FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1883.

The third clause provides that all eemed an oath.

The sixth clause states the offence miroduction of the Torrens Land Transfer System into Canada—The Harbor and the Esplanade—The Factory Act. Special Despatch to The World. OTTAWA, April 12—After routine, Mr. Dalton McCarthy introduced a bill to faciliate the transfer of land in the Northwest. finto Canada was the Torrens system, which principal provision being that the owners of the land will hold the government sertificates of their ownership, and when they sell their land theze certificates will be renewed by the government in the names of the purchase; a without the trouble and cost invivived in searching titles, constant of the land with the stock farm experiment, the conservation of the forests, and the approaching exhibition in St. John city.

to be wown as registrar-general. Fig. Blake approved of the bill, which he Men. Mr. Mills in the last parliament. The in that city is at a standstill.

The Thames has risen and overflowing its banks, has swamped the village of Kensington, a suburb of London, Ont.

John Cook, insurance agent, has been on trial at the Elgin assizes for breaking the mose of Geo. Claris, a broker. Cook summoned a photographer to show that Claris' nose had always been crooked. Cook was found guilty.

Spring freshets on the Maitland river yesterday resulted in the destruction of a large flour mill at Goderich, Ont., with the dam near it and other property, and further mittee to, consider a resolution to consolidate and amend the acts respecting the in-members to their feet. They occupied the cise duty of two cents per pound samp, should be recompensed. taken up, seventy-two clauses being passed. Mr. Peter Mitchell was again on his ear and bothered Mr. Bowell whenever he had an opportunity in revenge for the treatment he received at the hands of the minister

An arousing incident was that Mr. Rykert, who was in the chair, picked up a corry of the land act in mistake for the customs bill, and had passed four clauses before Mr. Bowell discovered that the man of the scrapbook was on the wrong track. Mr.

Rykert felt cheap.

The house adjourned at 11.45.

Parliamentary Points. OTTAWA, April 12-Messrs. Heakes, Beaty, M.P., and E. F. Clark waited on the finance minister at his residence this evening, re the factory act. Sir Leonard Tilley agreed with the deputation as to the necessity of such a measure, and promised to introduce an act in a few days, probably on Monday. The statement copied in the World from Hamilton paper that John White and E. F. Clarke had a falling out as to the course of the former on the orange bill is untrue. The member for East Hastings and the deputation are unanimous as to what should be done, and the measure will be oushed to a second reading on Monday. The Free Press to-night says that Mr. Chapleau, brother of the secretary of state, will take legal action for libel against the World for having stated that he stole the Macdonell-Tupper letters.

The election committee to-day declared by 15 to 8, that Macdonald, the minority connervative candidate in Kings, P.E.I. should have the seat. The committee had already decided that the reform candidate was disqualified.

A deputation of the brotherhood of loca motive engineers is in the city, on business with the government. It is composed of Mr. R. H. Pearson, chief, Toronto; Mr. Phelan, R. Du Long, George H. Feltham, of Truro; W. D. Martin, Moneton; and A. J. Sharp, Campbellton.

The Marquis of Lorne left Ottawa yester-day morning for Halifax to meet H. R. H. Princess Louise. Shortly after their return to Octawa a state ball will be given.

Mr. T. W. Anglin, M.P., who is coming ever visited Ottawa.

Mr. A. Richardson, a Canadian journalist, (and was in Paris during the rule of the commune) and who has been latterly connected with the Bulletin of San Francisco, has been promoted to the responsible post-tion of general agent to the Western As-sociated press for the Pacific coast. Mr. Wm. Toplin, editor of the Montreal Herald, died on Wednesday, aged 46. He

FREDERICTON, Apr. 12-Tue legislature eassemble! this afte oon. The speech from the throne adverted briefly to the recondition of the province would be submit-ted in connection with the public accounts and estimates for the current year. Such statement he said would suggest legislation kind is foreshadowed. The reduction of the veyancing, etc. It is proposed to establish the head office at Regina, the chief officer At Guelph the flats at the Dundas bridge are entirely flooded with water and traffic in that city is at a standstill.

dam near it and other property, and further mischief is feared; $15,000 will not cover

Several artesian wells have been sunk in Wainfleet, a short distance from Marshville, that are so highly impregnated with salt that they are useless for watering stock or household purposes. As a rule, the water like a hove the angless

The traffic of the Midland Railway of Canada for the week ending April 7, 1883, was as follows: Passengers and mail $6686 44, freight $13,007.93, total $19,704 37, as compared with $17,970.46 for the corresponding week of 1882, being an increase of $1733 91; and the aggregate traffic to date is $206,791 63, being a decrease of $3055 58 over 1882.

A Brantford telegram says: The Grand river has risen in the last two days about eight feet. The fair grounds and the north part of west Brantford are flooded. People residing in that section are moving out by boats and others are occupying the second story of dwellings. The flats to the south of the city are also flooded and the residents there had to move out in boats.

PARIS, April 12.—A wheel of one of the cars of a freight train broke near St. George John Walsh, the suspect whom it was sought to extradite at Havre, arrived at New York yesterday. station this afternoon, causing several cars to be thrown off the track. No one was in-

PHILADELPHIA, April 12-The supering tendent of the mint has prepared designs tor dies for coins for the Hawaiian Islands. On one side of the coin will be King Kalakaua's face, and on the other a portion of the great seal of the country. The denom-ination of the pieces will be indicated in the Hawaiian and English languages. The pieces will correspond with the American dollars, halt-dollars, quarters and dimes. A Penttent Thief.

WARSAW, N.Y., April 12 — Charles Cox, the young man who "skipped" with $1650 elonging to his widowed sister, Mrs. Wheelder of Perry, has been heard from.

He telegraphed his wife from Winnipeg that he was homesick and wanted to come back.
The message was intercepted by the officers, who immediately notified the Winnipeg authorities to take him in charge. Charles Cox came here this morning of his own accord, Under-sheriff Cornell arrested and jailed him. He had $1500 of the stolen money in

PAUPERS AND PASSES. Mayor Boswell Charged With Making of the Tribune, the catholic reform weekly published here. Mrs. Anglin is a very estimable lad, y and well known to all who have appears to regard it as his special mission to give railway passes to Hamilton to every description of pauper and tramp, as if this city were in duty bound to take care of all the broken-down or refuse humanity that finds its way to Toronto. The latest and most bare-faced swindle of this kind was perpetrated yesterday. William Petts, who claimed he had come from St. Calarines wanted to get from St. Ca'harines, wanted to get into the Toronto hospital. The mayor refused to give him an admission card, bu Herald, died on Wednesday, aged 46. He was an Englishman by birth, and was a methodist minister for some time. Having joined the Church of England he emigrated to Canada some years age, and has since been connected with the daily press. He was a good writer and a profound scholar.

An old maiden lady of New York, who entertain form the city treasury. If the mayor of Towarto had any respect for the mayor of Towarto had suy respect for the papers of either Toronto or St.

Catharines?'

If or Barnum's museum. On his left hand he has six fingers and is thumb and on the right hand there are five fingers in addition to the thumb, all of which are perfectly formed. On each hand one finger has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left hand there are five fingers and distinct to the thumb, all of which are perfectly formed. On each hand one finger has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left hand there are two liftle fingers in the lifetime of the oldest citizen as at to the thumb, all of which are perfectly formed. On each hand one finger has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left foot be has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left foot be has six fingers and distinct to the thumb, all of which are perfectly formed. On each hand one finger has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left foot be has grown out above the thumb near the wrist. On the left foot be has seven to-s and six on the right foot. Hogan is about twenty-seven years of age, and has never experienced by many settlers who are the manyor of the original perfectly formed. On he has six fingers and distinct to the thumb and on the fight hand there are five fingers and dit

FURTHER TESTIMONY BELATIVE TO THE ALLEGED MURDERERS.

DUBLIN, April 12 .- At the Brady trial o-day Carey was cross-examined, and the ting the murders was a member of a sodality which received the sacrament at stated periods. Carey says he was promised pardon before he determined to testify against his that conspiracies of a dangerous kind exist leaf. The general sentiment was in favor of the removal of this tax, so as to encourage the growth of the weed in Quebec, the habitans having a particular liking for the native product.

The motion passed and stands for further action.

After recess the house went into commit.

After recess the house went into commit.

After recess the house went into commit.

After noily noteworthy feature of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the remaining of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the removal of this tax, so as to encourage the removal of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the removal of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the removal of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the removal of the debate was a request by Mr. Landerkin that seven men of the Durham company, 35th battalion, who contracted typhoid fever in the removal of the debate with a detective of Pinkerton's a detective of the marge of the marge of the mailton, who claims the reward of $500 offered for his arrest. Major Phipps has altered with a detective of the mailton, who claims the reward of $500 offered for his arrest. Major Phipps has alleged dynamite conspirators, were taken to court this morning. The prison of the alleged dynamite conspirators, was alleged dynamite conspirators, was alleged dynamite conspirators, was alleged dynamite occurring to court this morning. The prison occurring the malleged dynamite conspirators, was alleged dynamics of court this

Many persons were killed on Wednesda

A committee of the German bundess has reported favorably on the letter of Bismarck, advising that the importation of hopproducts from America be prohibited.

Sixty arrests have been made in connection with election frauds in South Caroline

The Continental oil works at Denve Col., were burned last night. Loss;$125,000. The firemen are working hard to save the

It is thought the results of the observe tions of the last transit of Venus will be known in April, 1887, the work of computation having commenced.

The secretary of the railroad commissi counts of the Loan and Improvement con pany as improper charges for the construc-tion of the elevated railroad in New York yet received any of the money subscribed in this country for their benefit. It is thought the money is all right, but the German offi-cials are slow.

The steamer Merids, from Vera Cruz New York, with one hundred passengers and a cargo of general merchandise, collided with an unknown schooner off Cape Hatteras yesterday noon. Her bow was carried away and she put into Hampton Roads off Lambert's Point light last night. She now lies half under water. The passengers were taken to Old Point without accident. Wreckers are trying to raise her. The steamer is owned by F. Alexander & Son, New York.

Barbarous Treatment of Mulattos. New York, April 12-It is stated that the revolution in Hayti reported vesterday was due to cruelties practised on the mul attos under President Solomon's adminis-Considering that ever since it has been incorporated Toronto has been made the dumping ground for the helpless and the afflicted by almost every municipality in the province within a radius of a hundred miles, and sometimes by places even further off, the following from the Hamilton Times of Wednesday last, is almost enough to make a horse laugh:

"We wonder when the mayor of Toronto will exhibit the semblance of shame because on his method of dealing with the pauper element that finds its way to that city. He appears to regard it as his special mission attos under President Solomon's administration. There has always been bitterness between the blacks and mulattos, as the latter—forming a third of the population—have been shut off from political privileges. The present government banished some mulattos, imprisoned others, and shot hundreds after a brief incarceration. The prisons were filled with women and children and banished mulattos. One day seven men, another day twenty-eight men were taken out of prison and shot without trial. In the latter case the dead bodies were mutilated by blacks. Nearly all the property of the mulattos had been confiscated.

Many Fingers and Toes. WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 11.-One the numerous Italians recently located in the coal region is George Hogan, a labore employed on the repairs of the Lebigh employed on the repairs of the Lehigh Valley railroad at Hazleton, a small mining village about ten miles distant from this city. He is something of a natural curiosity and as such would be a proper subject for Barnum's museum. On his left hand he has six fingers and a thumb and on the right hand there are five tingers in addition to the thumb, all of which are perfectly formed. On each hand one finger has grown out above the thumb near the wrist.

INVINCIBLES ON TRIAL. CANADIAN CONSPIRATORS DRS. CLARKE AND TUCKER

A BILL IN THE SENATE AT OTTAWA THE ONE OF TORONTO AND THE DEALING WITH THEM.

as the United States, become the hatchin ground of the dynamite and assass societies which are so busy in England and Ireland! It would appear that the gov-ernment have good reasons for the belief cies and defects in the management of that institution. Daniel Clarke, superintendent the first of the completence of the control of the completence of the completence of the symme, the control of the completence of the symme, therefore of the symme the control fellow-conspirators. The photograph was in Canada, and that the law against such of the asylum, thereupon sent a circular to should be if not made stronger than it is, every asylum in the country warning them which would be difficult, at least made much with or without solitary confinement.

The second clause provides that compulsion is no excuse unless declared within ent at the illegal administering of such oaths shall be deemed principals.

The fourth clause provides that an indictment need not set out the words of the were made: Mrs. Grant is almost brokenhearted over her daughter's sad death.

Hattle, it seems, wrote to her a short time since saying that she was ill with brotehitis and asking that her mother send some money to her. She was getting the money at the time the fact of her death was telegraphed her. Hattie, she say, had many offers of marriage but refused them all, as as and she did not wish to marry below what she considered her station in life. It is said that Mrs. Edgoomb's son asserts that the poor girl's last words were: "Oh, Bill Graham, Bill Graham!" The funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, from Rodney's undertaking rooms, and the interment was finade at Forest lawh:

s follows:
That from and after the passing of this LATEST SPORTING NEWS.

W. Arnull, the celebrated English train-Mitchell says next time he would like to On Tuesday evening last a lacrosse club organized at Markham, to be known as the Markham star lacrosse club.

That from and after the passing of this act, all and every society or association, the members of which shall be admitted to take any unlawful oath, obligation, or engagement within the intent and meaning of the foregoing provision, and every society or association; the members whereof, or any of them, shall take or in any mantier lend themselves by any stich oath, obligation, or engagement, or in consequence of being members of such society or association, and society or association of which the names of the members or any of them shall be kept secret from the society at large, or which shall have any committee or secret body so chosen or appointed that the members, constituting the same, shall not be known by the society at large to be members of such committee or select body, or which shall have any president, treasurer, secretary, delegate, or other officer, so chosen or appointed that the election or appointment of such persons to such office shall not be known to the society at large, or of which the names of all the persons and the committee or select bodies. season when Furleng of the Nautilus club of this city was pulling double, and his engagements were such that he could not drop gagements were such that he could not drop the double business to practice single sculls, Louden of Toronto professed to be very anxious for a race with him. Now Furlong challenges Louden of Greenwood or Morris (Louden preferred) for a race, single sculls, from 1½ to 5 miles, on May 24, to be rowed if agreeable at Burlington beach, where good water can always be depended upon. If none of the three gentlemen mentioned care to accept the challenge it remains open for others. Furlong desires it to be understood that the race must come off on the date mentioned, as after that time he will be in practice for the double-scull race at Ottawa. His money is ready, and if Louden means business he would like to hear from him right away."

Furlong professes to be an antateur; it is or of which the names of all the persons and the committee or select bodies of members, and of all presidents, treasurers, secretaries, delegates and other officers, shall not be entered in a book or books for that purpose, and to be open to the inspection of all members of such society or association, shall be taken to be unlawful combinations and be taken to be unlawful combinations and confederacies, and every person who from and after the passing of this act, shall become a member of any such society or association, or shall afterward act as a member thereof, and every person who after the passing of this act shall, directly or indirectly, maintain corfrom him right away."

Furloug professes to be an amateur; it is therefore to be supposed the Spec. means by "his money is ready" that it is ready to buy a cup if the Hamilton man loses. respondence or intercourse with any such society or association, or with any division, branch, committee or other select body, treasurer, secretary, delegate or other offitressurer, according to the society or associa-cer or member of such society or associa-tion as such, or who shall by contributions of money or otherwise aid, abet or support such society or any members or officer thereof as such, shall be deemed guilty of bers of the Ontario Rifle association, met thereof as such, shall be deemed guilty of an unlawful combination or confederacy. The seventh clause contains the penalty: Any person who, at any time after the passing of this act, shall, in breach of the provisions thereof, be guilty of any such unlawful combination or con-Wednesday and arranged for the summer Wednesday and arranged for the summer competition. Following are the arrangements for the different matches. These arrangements are final: Canada company's match, twenty-three prizes valued at $120, regulations same as last year. The Macdonald, Gilmour, Gordon, Walker and Tait Brassey, same as last year, except that the 200 yards of the last named match will be shot kneeling instead of standing as formerly. The Ontario, same as last year. The Carbine match having proved a failure was withdrawn from the list. In the Gzowski match the skirmishing will take place between 200 and 500 yards, instead of 200 and 600. Both in the skirmishing and volley firing the targets will be similar to those in use by the Dominion association at Ottawa. In the consolidated match some of the prizes on the list having been returned for want of competitors last year, it was thought advisable to reduce the number from twenty to fifteen, which was accordingly done. In the Martini-Henry match six additional prizes were added, making the te'al amount $100 instead of $75, as formerly. The extra series will be the same as last year. The revolver match has had five additional prizes of $5 each added to the list. In the small bore match the range prizes at 1,000 yards were done away with and their value added to the general list. competition. Following are the arrangeand shall be liable to be imprisoned in the penitentiary for any term not exceeding three years, and not less than two years, or to be imprisoned in any other jail or place of confinement for any term less than two years, with or without hard labor, and with or without solitary confinement. Any person who knowingly permits a meeting of members of such society in his house shall be guilty of a misdemeanor on first offence punishable by fine of $200, and for subsequent offences shall be subject to penalties before provided.

London, Ont., April 12.-Tte water the Thames is higher than yesterday, and in the back part of Kensington all the streets are submerged. The occupants of houses No such volume of water has been known Another large audience saw the Hanlon Bros. in their absurdity at the Grand opera

INDIGNANT SCHOOL TEACHERS.

A meeting of public and private school teachers of this city was held in Temperance hall, Temperance street, last evening, for the purpose of discussing Mr. Charlton's bill in relation to "offences against the per-son," recently passed in the house of comand third, which are of general application. deals specially with the members ession, and appears to single

Mr. Carter spoke for the deputation and said that Mr. Robertson reported that he had no objection to the principles of organ-BUFFALO, April 12.—Mrs. Grant the mother of the unfortunate girl Hattie, who died at the house of Mrs. Edgeomb.on Michigan the printer's union. A deputation of the ditch at the side of the road and, on the printer's union. died at the house of Mrs. Edgcomb, on Michigan street on Tuesday, arrived in the city yesterday and preparations for the funeral were made: Mrs. Grant is almost broken-

> Mr. Armstrong said they were aware that tation, and read an affidavit from John Little, in which that person states that he had left the services of Mr. Robertson when he refused to pay the typographical formed by the foreman of the Telegram in the presence of Mr. Robertson that no union men would be employed on that paper. He also read an affidavit from Alfred Jackson which stated that he had applied to John Ross Robertson early in April for work as a printer, and that he was told by him that he could commence at once and that he need not be afraid of the union as he would not, as long as he had an office in the city, have a union man > had an office in the city, have a union man in his employ.

>
> Mr. Armstrong, in speaking to these affidavits, said that they were sufficient to convince any unprejudiced mind that Mr. Robertson in his meanderings among his advertisers gave the lie to what he said amongst his employees, and now that the typographical union passed a unanimous resolution, that it was a struggle with them and J. Ross Robertson from the first, also contradicting his statement that he was fighting a few printers in the employ of rival newspapers. All that the typographical union required was the support of the unionists of the city not to purchase the Telegram or patronize anyone who advertised therein.
>
> Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue said it was not ask-

Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue said it was not ask-Mr. D. J. O'Donoghue said it was not asking much of the wage-workers of Toronto to change their paper if they took the Telegram. If Mr. Robertson defeated the printers on this occasion it would be a talisman to other employers when they were in difficulty with their men to quote Mr. Robertson's stubbornness as an example. In that respect alone it behooves every man to strain all his nerves to decrease the circulation of that paper. This was the second time that they had attacked Mr. Robertson, with whom they had been fighting the past tion of that paper. This was the second time that they had attacked Mr. Robertson, with whom they had been fighting the past eleven years. He was confident that the sentiments of this head body and of those expressed by the resolutions of the unions under it during the past two weeks that they would put tha resolutions which they had passed into effect, that Mr. Robertson would not be allowed to ride over the rights and liberty of the workingmen of this city.

J. W. Carter then moved the following resolution: "That since J. Ross Robertson had refused to receive a deputation from the Typographical union, whose desire was amicably to arrange the matters now in dispute, this council do most earnestly call upon all wage-workers in the city not to purchase the Telegram and thereby show their disapproval of a newspaper proprietor who has delared he will not employ printers because they are in connection with organized labor." Carried.

Mr. Lewis of the Seamen's union then moved the following resolution, which was allowed to receive a deputation from the moved the following resolution, which was allowed to receive a deputation from the moved the following resolution, which was allowed to receive a deputation from the moved the following resolution, which was allowed to receive a deputation from the moved the following resolution all was allowed to receive a deputation from the resolution which allowed the resolutions are received to the resolutions and the resolutions are received to the resolutions are received to the resolutions and the reso

Mr. Lewis of the Seamen's union then moved the following resolution, which was also carried, "That since all newspaper proprietors except J. R. Robertson acknowledge the right of their employees to join a union, the seamen's union does heartily sympathize with the typographical union in supporting the liberty and independence of its members and in resisting the scurrilous attack made upon it by the Evening Telegram. That the typographical union should place a list of all merchants advertising in that paper before the wage earners of the city, to the end that working classes may withhold their patronage from them and trade only with those who are in accord with the principles of unionism."

Those wishing to buy watches, clocks or jewelry of any description cannot do better than pay a visit to Crumpton's, 83 King house last night. The performance went off as well as ever and was equally as amusing. The Hanlon brothers will appear again to-night and to-morrow at the matinee and in the evening, when they will make their farewell bew.

THE SCARE AT OTTAWA

PRICE ONE CENT

ME SURES FOR THE SAFETY OF

OTTAWA, April 12-It is understood to antique will be taken all along the line of railway between Halifax and Ottawa on the route of the princess to the capital. The marquis left to-day to meet the princess at Halifax on her arrival from Bermuda Along the Intercolonial railway and the Grand Trunk, track masters will tioned at points along the line of a quarter mile's distance. A pilot engine will also go in advance of the vice-regal train. would soon be opened. In a steamer Shick luna is being repainted preparatory to her departure in a few days loaded with barley for Oswego. The schooner J. G. Worts also presented an animated scene. Men were busy refitting the rigging and generally overhauling the brig. On the wharfs also carpenters were busy repairing the small boats. The Island steamers have not yet been touched, but in a few days their owners will begin the work of overhauling them also. The newly painted hulls present a noble appearance, and the boats, as refitted, look fit to weather any storm.

were going along Queen street last night seeking whom they might entrap. When against a man who was not as sober as he

Yesterday morning a grave charge against will be sifted in court to-day. Mary Hickey, who is employed at 11 Clarence square, stated that a week ago Gordon, who boards at the same house, attempted to indecently assault her in the woodshed. It appears that he and the plaintiff were left alone in the house on the evening in question, and that she having occasion to go to the woodshed Gordon offered to carry the land ten her. lamp for her. While in the shed he caught hold of her and tore her clothing. Her struggles prevented further mischief. Yesterday 3 warrant was applied for and at 3 o'clock Gordon was arrested and brought to police headquarters. The Toronto Exhibition. toial Exhibition association met at the city hall last evening and reviewed the prize hall last evening and reviewed the prize list for the next exhibition. Several important changes were made with a view to meeting the wishes of exhibitors. The members present were Messrs. W. H. Doel, chairman, John James, J. B. Johnson, C. Bouniet, J. E. Mitchell, and John A. Wills. At the close of the meeting Mr. Wills, on behalf of the Canadian Poultry association, presented Mr. C. Bonnick, the energetic secretary of that society, with a valuable gold pencil case and penholder, as a mark of their appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him during the past two vears.

At the annual meeting of the Western Assurance company it was resolved to have a portrait of their late president, Hon. John McMurrich, painted for the board-room. also painted the portrait of the late manager of the company, Mr. Haldane, and which, some two years ago, was placed in the board

Large Showing of Clothing. On Saturday Messrs. Petley & Petley of the Golden Griffin will show a large stock of spring clothing, about 1500 suits.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING. We sprinkled him with water through the Maltese eat my breakfast with mine-Uncle Bill.

"ticker" bound round his legs—Mr. Strathy.

But I was the dandy dancer of the floor, and my ash was great -Jack. was there to represent the Dook-W. B. Scarth. And I was there picking up scraps for Peek-a-boo

Chris. Bunting.
Dida't I hold that train gracefully?—Hume. My leg was not very strong, but my mousta was quite heavy and I was awful tall—Bun, Spring Poetry. Spring Foetry.

Sweet spring will soon be here once a For now's the time
When reckless rhyme
Reveals the sad-syed poet's soar;
And in the mote
The grewsome goat
Delights in debris from the shore;
While here and there,
With glaring stare,
"To Let" adorns the big front door.

OVEMENTS OF OCEAN STEAMSHIPS Steamship. Reported at