outside and inside of Porliament, as instance the Baker family compact and the confidential brief supplied to Col. Sam Hughes.

Canadians may be living in "a fools' paradise," but the Canadian people and government certainly prefer their country as a paradise of peaceful fools—fools because they are peaceful—rather than a hot-bed of militarism.

What is it Lord Dundonald would have the "indifferent" government of this "fools' paradise" of ours do- In a word, his quarrel with the government from the hour of his arrival, according to his own account, has been that he was not given a free hand in putting Canada on a war footing to meet the United States. The petty incident of the Eastern Townships regimental appointments was only a pretext.

Lord Dundonald's one purpose was to appeal to the people against the government in favor of a big programme of national defence. The United States was the prospective enemy. He does not disguise his meaning. Canada was to be drilled to match the United States. So much a stranger was Lord Dundonald to the sentiment of the Canadian people that it nexer struck him for a moment the people of this Dominion would regard with horror such a competition with the United States in arms and preparations for war.

This 'fools' paradise" of ours is no doubt supplied with the proverbial gate, at which Lord Dundonald expects the invading Yankees to ride in up to their stirrups in blood. And as Lord Dundonald, in his capacity of disgruntled Peri at the Gate, is on his way out, and not in the least likely to come back again, the carnage will probably be "postponed" like his great programme of modern war. Perhaps if the Canadian people are but left to their own foolish ways they may go on from generation to generation keeping the peace, not only among themselves, but with their neighbors also, in the unmilitary way that has distinguished them since they undertook responsible government. If they should do this they will doubtless esteem good colonies of immigrants as being more desirable in the Northwest than squadrons of artillery. Likewise they will stupidly persist in electing responsible governments by constitutional methods instead of importing young military dictators to play the Boulanger march and rouse the jingoes against our southern neighbors, and Ontario Tories against French-Canadian fellow countrymen.

A talking and scribbling war lord like Dundonald could never expect to feel at home in such a paradise of fools. He cannot go to Thibet too soon. If he could only take some of the jingoes with him they would never be missed. Towards the preservation of our national peace and dignity in Canada, we are satisfied with home-grown, far-seeing statesmanship and the maintenance of a militia force as an arm of defence solely and not as an ambitious and aggressive modern fighting machine.

SAW A LIVE OKAPI.

Major James Harrison, traveller and sportsman, has just returned to England after an adventurous period of big game hunuting in the great forest of Central Africa.

Yesterday he related the story of his experiences: "I started a few days after Christmas, and made my way down to the Stanley Forest, where the pigmies are. I saw many of the pigmies. They used to keep away from us on our approach, but afterward hung on our rear. They are keen little people and good hunters; none was over 3 feet 10 inches in height.

"Failing to find the okapi, I worked up to Jabir, and thence into the great forest of De Melley. The trees of the forest were so interwoven with tangled creepers and underwood that one had often to crawl to make one's way thorugh it. On the sixth day in the forest we came on the spoor of okapi. We had been following it for hours, when, on suddenly turning round a bush, I saw an okapi not more than fifteen feet in front of me.

"It was an animal something like a giraffe, soem ten or eleven feet high, of a tawny gray in color, with stripes over the loins. It was gone like a flash into the thicket long before I could get my rifle from the native who was carrying it. I never saw the okapi again."

Remarkable Results

In hot weather one's internal economy is very apt to get out of order. To be safe, take occasional doses of Parke's Lithiated Fruit Granules. It is remarkable the number of flattering testimonials received of this preparation. A teaspoonful in a tumbler of water quenches the thirst, cools the stomach and eliminates through the action of the liver, kidneys and skin poisonous products from the system. Large bottles, screw capped and yellow label, 25c. Sold by
