ROADS THAT ARE STREWN WITH FLOWERS

There are many who believe that all big corporations and industrial concerns only look to the material side of things and work machine-like for the production of wealth, regardless of the winter's snow and unheating of the summer's bloom. This is often an erroneous idea, for it is generally realized that man does not altogether live by offices and pens and papers and engines and other accoutrements of labor—he requires trees and shrubs and flowers and the loveliness of nature.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has always paid considerable attention to the development of garden plots along its lines. It is just thirty years ago since a C.P.R. employee raised a few varieties of flower seeds in his own garden, and distributed them amongst his friends in the service of the company, with the object of promoting flower gardening at the various station plots of the railway. A vast advance has been made since then, and now the company possesses a Floral Department with headquarters at Windsor street, Station, Montreal, and a Floral Committee, which embraces members from the Eastern and Western lines. It is under the guidance of this department that the various station plots and other properties of the company are cleared up and beautified. Thousands of packages of flower seeds, bulbs, trees, and shrubs and large quantities of grass seeds and fertilizers have been distributed during the last few years to station agents, section foremen, caretakers of round houses, and all employees living on the property of the company. Travellers on the line observe the happy results achieved. The cultivation work is done in all cases supervised by Mr. E. M. Winnegar, forester of the company. The encouraging influence of flowers growing on the C.P.R. during the last thirty years has in a large measure assisted in the inauguration of floral societies all over the country. There are hundreds of C.P.R. officials connected with these societies, and most of them received their first lesson in flower culture at the C.P.R. flower beds. Flowers have improved the railway stations, and inspired by the beauty of the stations, residents of the towns have planted flowers and improved the appearances of their homes. In every division of the C.P.R. prizes are given every year for the best displays, and many of these amateur railway gardeners have tried their products with success against all comers at the big Canadian and American flower exhibitions.

NIAGARA-HAMILTON BAPTISTS MEETING

Beamsville, June 4.—The one hundredth annual convention of the Niagara-Hamilton Baptist Association is being held here this week. Yesterday's sessions were given over entirely to conferences of Women's Missionary Societies of the Church. Rev. J. W. Young of St. Catharines, the Moderator, will preside over the general sessions.

At the opening of the session an address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. T. E. Meldrum of Beamsville. This was followed by an address by Mrs. J. L. Sloat of Niagara Falls on "Home Missions' Objective for 1919." An address on home mission work was delivered by Mrs. Lillie of Toronto.

The meeting then broke up into conferences on mission band work under the leadership of Mrs. Mills of London. Miss Trotter led a discussion on young women's work, and a discussion on women's missionary circles was led by Mrs. Beck of Burlington.

In the afternoon, session the report of the Nominating Committee was received, and a retrospective address was given on the work of the association by Mrs. J. E. Bennett of Beamsville, a member of the Beamsville Baptist Church, which this year completes its 112th year.

"The Foreign Mission Objective" was the subject of an address by Miss M. Reed of Port Colborne. Mrs. John McLaurin of Toronto spoke on foreign mission work. The concluding addresses of the afternoon session were by Mrs. Hendrie of Hamilton and Mrs. Doherty of St. Catharines, the subjects being "The New Era" and "Our Budget."

Bishop Bidwell, in his address to the synod of Ontario at Kingston, favored sale of light beers and wine under strict Government regulation.

GIFT TO LIBRARY

Valuable Scrap Book Presented by Mrs. Orlando Dunn—Library Board Holds Short Session.

The Public Library Board held a brief meeting last night. Those present were: W. Erskine, chairman; A. M. Watt, C. A. Hesson, D. C. Heston and Secretary Bruden. The finance committee presented their report recommending payment of salaries and account amounting to $492.29. The report of the Librarian showed 3,488 books issued for the month. Receipts from cash and fines amounted to $35.06 and 49 new members were added.

Mr. Hesson reported that Mrs. Orlando Dunn, Queenston Street, had presented to the Library a scrap book containing a valuable collection of maps, plans, slippings from papers and other interesting documents relating to the early history of St. Catharines. This will make a valuable addition to the Canadiana Room. The Board would like to receive further collections that may be in the possession of citizens and that should be kept in some public building for safety and convenience of access to all interested in the early records of the city or county.

The Board then adjourned.

GERMAN IMPUDENCE CANNOT DISGUISE HER DEFEAT

Germany has many elaborate paintings of the scenes of 1871 at Versailles when the German Empire was declared there with great enthusiasm by a throng of victorious princes and generals. A stiffly arrogant Bismarck is also depicted listening to a dejected Napoleon III., cap in hand. It was to head off counter-part pictures of Versailles in 1919 that the German delegates remained seated when the treaty was handed them. But the French historical artists will not allow themselves to be baffled. They can work up plenty of dramatic exact in dealing with the general atmosphere of the occasion. The Germans, though seated, represent a far more sweeping debacle than that of France forty years ago. Besides, France came back, after defending itself with the greatest courage and vigor for four years against a more powerful invasion. The German Empire proclaimed at Versailles has crumbled, while the Republic the French ordained in that period not only lives, but has brighter prospects than ever. It is easy now to tell victor from vanquished. What time's whirligig has brought about cannot be mistaken nor obscured. Bad manners on the part of the thoroughly beaten imperialists will not camouflage their plight to-day.

In any case, it is true that politeness always pays. The French are famed for it and it has helped to give them their place in civilization and the world's esteem. A combatant who has cried "enough" should not think to use a former arrogance to any advantage. Such nonsense as that would provoke further punishment. It would be akin to violation of a flag of truce by those who ask a parley. The gist of the delivery of the treaty at Versailles was simply this: "We are not arguing with you. We are telling you." French painters will bring it all out with intensified effect. The irony of the attempted affront will be turned against those who fancy that impudence can be a help in defeat.

Even prize-fighters are formally civil to each other. To be otherwise would be silly.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Mrs. David Henry of Mornington met with an accident which resulted in her death, the cause being the breaking of a line snap off the horse's bit.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy, glossy and beautiful at once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yet—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and ragged, just moisten a coin with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuri-ance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A small trial bottle will double the beauty of your hair.
