FOCH PAYS TRIBUTE TO EMPIRE'S ARMIES

Their Dash and Bravery Unsurpassable, He Said—High Praise for Field Marshal Haig.

London, July 30.—(Reuter's)—At the award of honor yesterday, Field Marshal Foch paid eloquent tribute to the magnificent qualities of the British and Dominion armies in the great counter-attacks after August 1918, and said that their dash and bravery were unsurpassable. They never stopped smashing the German war machine and would have gone through to the Meuse or the Rhine (cheers).

Field Marshal Foch's tributes to the British and Dominion's war efforts were couched in the most glowing terms. For example, referring to the early days of the war, he said: "At Tientsin in 1914 I did not see the first British corps resist victoriously the enemies' violent attacks, despite the cruellest of losses? On the Somme in 1916 your armies gave proof of their incomparable ardor, and this gallantry was shared in by the Dominion contingents. As for material, guns, ammunition, gas, airplanes, tanks, of what magnificent volume of production did your country not show itself capable?"

Who Could Doubt. After describing how France, bleeding sorely and tired, struggled with similar energy: "After that who could doubt the outcome of the war? Once again the justice of history was to give its own unquestionable judgment, namely that nations are clear."

COLONIES PART IN THE WORLD WAR

Lieut.-Colonel Amery Emphasizes Immensity of War Time Patriotic Efforts.

LONDON, July 31.—(Reuter's)—Lieut.-Colonel L. E. G. Amery, Under-Secretary for the Colonies, speaking on the Colonies Office estimates in the House of Commons yesterday, emphasized the immensity of the war-time patriotic efforts of fellow subjects overseas. It might be gauged by noting the sum total of military efforts in the field before armistice day, either measuring by the number of lives sacrificed, the numbers of the enemy killed or captured, or the total number of hours spent in the trenches, both Canada and Australia individually contributed greater military effort than the United States with a population of over one hundred million people. Moreover, the efforts of the Crown Colonies were far greater than usually realized. In every part of the Empire the whites contributed as high a quota as any community in the world. Over two-thirds of the males of East Africa and Rhodesia also took the field.

Best in the World.

All the Colonies substantially contributed to the cost of the war from revenue, declared Lieut. Colonel Amery, incurring liability larger than the production allowed. Therefore, he hoped this would be remembered when reconstructing and reconstructing in the Colonies was being considered.

Colonel Amery declared that British Colonial Administration was the best in the world before the war, and stated that in future it was going to be greatly improved, especially as regards large territories assigned to Great Britain as mandatory.

There was a prima facie case for a great programme of railway construction. Colonel Amery was of the opinion that every sovereign spent in developing the Colonies would bring manifold return in a very short time.

In concluding, Colonel Amery drew attention to the remarkable development in relations with the Dominions. A fact which most impressed the outside world was that at the Peace Conference the full equality of the Dominions with the Motherland as nations had been recognized, not only by Great Britain, but also by other governments. He was convinced this new departure would go to the greatest lengths in effectively cementing forever more imperial unity.
