GRIPPE'S LEGACY

Shattered Nerves Weakened System.

A Montreal Gentleman Tells About It.

Mr. F. J. Brophy, a well-known employee in the money-order department at the general post office in Montreal, tells about his ease as follows:

"I had a very severe attack of La Grippe, which left me all run down, very nervous, without appetite, and extremely weak. Very often I could not sleep at night, and I was much troubled with profuse perspiration, which naturally caused me much annoyance. Learning of the. good effects of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I began taking them, and much to my gratification they have braced me up, inrigorated my entire system, and made me feel like a new man. I am now all O.K., and highly recommend these pills to anyone suffering as I did."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, anomia and general debility.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medi-

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a litthe time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universafly used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines, for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows then to contain the natural digestive elements, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. bismuth, They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they ion on the common-sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischlef. This is the only secret of their suc-

Cathartic pills never have and never cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas. acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite, and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

DOMINION

Debate on the Budget Resumed by Sir Richard Cartwright, Minister of Trade and Commerce-The Opposition Leader in Reply-Bills Introduced.

Ottawa, March 29.—The debate on the budget was resumed in the house today by Sir Richard Cartwright, min-ister of trade and commerce. He stated that in the 55 Hansard pages of Mr. Foster's speech he had not found five new ideas. There was in it no declaration of policy or no suggestion as to how the taxation com-plained of should be reduced. "What the people like to hear about," said Sir Richard, "is seven million dollars surplus, a hundred and fifty millions growth in trade, and a discrimination of $2 to $3 in favor of English as against the American exports." Continuing, the minister of trade and commerce paid a high tribute to the budget speech, characterizing it as clean, fair, moderate and eloquent—one that had done service to Canada both at home and abroad. He strongly condemned the action of Mr. Foster in placing the total expenditure for 1896 at $41,000,000, when the public accounts made it $46,000,000.

Sir Charles Tupper followed. He opened his remarks by infimating that there was nothing in Sir Richard's speech, and that, therefore, there was little to answer. The opposition leader then went on to tell how long he had been in public life, and stated that during that period he had never heard a more disingenuous speech from the lips of a minister of finance, than was Hon. Mr. Fielding's speech, nor had he ever heard a more crushing criticism than was delivered by Mr. Foster. Sir Richard had shown, Sir Charles contended, he was unable to make a single point against Mr. Foster's speech. The opposition leader then spoke of Sir Richard's speech as a tissue of misstatements, stating that that was the kind of battle the Conservatives had to fight against. Sir Charles also held that the Liberals did not get into power on any great public principle, but by a conspiracy. He was sure every Liberal-Conservative in the house rejoiced in the prosperity of the past year; but what they found fault with was the Liberals claiming credit for it. The present phenomenal prosperity, Sir Charles held, was not promoted in any way by the Liberals.
At this point Sir Chaples moved adjournment of the debate, and the house adjourned at 11:15 p.m. The following private bills were introduced and read a first time: Respecting the St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Company; to incorporate the Quebec and Lake Huron Railway Company; to confer on the commis-sioner of patents certain powers for the relief of The Frost and Wood Company; respecting the Toronto Hotel Company; to incorporate the Canadian National Railway and Transportation Company; to incorporate the Acadian Mortgage Company; respecting the National Sanitarium Association; respecting the Timi-gami Railway Company; to incorporate the Ottawa, Brockville and New York Railway Compary; to incorporate the Canadian Nurses' Association; respecting the Ontario Power Company, of Niagara Falls; respecting the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway; to incorporate the Yale Mining District Railway Company; to incorporate the Central Railway Company.

Two public bills—one to amend the San Jose scale act and another to provide for the marking and inspection of packages containing apples and pears for export—were introduced by the minister of agriculture and read the first time.
