WILL SAIL for LIVERPOOL The City Council have determined to with-draw the license, and Hanlan threatens to leave Canada and go to Chicago. This may appear like a national loss at first glance, but then Canada can always manage to raise oarsmen to beat Americans, even if Hanlan be amongst them. After all what does he want? why can't he move over to Toronto and sell whiskey there, or come to Char-lottetown where no one will trouble him, for is not the Scott Act in force?

THE Drill Shed was thrown open vesterday at two o'clock, and the Bazaar in aid of the Hospital commenced. The sight that proted itself to the first visitors was really a brilliant one. It was beautiful and it was esthetic. Flowers were everywhere in profusion, so were strawberries, so large, plump and inviting that it was evident the Patriot editor had not received all those weighing Best Assortment of an ounce and a fifth. So were ladies vieing in beauty with both flowers and strawberries In fact all was lovely, and the best of good humor prevailed, as it was realized from the ions and expenditure of money tha the Bazaar would be an undoubted success The numbers of people (who streamed in and out of the drill shed last night were considerable. The display of fancy articles was very fine and much admired. We understand unt realized is about $600, but an addition will be made to this when the oil tings and other articles are lotteried.
