Winnipeg School Board to Make Strong Attempt for Legislation That Has Long Been Needed

Special to The Evening Post.

Winnipeg, April 5 .- After considerable delay and more than considerable iscussion, the School Board has decided to secure provincial legislation providing for the compulsory education of children until they are 15 years of

An Important Question The question has been an important one here for a long time, but has al-ways met with opposition. The Catho-lic Church stated its disagreement its church stated its disagreement with the proposed plan when it was first broached and more opposition was offered by citizens of foreign extraction whose object apparently was to take their children out of school at an early age for the purpose of starting them in trades or in unskilled lines of business for the sake of eking out the usiness for the sake of eking out the ousehold income Increasing Support Those who favor the measure have found increasing support for their ontention that Winnipeg, of all cities in Canada, owing to its very large for-eign population, requires such legisla-tion. The School Board's present decision is taken as meaning business, and although it is sure to meet with bitter opposition the chances are good

Steamer Bertha Picked Up Frozen Man in Dory and Two Corpses From Rock in Alaskan Waters

Wireless advices have been picked up from the steamer Bertha at sea, stating that James Miller, of Cordova. and a man named Valentine, from Colorado, are dead, while Jack Kares is so badly frozen that his life is despaired of. This is the result of being caught in a blinding blizzard while going from Seldovia to Homer in a small dory early this week.

The men left Seldovia in a small boat, intending to sail to Homer. When they departed the weather was calm and there was no indication of a storm brewing. They were little more than half way to Homer when a blind-ing blizzard swept down upon the little craft and the navigators lost their bearings.

The boat finally was driven ashore on Ritchie Island. The men, more dead than alive, crawled out on to that barren rock and attempted to battle life with the elements. They had ing with which to make a fire and

The exposure was too severe for Cares was taken off the rock by the Kares was taken oit the rock by the crew of the Bertha. He was nearly frozen to death, and was revived with difficulty. The bodies of the dead men were taken to Seldovia, and Kares left there for care. It is believed he

"Women are the greatest boosters ever, and it will be the best possible thing to have as many of them at the meeting tonight as can be comfortably cared for. I am giad to see that the ladies have been invited, and I hope they will take advantage of the invitation. A cause that does not enlist the sympathy of the women lacks one of the essential elements of success. There are countless practical things that women can do to advertise Victoria. Some of them will be discussed tonight. The women, for instance, are the letter women of the basement of one of the buildingss by a pedestrian. women, for instance, are the letter writers. Yes, men do write once in a writers. Yes, men do write once in a while, apart from business letters, but they conduct most of their personal correspondence by means of picture postcards. But if all the letters written by women that go out from Victoria every day contained a boost for Victoria—something about its unapproachable climate and its wonderful opportunities, the effect would be amazing in its benefits.

"At the meeting this evening I am amazing in its benefits.

"At the meeting this evening I am going to advocate the use of small, pretty folders to be supplied free to the women for use in their letters. These folders will contains descriptions of Victoria and her opportunities, and the idea is to have the women enclose one in each of their letters.

VANCOUVER ASKS FOR PROVINCIAL LAW

Latest Move of Mainland City to Secure Site of Provincial University Is Now Revealed

The latest move made by Vancouver to ensure the location of the provincial university in that city by trying to tie the hands of the committee who will decide that point, came to a head yesterday in the form of an application to the benchers of the Law Society, nominally from the law students of the province, but in reality from the Vancouver students only, asking for the establishment of a law school in Vancouver.

establishment of a law school in Vancouver.

The whole movement was carefully kept from the knowledge of the local men until it was time to spring the mine. With the whole scheme cut and dried a delegation of Vancouver students came over at the end of last week and tried to rush the local students into endorsing the proposition. Needless to say they failed. It was felt that such an important matter should be considered before being dealt with, and also that the decision of the benchers given in reply to a former attempt of the same kind was a wise one, namely, that the matter should rest in abeyance until the establishment of the provincial university.

A law school is the natural appanage till the establishment of the provincial university.

A law school is the natural appanage of an university, and in British Columbia it would be ridiculous to have two rival schools of legal learning. The question is the more important to students as the Vancouver men are understood to have wanted attendance at their law school compulsory on law students. Thus if the university were located elsewhere than at Vancouver, either law-yers would be prevented from going to the university or they would have to undergo a double course at great expense to themselves or their parents.

The matter was brought Defore the benchers yesterday by a delegation headed by L. J. Ladner of Vancouver. He was accompanied by two other students, Messrs. Howser and McCall, Arter talking it over with them, the benchers decided to take no action at present but to let the matter stand until their July meeting. A committee was appointed to discuss the question with the students and to report at the July meeting. The committee consists of E. P. Davis, K.C., and L. G. McPhillips, K.C., of Vancouver; E. V. Bodwell, K.C., and H. D. Helmcken, K.C., of Victoria, and G. H. Corbould, K.C., of Vencers at yesterday's meeting minister.

The benchers at yesterday's meeting were Hon, C. E. Pooley, K.C., L. G. Mc-Phillips, K.C., H. D. Helmcken, K.C., and R. S. Lennie.

A feature of the discussion was a letter of protest sent in by the Victoria students, which was largely instrumental in getting the final settlement of the affair put over. The text of the communication follows:

CREAM SEPARATORS

To many farmers the first cost of the separator seems an almost insurmountable obstacle and causes them to put off its purchase from year to year through the mistaken idea that they cannot "afford" it. A little consideration of the facts will easily show the falsity of this reasoning. As a matter of fact they cannot afford to be without it. The perfect cream separator is by far the best investment open to any owner of cows, and would be even though its cost were five times as great as it is.
