THE EVENING SHADOW,

bor. The curtains of the windows of their too much at first." room are always down, but by the shade cast by the lamp I can see very well what asked again.

one action of the shadow, now unfortu- been exchanged, was : nately the only shadow to watch, which "Well how are the shadows?" man's wife used at all times to stand be. and we both sat down. articles of clothing before taking them to these people?"

This was a certain Mr. Pycroft, a copperplate printer, with whom I had former- "Quite," I replied, "for the doctor told front of that which I was looking from, ingly towards me when I denied his imit so happened that at one time in my ished again, but I remarked that for a ters. Stretching my neck, and glancing plot to trick him into a reconciliation, and life I had been in a position to do him a considerable time Mr. Pycroft seemed in a slanting direction towards the next now his eyes were directed towards the service, and had done it. He was a fat, absent and uncomfortable, and we had of the opposite houses, I saw that the place where his son stood before him. jolly-looking old boy, and was, as far as I talked of matters foreign to the subject I second floor window was illuminated, and He was a fine, manly-looking fellow, had had opportunities of judging, as good- had at heart, before he again returned to the blind half lowered. natured as he looked.

the pawnbroker's.

There was one circumstance connected with his history which seemed to show Mr. Pycroft, at last, hesitate about applying to him. I re- have sat down to a bit of supper." membered to have heard that some time ago he had acted with great severity to- per-plate printer. ward his eldest son, who, having contracthad been deprived of his share in the could by his own exertions. The fact is, the shadows would show us that." that the old man had had a darling project of marrying his eldest son to a young here. girl whose father was a business connec tion of his own. The old copper-plate was further outraged by his son's choice, having fallen in a direction particularly had been represented to his father as be. were on our way to No. 4.

him I determined to apply, but in a round | child's shadow on the blinds. about way. It occurred to me that if I could enlist his sympathy in the fate of plied, "and so does this gentleman." these poor people, just as my own had whistling for some time.

band could earn," I answered, "and he is let me talk to this gentleman."

The light had now re-appeared in the woman, with a large nose. room. The shadow of the little wife ting it down. Her figure was motionless liked very much. for a considerable time, and then we noted that the head fell forward, and that object of our visit. the face was buried in the hands as if in "Oh what a joyful surprise!" said the I spoke at No. 5. an agony of silent grief.

We neither of us spoke, and at the manner infinitely offensive to me.

matter. Just before I retired to rest through his illness, and—take care of the in an injured tone; "you should have however, I looked out once more. The stairs, kind gentleman -and this is the shadow of the little wife's head was in its room gentleman; and here's a joyful surusual place, and the shadow of her hand prise, James; the gentleman that's been post." rose and fell as usual. She was at work so kind all the time you've been ill; and be pleased to take a seat gentleman, and the woman relented a little.

ceived a letter from Mr. Pycroft. He had it." been thinking a great deal, he said, of what he had seen the night before, and enclosed a little money, which he asked which a smoking fowl, a bit of bacon and the second control of the second which a smoking fowl, a bit of bacon and the second control of the seco

I handed the money over to Dr. Cordial, asking him to apply it as it might seem best to his judgment, but making no mention of who it came from. I asked him also to let me have news as fred him also to let me have news as fred the neat little shadow which I knew so was tood and knowled. quently as possible of the condition of his well—that great, gaunt, sloping creature; we stood and knocked.

And now a long convalescence followed and a time arrived when one evening the shadow of a wasted figure moved slowly mast the light, and I could guess as I past the light, and I could guess as I companied by the well-known shadow of to my friend, the copper-plate printer. and kept him well acquainted with all the was not my engraver.

has assisted them from time to time to utter on first coming into the room, we wanted any conviction that satisfied me throughout their trouble."

old fellow, trying to get away from the take. I had been staring some time at cessary that I should at once account for "And they are very anxious," I con- the door-step, and who, to do her justice, begun to do so in a few hurried words, give them the opportunity."

is going on in the little room. Perhaps "No, no, on no account," said the hanging in the window.

have become so interested in the little continued, in a moment, "I should like down the bird-cage." the shadows, you know," he added. ist the temptation and so I watch.

The room contains a young married I was obliged to be satisfied with this,

"We ain't got no bird-cage," burst out tor bewil derment.

went home. Punctual to the appointed neither." I feel quite a sense of proprietorship in time, my old friend, the copper-plate "Will you hold your tongue, miss!" inlooking at my poor shadow, and watch printer, made his appearance, and his first terposed her mother. them more eagerly than ever. There was question after the usual greeting had There was an awkward pause. I look- croft, "that it shall meet with the succ be turned down till its light was very low, change come over the countenance of my that rather unwholesome?" and would remain so for a considerable guest. He raised himself in his chair, A voluble answer on the subject of conperiod. I could not understand this at the time, though I did afterwards. She a strange tone of voice:

fined lodgings, their advantages, and disadvantages, followed, but I did not would certainly have done my best to

"Adams—you are quite sure?"

the shadows.

ed a marriage against his father's wishes, luxury, furnished by your liberality." business, which he had formerly enjoyed, boy who had a great idea of comfort, on the staircase, followed closely by Mr. the penalty."

the sweeter to them, I am sure."

mind with regard to his elder brother's isn't it?"

been awakened, by means of the shadows little girl, who by the way appeared to be ing personage whose supper had been little wife, smiling as she looked at me. it would be a far better plan than any a precious shrew-"for father's at supper supplied by your benevolence." and there's a foul, and father's been ill "And so they're very poor," said Mr. and you can't disturb him just as he's a croft, utterly aghast. Pycroft, as if talking to himself, after a little better—so that you can't

"You just hold your tongue, miss, will "They had nothing but what the hus- you?" said a voice at this juncture, "and my answer. wholly incapably of working, and will re- I looked up and saw that the door had in petrified amazement.

main so probably for weeks to come." been opened by a tall, gaunt looking "What did you please to want, sir?" seemed to linger by the table after set. she asked in a whining tone, which I dis-same moment I dropped the curtain of "Get along up stairs, Lizzie," she conmy own window which had before been tinued, addressing the child, "and tell actually rang at the second bell handle fastened back, for I felt that this was sor- your father that the kind gentleman as on the left hand door post. row with which a spectator had no right assisted him in his illness is coming to door was opened by a slatternly woman. see him; I'm his wife, kind gentleman,"-Soon afterwards my old friend rose to (this the shadow I had interested myself lifluous voice. go, and we spoke not another word on the in!)-"I'm his poor wife that nursed him companied by the well-known shadow of the little wife, that the sick man was moving from his bed to a chair by the moving from his bed to a chair by the sick man was a great contrast to that which was a g in our invalid's health, even to the period was speaking, the gaunt woman kept up were on the floor at one end of the room. when it was so far re-established that he an undercurrent of gratitude of the The table, and a couple of old chairs were was able at last to sit up for a number of slimsiest description, to which the old the only articles of furniture I could see hours every day at his engraving table, gentleman answered not a word, for he The engraver's lamp was on the table, and work once more for his wife's sup- seemed as little prepared for the real Mr. and the materials for a very poor meal "They are very grateful," I said when I the shadows as I was. In short, beyond cooking—a very little scrap of bacon and quaintance, "to the unknown friend who the invalid's health, which I had managed hanging in the window, and if I had had neither of us spoken a word. "Oh, no, nonsense, it's nothing, nothing Suddenly the tremendous idea entered Of course all these things were taken at all-nothing at all " ejaculated the my mind that there must be some mis- in by me at a single glance, it being ne-tinued, resolutely, "to thank him person- returned the compliment with interest, when my attention was suddenly arrested ally, if he would but reveal himself and when it struck me that her head came by an exclamation from Mr. Pycroft, who considerably above the window-sill, and had followed me. The second occupant "No, no, not for the world," was the that, consequently, it was a most extraor- of the room, whom he had at first seen answer; "oh, dear, no, impossible. Here dinary thing that its shadow had never imperfectly, had now risen to his feet, From my window I overlook across the here's a trifle extra, just to set them go caught my attention. My eyes having in and stood with the light full upon him, way to the house of my opposite neighing, you know, because he musn't work the course of this comparison of the young straining his eye into the shade where lady with the window sill been directed my companion stood behind him. I HAS sea this is all very impertinent in me, but I old boy. "Fil tell you what though" he "Hallao!" I ejaculated; "you've taken said speaking very thick and with chokroom and its occupants that I cannot re to see them—see them as I did before— "Bird cage, sir?" whined the gaunt does you little credit."

couple. Day by day I have seen the and making an engagement with my old the small child of the door-step; "nor "I mean that if this has been all young husband at work, until sickness friend for an early day, I left him, and never haven thad none-nor yet no bird planned thing to bring about a reconcili ed again about the room, I looked at the it deserves. woman, I looked at her husband-he had He turned as he spoke and made for used to puzzle me not a little. The sick I placed his chair in the old position, no beard, I now observed. I had, how- the door, but I was beforehand with ever, presence of mind enough not to ask him.

When this happened, I noticed a great choked up at the back with houses. Isn't came to this room I had no more idea was testing the condition of different "What did you say was the name of hear it. I was looking for my own window in the house opposite. I had left the lamp alight and the blind half drawn your name. up. The window before me, exactly in ly had dealings. He was an old man, and me." By this time the shadow had van- was fastened up and secured with shut-

"They seem quiet enough now," said coming back to the table, and exchange ence of recent il ness showing on his worn him in a lest amiable light, and the remembrance of which made me for a time cleaning of the room is over, and that they to come in and see how you were enjoying your selves, and so now we will leave begun.

"Do you think so?' asked the old cop- you to do better justice to the fowl than you could if we remained here." and left to make a living as well as he "What do you think they've got? I wish Pycroft, who, speechless as long as we I looked at my companion's face, and I remained in the room, did nothing now thought that I saw some shadow of com I darted at once at the opening I saw but repeat, "Wrong people, eh?-been punction working there.

but why not go across and see it in sub- The gaunt woman was, however, too wanting for the realities which cast printer was not only thwarted in this, but stance? It would make their supper all loquacious herself to hear what was said them." and during the time that she lighted "It wouldn't be bad fun, would it? he down the stairs, never ceased whining husband's side, and advancing to where distasteful to him for private reasons. I said.

out her gratitude for a single moment.

suspected also from what I had heard, I wanted nothing more, and in another we stood, laid her hand timidly on that of When we got into the street I turned my old friend. I looked at him once more suspected also from what I had heard, that the conduct of his eldest son, which minute I had him on his legs, and we round and looked my companion in the and then, beckoning the poor engraver T. W. SMITH face. ing violent and rebellious in no ordinary difference as degree, had been made the worst of by pot of beer in her hand, and we had no said, "to think that you have been as was no longer needed. the younger brother, who not only step sooner stopped before the house than she sisting people who are really in need of About an hour afterwards I was sitting ped into the lion's share of the business made known a want incidental to the lives help, but it is very evident that every disconsolately in my room, reflecting or on his brother's removal, but himself con. of maidens who stand only three feet two penny of your bounty has gone to the the loneliness of my own position, and great deal to do in poisoning the old man's "that's where Mr. and Mrs. Adams live, "that by a curious coincidence there have my friend, Mr. Pycroft, standing at his sn't it?" been two second-floor lodgers ill in two son's open window.

"Yes, sir, and he's my father," said the houses next door to each other; that "We want you to come over," said the At all events old Mr. Pycroft was the young lady, who evidently looked upon after my seeing Dr. Cordial at the window old gentleman, "and spend what is left CLOTHS, CLOTHING. only person I could think of now as likely the couple alluded to as one flesh. I opposite to mine, he had gone from the of the evening with us." to help my unfortunate shadows, and to thought it odd I had never seem this one house to the other; that he had time I assented gladly, and in a few minutes "Well I want to see him, then," I re- just left; and that then I had met him in the room opposite. coming away from attending on our poor "Oh, but you can't, though," said the shadows but in reality from the deserv-

> "And the shadows?" gasped Mr. Py-"Have, through my unfortunate mis- thickest curtain we can get, in order to take, not received a single shilling," was prevent our opposite neighbor from sec Mr. Pycreft stared at me for some time happens to be alight."

"We can never leave the thing like this," he said at last. "Do you think he ting up the curtain, for the opposite neighcould be sure of the house this time?" bor hopes henceforth to see so much of mistrust about it," I said, "but I own is not likely to trouble himself much more I told her briefly who we were, and the that I feel none myself. This is the about—their Shadows." house beyond a doubt." I looked up as gaunt woman, whining as before in a clusion at once," said the old copper plate printer, stoutly; and with that we

After the proper amount of delay the "Second floor back?" said I in a mel

I begged pardon with all humility, and The next day, by an early post, I re- honor our poor room by sitting down in she said, "and if your coming up I may me to see applied to the benefit of the young couple in whose fortune I had interested myself. He also begged me from time to let him have tidings of what "the shadows" were about.

I handed the money over to De Couple in the seed of the evident marks of illness, and rose with some effort at our entry. He resumed his seat, however as I rand my companion sat down. I took a chair, as I handed the money over to De Couple in whose fortune I had interested myself. He also begged me from time to let him have tidings of what "the shadows" were about.

I handed the money over to De Couple in whose fortune I had interested myself. He also begged me from time to let him have tidings of what "the shadows" were about.

I handed the money over to De Couple in whose fortune I had interested myself. He also begged me sume distribution out in so doing a blast of onions that almost made my eyes water, she disappeared into the refreshing vapors and about the second and landing. The slatternly woman pointed out the door at which we were to knock, and opening her own, and letting out in so doing a blast of onions that almost made my eyes water, she disappeared into the refreshing vapors and about the second some potatoes had been placed. He bore the evident marks of illness, and rose with some effort at our entry. He resumed his seat, however as I are sumed in the second some potatoes had been placed. He bore the door at which we were to knock, and opening her own, and letting out in so doing a blast of onions that almost made my eyes water, she disappeared into the refreshing vapors and about the second some potatoes had been placed. He bore the door at which we were to knock, and opening her own, and letting out in so doing a blast of onions that almost made my eyes water, she disappeared into the refreshing vapors and about the second some potatoes had been placed. He bore the door at which we were to knock, and opening her own, and letting out in the door at which we were to knock, and opening her own, and letting out in the d

Were shadows so decertive as this? A clear, cheerful voice called us to patient. These I transmitted pretty nearly as often as I received them to the ald conner-plate printer.

Were shadows so deceptive as this?
Would anybody tell me that my opposite enter, and in another moment we stood inside the room.

Two people a man and a woman, occunow saw, and that it would not have stood | Two people, a man and a woman, occu

The husband, too. That was not my trance, I recognized at once the shadow

Of course I made this advance known his recent attack of fever. He was a room was utterly bare, looking as if all harmless little man, no doubt, but still he available objects had been removed, as probably they had to be turned into > that I had found my shadow at last. take. I had been staring some time at the little girl whom we originally met on my visit and that of my friend. I had the door-step, and who, to do her justice, begun to do so in a few hurried words,

>
> TST received a lot of Novelty Oil Cans, a new and useful article.
>
> 10 Dozen Snow Shovels 1 dozen Coal Sifters.
>
> R. CHESTNUT & SONS, Oct, 19.

"And you won't let them see you?" | toward this last part of the room, I next turned hastily around, and met the stern observed that there was no bird-cage gaze of my old friend. "If this is a trick. Mr. Broadhead." he ing utterance, "I can tell you that it

"What do you mean?" I asked in u ation, between me and my son-"I can only say," continued Mr. Py-fore the light, and, as it appeared to me, I must not omit to mention, that once after that missing appendage as I had "Stay, Mr. Pycroft!" I cried, "If you used to hold some articles of clothing, or the figure of the poor engraver was done aster the bird cage. I determined choose to retain this feeling of animosity other piece of drapery, and examine it thrown with great distinctness on the to make assurance doubly sure, and walk- which so ill becomes you, you must, but closely; sometimes I fancied that I could blind. He had come to the window to ing toward the window and pulling aside you shall not go away with a false impres make the object out to be a shirt, or a stick some object, probably a piece of the blind, observed, as an excuse for look-sion of this matter so far as I am concerncoat, at another time a pair of trousers. groundsel, between the bars of the birding out:

After this she would disappear, and I alcage, who were its occupants than you did, and

Mr. Pycroft had glanced once search-the blind half lowered.

"Your suppor is getting cold," I said, hand in his, and with the relining influing a glance of meaning with my com- but handsome face, I could not help feel-room-look at that meal! Can you see "I dare say they have got some little So saying, and resisting all entreaties such wretchedness and not be moved? If to stay and take a share of the good our son has displeased you, has he not "Do you really think so?" said the old things, I made for the door, and was soon suffered? If he has disobeyed, he has paid

ere. feeding the wrong people, haven't we?' "Do not," I said, "let the sympathy in a loud and perfectly audible whisper. which you bestowed upon the shadows be had declined. I could not help thinking when I heard the circumstances of the case that this younger son had had a "Second floor?" I said, as I complied: "I can only conclude." was my answer. I looked in the old direction.

The little wife at this moment left he to his father's side, I passed quietly from

to pay a short visit to the invalid we have I was sitting one of a comfortable party

"Do you know what is one of the firs things we intend to do now?" said the "I have not the least idea," was my answer. "Why, we are going to nail up the ing what we are about whenever our lamp "You need not be afraid," I said; "and TO arrive on MONDAY next.

vou may save yourself the trouble of put-"I can understand your feeling some his new friends in their Substance, that he

JULY 1st, 1878. FINANCIAL STATEMENT

OF THE WESTERN ASSURANCE CO

INCORPORATED 1851 Hon. J. McMURRICH, President.

B. HALDEN, Managing Director.
J. J. KENNY, Secretary.
JAS. BOOMER, Inspector.
J. PRINGLE, General Agent.

ASSESS. 99,781 2 Deposits.

Mortgages on Real Estate.....
Bills Rec'ble (Marine Premium)
Interest Unpaid and Accrued... 82,245 5 $1,176,321 6

LIABILITIES. Losses under Adjustment..... $ 45,695 Dividends unclaimed...... 520 3 Dividend Payable July 8, 1878.... 30,000 0 $76,215 91 ......$1,176,321 61 particulars of the gradual improvement All this time, eved while her husband money A mattress and some bedding Income for year ending June 30, 78 $928,984 86 JULIUS L. INCHES, Agent for F'ton.

Scrap Pictures. and Mrs. Adams by what he had seen of which the two had evidently just been and Lin the City. Scrap Book Pictures and "They are very grateful," I said when I made this announcement to my old ac- a few words of inquiry as to the state of some boiled rice. The bird cage was We will sell the above at greatly reduced rates. We will sell the above at greatly reduced rates. We will sell the above at greatly reduced rates. J. L. BEVERLY, Coy's Block

F'ton, April 13, 1878. Novelty Oil Cans. "Marble Hall"

HIS STOCK COMPRISES:

WORSTED COATINGS: WEST OF ENGLAND, CANADIAN. SCOTCH and GERMANTWEEDS; BLACK and BLUE BROADCLOTHS and VENETIANS: BLACK AND BLUE DOES;

H is ready-made Clothing and Furnishing Goods be artments are now complete with a large and stylish stock. A SPLENDID LOT OF

FAMED EDINBURGH Rubber Overcoats and Ulsters. Just received, which will be sold cheap, A good fit guaranteed in every case, Tax

Morchant Tailor and Clothier, Queen Street. (next door to Brayley House.)

JAMES R. HOWIE.

20,000 Rolls HOUSE PAPER. PIANOS & ORCANS

JUST RECEIVED.

From 6 cents up, up, up M.S. HALL.

HALL PAPER! PARLOR PAPER KITCHEN PAPER! BEDROOM PAPER!

DINING ROOOM PAPER! All New Styles and Patterns.

HALL'S BOOK STORE

Pton, April 13, 1878.

FISHER'S BUILDING.

Queen Street, Fredericton, N. B WOULD beg leave to inform his numerous friends and customer., and the public in general, that he has received from EUROPE CANADA, and the UNITED STATES

One of the best and cheapest stock of HATS, CAPS,

- AND -Gents' Furnishing Goods ever offered in this market and will be sold CHEAP FOR CASH.

Call and examine for yourselves. F'ton, April 13, 1878. FLOUR. FLOUR. PLIMSOLL,

TEA ROSE WHITE PIGEON. -IN STORE-FRESH GROUND BUCK WHEAT MEAL CRANBERRYS, &c. ELY PERKINS

Haxall Flour. 100 BARRELS HAXALL FLOUR. GEO. HATT & SONS. July 20, 1878. NORTH BRITISH & MERCAN

TILE INSURANCE CO. OF EDINBURGH & LONDON.

A change having been made in the management of the business of this old established first-class Company, by which the undersigned is allowed more latitude than heretotore, he is prepared to effect insurance against loss or damage by fire on nearly all descriptions of property on as reasonable terms as any other office of equal standing.

Three years policles on first-class private dwellings issued. JULIUS L. INCHES.

NOTICE. Resuming Business.

A good stock of Groceries and Provision

Fton., May 4, 1878, NO. 4. COY'S BLOCK, NO. 4. WE will have in a few days a full line of Ger Give us a Call. SCULLY & COLLINS.

Land for Sale. 600 A CRES fine quality farming Kent or East Floreneville Station on the

> BERTON BROS., St. Johr RAINSFORD & BLACK, Wm. DIBBLEE, Woodstock W. A. BLACK, Richibuct

American Iron.

Now landing per Schooner "Rangola from Boston:  $24\ T^{\rm ONS}$  AMERICAN REFINED IRON for cash or approved paper. JAMES S. NEILL.

JOHN RICHARDS,

Insurance Agent,

(Next door to People's Bank, Fton.) English .- QUEEN, LIVERPOOL AND LONDON & GLOBE, NORTHERN, IM-PERIAL.

American .- ÆTNA, HARTFORD, AND PHŒNIX.

Canadian .- BRITISH AMERICA, AND ALSO: -Agent for the sale of Railway Tickets F'ton, April 13, 1878

H. RUTTER, SADDLER and HARNESS MAKER DEALER IN

WHIPS, BRUSHES, CURRY COBS, BLANKETS, BITS, Etc., Etc. Repairing done with neatness and despate AT THE OLD STAND, Opposite the County Court House, Queen Street, Fton., N. B. Fton, April, 20, 1878.

Organs & Pianos.

(EACH INSTRUMENT WARRANTED) at Lowest Prices and favorable terms. E. CADWALLADER.

Fredericton, July 6, 1878. ALLEN & WILSON Barristers and Attorneys AT LAW.

heutors, Notaries Public, &c., Loans Nego-tiated, Accounts Collected. FFICE up-stairs in Wiley's Building, next BEVERLY'S

HAS REMOVED orner of QUEEN and CARLETON STS.

WAVEFLY HOUSE FREDERICTON THIS well known hotel has been impro and the premises enlarged. The Stat the best in the city. Charges low.

TUGH McMONAGLE, Sussea Corner, King's County

NEW BRIINSWICK.

eder of Avrshire Cattle, and Leicester Sh BECKWITH & SEELY, Attorneys-at-Law, Notaries Public, etc. Office in CITY HALL, FREDERICTON

Attend at Oromocto and Fredericton June Accounts Cellected, and Loans Negoti-Fraser, Wetmore & Winslow.

ATTORNIES and BARRISTERS at LAW.

Solicitors, Conveyancers, etc. MONEY NEGOTIATED and LOANS MADE Fton., April 13th, 1878. Notice of Removal

G. T. WHELPLEY, WOULD respectfull announce to his friends and the public generally that he has removed THREE DOORS BELOW THE OLD

HARDWARE. 60 Dozen T Hinges;
6 Dozen Garden Rakes;
2 Extra handles;
3 Turnip Seed Drills—(a new thing here);
4 Lawn Mowers;
6 Patent Churns—(splendid article);

Just to hand and for sale low by F'ton, May 11, 1878. R. CHESTNUT & SONS. CUT NAILS. Just Received and in Stock : 160 K EGS Cut Nails and Spikes.
JAMES S. NEILL.

TO PAINTERS AND OTHERS. SOMETHING NEW. CAMPLE case of PREPARED KALSOMINE,

In puckages of 6 bs. each. Makes the hand-omest and smoothest Wall or Celling of any rticle in use. Any person can use it. Superior o paint and lasts for years, One package will cover about 400 square feet. an be mixed for use in five minutes. JOHN RICHARDS.

BROOMS, PAILS, CEMENT, and LIME. 50 DOZ. Brooms, 50 doz. Pails; 50 casks Lime; 1 bbl. Boston Sugar Cured Hams. April 27. GEO, HATT & SONS

Just Received. 40 GRINDSTONES; 50 Kegs Cut Mails; 1 Barrel Pale Seal Oil; 1 Barrel Codfish Oil; 1 Barrel Olive Oil; 1 Dozen Eureka Clothes Wringers; 6 bozen Hayfork Handles;

R. CHESTNUT & SONS. July 13, 1878. SHINGLES, CLAPBOARDS

&c., &c.

Fredericton 6th July, 1878. SALT AND MOLASSES. —AT— ELY PERKINS 100 SACKS SALT. Also, a choice lot of Molasses for the people.

DANIEL LUCY, Queen St.,

April 27. PER S. S. DIRECT. 230 BOXES Window Glass, running from 7x9 to 36x42. Just received and for

May 11, 1878, R. CHESTNUT & SONS: F'ton, Nov. 9,-2 mos. Rep. Wkly Star.

GAS FITTING, INSURANCE!

Plumbing, &c.

THE subscriber keeps on hand a large assort TINWARE. of every description, and made to o

> SOLE AGENT FOR ELLIS' Patent Burner

All orders promptly attended to, and weatlsfactorily done. 4 - Gas Fittings always in stock. A. LIMERICK, PRACTICAL PLUMBING, GAS FITTING!

ESTABLISHMENT. HIS establishment now having two thor

Tinsmiths Work of every discription, and the best material manufactured to order on e premises at shortest notice. Prices to suit the times. J. & J. O'BRIEN.

F'ton, Aug. 10, 1878. CABINET MAKING. JAS. D. HANLON, Bookstore and Bindery CABINET MAKER

> UNDERTAKER King Street, Fredericton, N. B. A LL kinds of Furnitue m ade and repaired at Orders for UNDERTAKING, from the town and buntry attended to with promptness. Picture Framing a Speciality.

LUMBER FOR SALE. The Subscriber begs to announce to the

SPRUCE, PINE and HEMLOCK

LUMBER,

F'ton, May 18, 1878.

CONSISTING OF Dry Pine Plank, 11, 112 and 2 inch, thorough y seasoned and planed.
Dry Pine Boards, well seasoned, planed on ne and both sides, and tongued and grooved ALSO, Good Dry Laths and Sawed Cedar Shingles

All orders promptly delivered.
Please call at my yard, West End Mill. RICHARD A. ESTEY.

F'ton. June 22, 1878. SCULLY & COLLINS.

We have now in stock a splendid ass Black and Blue Worsted Coatings; West of England, Scotch, and American Tweeds; A full line of Broadcloths and Does: Trousering of all description. The above goods will be made to order in

NOTICE.

His Stock will always comprise all the popula Brands of Wines and Liquors usually kept in irst, class establisement, also Family Groceries of every description and one best quality.

LAND FOR SALE.

W E are instructed to offer the following Lor of LAND for sale:

A Lot situate in the Parish of Douglas on t Western side of the Old Cardigan Road, and I ng between the Old Cardigan Road and t P yal Road, being a part of Lot number tw tranted to John C illing and conveyed by the la Senjamin Wolhaupter, containing forty act

BY RAIL!

June 22 R. CHESTNUT & SONS

SHAD AND SALMON TWINE, MILK Pans, Lamp Chimneys, Crocks, Flower

YORK COUNTY DEBENTURES

FOR SALE.

HENRY B. RAINSFORD, JR., Secretary-Treasur

 $F^{\rm ROM}$  \$8,000 to \$10,000, in denominations \$200, \$300 and \$500.

Fredericton, May 4, 1878.

Fr dericton, June 29, 1878.—Rep.

BENJ. EVANS.

Queen Street.

F'ton, April 3, 1878.

ALEX. BURCHILL

He is also agent for Jones' celebrated Ale.

4 DOZEN GLOBE PANTERNS
6 doz. Glass Globes for same;
80 kegs Cut Nails; 20 kegs Cut Spikes;
6 Double Mould Board Plows;
2 Heavy Jack Serews;
60 pair Japanned Shelf Brackets;
1 unrefor Rafficestor. rst-class style, and a perfect fit guaranteed No Alteration Necessary." Style, Fit, and Price warranted to please SCULLY & COLLINS. Font, Aug. 3, 1878

THE Subscriber legs to return thanks to the Citizens of Fredericton and the pifblic generally, for the liberal patronage extended to him since commencing business, and would respectfully inform them that he has purchase at the Stbek in-Trade, and leased the premises of Joseph Myshrali, Esq., where with imp oved actilities for carrying on his business, he hopes to merit a continuance of the favor which he has heretolore enjoyed.

His Stock will always comprise all the popular Just Received AT Geo. Hatt & Sons,

SICILIAN

Tuis standard article is compo with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as atisfactory as ever.

cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use pecomes white and clean vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

lected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes." Price, One Dollar, Sold by all Druggists, and Bealers in Medicines.

NORTH BRITISH AND MERCANTILE INSURANCE COMPANY of Edinburgh and London.

COMMERCIAL UNION ASSURANCE COMPANY

WESTERN ASSURANCE COMPANY

ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE CO. TRAVELLERS' LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY

of Hartford, The undersigned is prepared to effect Insurance in the above first-class offices on reasonable er.as. For rates and any other information ap-

Fton, June 29. SPLENDID

Farming Property FOR SALE.

all work entrusted to them in a thorough workmanlike manner.

Parties desiring to have their houses fitted with all the modern improvements in the above business, would do well to apply to us for estimates before going elsewhere.

A variety of Globbs and Patent Gas russes and entry of Globbs and Patent Gas russes. Most or the land is in a high state of cultivation and any large statements of the property shown and any smooth of the property shown and the property shown vays in stock.

Orders for Tin Roofing promptly attended

> F'ton, Sept. 28, 1878.—3ins Fire.

DRY GOODS CLOTHING. Gents' Furnishing Goods, which will be sold at reasonably Low Prices,

SPECIAL NOTICE. A great quantity of Goods having beer lightly damaged at the late fire, will be sold a great Bargains in order to make room for Fal OWEN SHARKEY.

CLAPBOARDS FLOORING AND SHEATHING, 70 M. SPRUCE CLAPBORDS, all qualities 90 M. DRY SPRUCE FLOORING,

Pine and Spruce Sheathing, DOORS, SASHES, BLINDS, for every quality, together with a stock of Spruce and Hemlock Logs, from which we are prepared to saw to order at short notice.

MOULDINGS, &c., &.,

MOULDINGS, &c., &.,

on hand, or made to order at short notice, at Prices to Surr the Times.

> and SYMTH STREETS. J. C. Risteen & Co. F'ton, June 1.

Sure Cure for Burns. MANUFACTURED BY

25 cts. per Bottle. No Cure, no Pay. Fredericton, August 30th, 1878. HARDWARE. Just Received:

M. MACKEY, Fredericton, N .B.

1 superior Refrigerator; 600 gross Wood Screws; 60 gross Brass Screws 60 gross Plated Screws, round heads— R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

It restores gray or faded hair to its

By its tonic properties it restores he capillary glands to their normal As a dressing, nothing has been bund so effectual or desirable. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer Massachusetts, says, "The con stituents are pure, and carefully se-

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS. This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the able shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effeetually produces a permanent color. Manufactured by R. P. HALL & CO.,

NASHUA, N.H.

benjamin womanper, containing forty aer more or less.

Also a Lot situate in the Parish of Soutnam ton, adjoining on the southeast a tract of la granted to Michael Knapp and five others on t Nackawicae Stream, and known as Lots Nur ber One and Two, granted to Henry Morehou and George Morehouse, containing four hundr For terms and particulars apply to FRASER, WETMORE & WINSLOW, outhful color.

It removes all cruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a 4 REFRIGERATORS, New and latest of 1 Lawin Mowers, oest annucheases of the New Pattern Sinks and Racks. Call and see them.
1 case Varnish Brushes.
1 large Cooking Stove; the old Grand Daddy of them all,
2 Cooking Ranges, new and elegant.
6 Lifting Jacks, best and cheapest yet.
6 papers Silver Coffin Lace.
Just received and for sale by

THRESHING MACHINE TEETH.

JUST RECEIVED by Rail, from West Water-ville, Maine, 500 THRESHING MACHINE TEETH, For sale by JAMES S. NEILL.