tude of Venezuela toward M. Taigny, not question the general right of the the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, has aroused indignation in official quarters here. Although the ministry has not yet taken definite action, it is said in the highest quarters that Premier Rouvier undoubtedly will demand that Venezuela disavow the offensive action and adopt a course conformable with the usual courtesy of diplomatic intercourse. The Venezuelan authorities are now seeking to show that their action was directed against M. Taigny personally, and not against the French Government, but the officials here do not accept the distinction between M. Taigny's personal and his official capacity. He has high standing at the foreign office, where he recently served, and also aided Ambassador Cambon at Washington | during the most delicate phases of the Spanish war negotiations. Therefore there is no intention here to permit Venezuela to make a scapegoat of him. The official charged with handling the Venezuelan question explained the general status of the controversy as Venezuela supports the closing of the
