Letters From The Front

Shorncliffe, England.
July 23rd, 1916

Dear Father,

Just dropping you a few lines to let you know that I arrived here safe and had a fine trip. Were six days coming on the boat. Don't know how many came over, but you can guess how many came over with the 104th. We were well guarded all the way over. I don't know where we landed but we stopped in Liverpool about a day. We are ready to go to a nice town where there is lots going on. It is Shorncliffe that we are stationed at and South Caesar's camp. I have not drilled much for three weeks. We have been quarantined in with measles. We just got out today. I saw Gen Boyle and he is sick in the hospital and is going to be operated on for appendicitis. John went over to the trenches in February and 'on has not heard from him since. Howard Bryenton is here with us. He is going over in the next. Andrew Wells is back here wounded in the arm. Newton Bryenton has been reported killed. Am going to get a pass and go to London, for I want to see as much as I can before I go to the trenches. There is good weather and they are just having now. It is a very pretty place and lots going on, but not much like home, for they are years behind times. Tell some of those boys that have got cold feet to hurry up and come over. Tell them they don't know what they are missing. Tell them not to let all the McKinley boys come ahead, let some of the other boys come. Will be home again in about eight months. We are going to show the Germans where they are going to get off at, for the Allies have driven them back a long way and captured a lot of guns. Tell Pearl I am going to bring him a little Belgian girl when I come back. So good-bye. From your son,
HARVEY MCKINLEY,

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Harcourt Lady is 103

Two of Harcourt's oldest citizens celebrated their birthdays a few days ago. Mrs. Thos Smith, who is probably the oldest resident in this part of the province, at the age of 103, held a reception on the evening of her anniversary. Seventy-three relatives were present, including grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. Mrs. Samuel Wellwood has passed her 92nd anniversary. Both ladies are active both physically and mentally.

OUR SECOND MONSTER VOTING CAMPAIGN

MONDAY, AUGUST 28th

The Union Advocate formally institutes its Second Great Voting Campaign, in which $700 worth or more of Beautiful and Highly Useful Prizes will be Given Away Absolutely Free to those Ladies who take part in it.

1st PRIZE--$400 LONSDALE PIANO

Three Other Prizes Totaling $300 or More

Every Lady in Newcastle and in the Circulation Zone of The Union Advocate is Eligible to Share in this Great Prize Distribution Costs Nothing to Enter!

The first prize will be a beautiful Lonsdale Piano, which sells regularly throughout Canada for $400. This instrument will constitute a truly magnificent prize and the lady who wins it will have just cause to congratulate herself on her success. The Lonsdale Piano is one of the finest instruments manufactured in Canada; and it has achieved a most enviable reputation among people of cultured musical tastes who know piano values, on account of its thoroughly high class construction, and tonal qualities. The winner of the Advocate voting campaign will, therefore, have the satisfaction of becoming the owner of an absolutely dependable, high-grade piano which she will be proud to use and exhibit in her home. At least three other prizes will be awarded to ladies who take part in the contest. The value of these will be not less than $500 and may exceed that sum.

GUARANTEED REWARD FOR EVERY CONTESTANT

10 per cent. Cash
Commission to

10 per cent. Cash

Every worker in the Advocate Voting Campaign will be a sure winner. We do not want any contestant to work for nothing, and to make sure that every lady who takes an active part in the campaign will receive at least fair compensation for her efforts, it has been decided to pay every contestant who continues actively in the campaign until the end, ten per cent. cash commission on all the money she collects during the campaign, in the event that she does not win a prize. Thus every element is removed from the campaign, and the contestant is absolutely assured of a suitable reward for her efforts. With the assurance of certain reward in any event, no lady who desires to share the prizes to be distributed by the Advocate should allow anything to prevent her from entering the campaign at once and starting to work without delay. No cash commissions will be paid to prize-winners.

How the Prizes are to be Won

The Voting Campaign will be primarily a subscription campaign in the interests of the Advocate and MacLean's and Farmers' Magazines. Any lady living within the circulation zone of the Advocate may enter the campaign, whether she is or is not a subscriber to either publication, and may secure subscriptions to either three publications from anyone, anywhere, for any length of time. For each and every subscription obtained by contestants, votes will be credited according to the advertised vote schedules, and the contestant securing the highest number of votes during the campaign, which will extend from August 28th to October 9th, 1916, will be awarded first prize, and the other prizes will be awarded in the order of standing, respectively, to those contestants who secure the next highest number of votes. Complimentary ballots will be issued during the campaign, and published in each issue of the Advocate, and these, too, will be added to the votes secured by each contestant on subscription business. At the close of the campaign three prominent citizens of unquestionable integrity will act as judges for the purpose of reviewing the conduct of the campaign, and deciding the winners. Neither the publishers of the Advocate nor MacLean's or Farmers' Magazines will have anything to do with deciding the winners of the campaign. The names of the judges will be announced in an early issue of the Advocate.

Two Periods of the Campaign

The campaign will be divided into two periods, the first period, extending from Monday August 28th, to Monday, September 18th, and the second period extending from the latter date until the close of the campaign on Monday, October 9th. The vote schedule in the first period of the campaign will be that published next week on this page, and the vote schedule for the second period will be twenty per cent. less. The distinction between the vote values of subscriptions is made for the purpose of encouraging contestants to assist themselves early in the campaign, and rewarding those who do good work in the early part of the campaign. This arrangement will undoubtedly work out to the advantage of those who enter the campaign, without delay, and that is exactly what it is intended to do. It is simply a modified application of the old proverb that "the early bird catches the worm," and is designed to help the early bird to catch the worm. However the campaign is open to every lady in the circulation zone of the Advocate and as one contestant has the same opportunity as another of getting an early start the arrangement is absolutely fair to everybody, and no one can have cause to complain thereof.

Rules and Regulations of the Contest

The campaign will open on Monday August 28, and closes on Monday, October 9th.

Any lady who is a resident in the circulation zone of the Advocate and who is not an employee of the Advocate may participate in the campaign. Contestants may participate to be subscribers to either of the above publications.

No entrance fee, nor expenditure of any kind is required to enter the campaign.

Before any lady may participate in the campaign, she must be nominated in writing, and must obtain receipt books, etc., for use in the campaign from the Advocate.

Contestants may be nominated by themselves or by anyone else. Nominations may be made any time, before the date to be fixed for the close of nominations.

Votes will be given contestants for subscriptions secured by or for them to the Advocate and MacLean's and Farmers' Magazines, according to vote schedule advertised from time to time and for complimentary ballots.

Contestants may obtain subscriptions anywhere, either new or renewal and no distinction will be made between the vote values of old and new subscriptions in the regular vote schedules.

Contestants must report and settle for all subscriptions secured by or for them at least once each week.

Anyone may assist any contestant in securing subscriptions.

All receipt books and supplies needed for use in the campaign will be supplied free of charge.

The campaign will be in charge of a Campaign Director who reserves the right to alter or abrogate any rule or condition, and to make and enforce any new rule or condition which to him may seem expedient for the proper conduct of the campaign. The interpretation or application of any rule or condition, shall be a matter for the Campaign Director alone to deal with and his decision on any point relating to the campaign shall be final.

The subscription price of the Advocate and Farmers' Magazine is $1 a year each in Canada and Great Britain; MacLean's Magazine is $1.50 per year. The subscription price of the Advocate to the United States is $1.50 a year.

Votes cannot be transferred from one contestant to another under any circumstances whatever.

Any subscription paid at the Advocate office with the subscriber's request, at the time of paying the subscription, but not thereafter, that votes therefor be credited to a contestant; and complimentary ballots handed to the Campaign Director, with the request that the votes therefor be credited to a contestant, will, in either, or both cases, be credited as requested; provided the contestant to whom it is requested that votes be credited shall within the first period of the campaign, collect and pay to the Campaign Department not less than Twenty-five Dollars for subscriptions, in accordance with the rules of the campaign. In case any contestant shall not collect and pay to the Campaign Department as much as Twenty-five Dollars for subscriptions within the first period of the campaign, she shall not be entitled to receive credit for any subscription paid to the Advocate office, nor for complimentary ballots handed in to the Campaign Director at any time during the campaign. This rule shall be construed to mean that subscriptions or complimentary ballots sent by mail to the office, or to the Campaign Director, by anyone other than a contestant, shall be counted as having been paid or handed in at the Advocate office, or to the Campaign Director in person.
