THE JEWELRY HIDDEN IN TIRE
Thief Ingeniously Conceals His Booty in His Bicycle.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—A bicycle was brought into the Cleveland bicycle factory, at Toronto Junction, for repairs, on Wednesday. While it was standing there yesterday, awaiting the machinist who was to overhaul it, an employee of Mr. Morphy, the Yonge street jeweler, came in, and after detaching the tires removed them from the bicycle, and disclosed a quantity of jewelry which had been concealed therein.

The goods, which were worth about $20, had been stolen from the jewelry store a few days before, and the thief like afraid to leave his booty at home or to carry it with him, had finally deposited it in the tires.

He became conscience-stricken yesterday, and confessed the larceny to Morphy, telling him also where the jewelry was hidden.

The Boers' Big Siege Guns

Continue to Bang Away at Ladysmith,

But They Are Doing No Serious Damage,

Says a Last Night's Dispatch From Gen. Buller.

Boers Again Fire on the Bearers of a White Flag.

Colenso Reported as Reoccupied by the Enemy.

Besiegers of Kimberley Largely Reinforced.

Railways in the Free State Completely Wrecked by the Boers.

British Siege Train in Preparation—Gordon Highlanders Receive an Ovation at Liverpool—More Transports Engaged.

London, Nov. 10.—The British war office has received from Gen. Buller the following dispatch: Cape Town, Thursday evening, Nov. 9.—Have received by pigeon post from Gen. White today the following: "The bombardment at long range by heavy guns continues daily. A few casualties are occurring, but no serious harm is being done."

"The Boers sent in today a number of refugees from the Transvaal under a flag of truce. A flag of truce from Ladysmith met them outside the pickets. When the party separated the Boer guns fired on it before it reached our pickets."

"Major Gale, of the Royal Engineers, was wounded today while sending a message."

"The entrenchments are daily growing stronger, and the supply of provisions is ample."

FROM LADYSMITH, TUESDAY.
The colonial office has received a telegram from the governor of Natal, giving a copy of a pigeon post message received by the premier from the commandant of the volunteers. It is as follows:

"Ladysmith, Tuesday, Nov. 7.—I sent you, Nov. 3, by native messenger, a report of the engagement that day, but I am not sure if it reached you, as the messenger has not returned."

"Major Taunton and Sergt. Mapstone, of the Natal Engineers, were killed; Capt. Arnott, of the Border Mounted Rifles, was wounded; nine troops were wounded, all slightly, and are doing well."

"There has been nothing of importance since the hospital was removed to a spot on the railway three miles to the south."

"All was quiet on Sunday and Monday. The enemy renewed the bombardment today, but no damage was done."

ALL THREE SAFE.
The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Pietermaritzburg, telegraphing Monday, says: "Estcourt, Pietermaritzburg and Ladysmith are all safe for some time to come. Owing to the fact that Ladysmith lies low, and the Boers, unfortunately, have been permitted to occupy Mount Bulwan and other surrounding big hills, attempts to open up heliographic communication has proved a failure."

COLENZO IN BOER HANDS.
An armored train, which has returned from reconnoitering in the direction of Colenso, reports having seen nothing of the enemy. The train guard met a native runner returning from Ladysmith, who said that a party of Boers had turned up the line within a mile of Colenso station. The Boers, he asserted, were in great numbers in that vicinity. They brought big guns down from Grobler's Kloof Hill, pointed them on the main roadway and fired five shots into Colenso, only to ascertain that it had been completely evacuated. Then they entered with five empty wagons, which they filled with goods from Edward's store. The train party went scouting, and obtained reliable news that Colenso was in possession of the Boers, and therefore returned here, bringing the runner with them."

KIMBERLEY.
Orange River, Cape Colony, Monday, Nov. 6.—The Boers investing Kimberley have been reinforced by 2,000 men, and have succeeded in corralling about 225,000 worth of stock belonging to Kimberley merchants, which was intended for the sustenance of the town.

Cape Town, Nov. 6.—Reports from Kimberley seem to indicate that the investing force has been greatly weakened for the purpose of sending detachments to the eastern and southern borders.

tors and nurses have volunteered their services.

The news that Lady Randolph Churchill has declared her intention of accompanying the ship did not surprise her intimate friends. She is not going as a nurse, however, but in an executive capacity, representing the executive committee of which she is chairman.

She also is desirous of being near her son Winston, who is at the front, and to whom she is devoted. She will probably do some correspondence for English and American newspapers.

TO RAISE THE SIEGE.
London, Nov. 10.—Gen. Buller's friends assert that he will not take any risks, but will send into Lower Natal a column strong enough to fight its way through and raise the siege. This will mean a detachment of 20,000 men from the army corps, and the necessity of replacing them by reinforcements of equal strength from England. There are no signs of excitement or anxiety among the authorities of the war office.

I was impressed yesterday with the tone of decision and calm confidence with which one of the highest officials forecasted the triumph of British arms. Something was said about the facility with which the Boers were receiving supplies of Mauser ammunition from trading ships at Delagoa Bay, and he replied that orders had been sent to close this back door, and then added grimly: "Poor dears, they will need all the ammunition they can get."

GETTING THERE
Arrival of Another British Transport at the Cape.

Cape Town, Nov. 10.—The British transport Moor, having on board the officers of the staff of three sections of the British army corps on its way to South Africa, arrived here at 9:30 o'clock this morning.
