PIRATES TO UNDERGO NUMEROUS ECHANGES IN THE NEAR FUTURE

George Gibson and Three Oth er Players Are All of Present Team That Will Be on 1915 Lineup, Says Authority in Close Touch With the Management.

Word was received here last night from an absolutely reliable source in Pittsburg that the disposing of Marty O'Toole to Jawn McGraw is the first move made by Owner Dreyfuss, which will result in all players but George Gibson, Wagner, Konetchy and Garey, being either sold or traded before the curtain is rung up on the 1915 season. With the exception of the names mentioned, next year's line up will be composed of new players.

shortfield position belongs to Honus Wagner next season-that is, it does if Honus wants it. To date neither President Dreyfuss nor Manager Clarke has heard anything from the German that would indicate that a new shortstop would be necessary in 1915. Nor is there any desire on the part of the club officials to make a change. Wagner has been playing satisfactory ball this year, and, according to Mr. Dreyfuss's statement, "Honus can play ball next year if he wants to."

Too Much Argument Bad for Club--Stallings

George Stallings, manager the Braves, believes that one of the worst things that may befal a ball club is too much argu-ment. So every question that rises on the diamond must settled within 24 hours and to the satisfaction of all. When a player makes a "boner on the field, one of those error of omission, he is told about i at the meeting of the club a noon on the following day. Then he is given an opportunity to put in his defense. If he admits it was a "boner," all good That settles it. if he tries to argue, then every man on the squad, from the manager down, shows him where he was wrong. Not only that but they stick with him until he admits it. He can't get out of the room until he acknowledges it was a "boner." After he gets it was a "boner." After he gets out, if he tries to argue they laugh at him, "You admitted you were wrong" is the comeback, and they pay no further attention to him.
