The Toronto

World.

FIFTH YEAR.

HAS KHARTOUM FALLEN?

THE INDICATIONS INCREASING

LONDON, Nov. 3 .- The Times considers doubtful. This view, it thinks, is especially reasonable in the absence of advices on the subject from General Wolseley. The Times traces the report to the Bosphore, an Egyptian and dubious French organ, which may have given the Europeanized version in September. ally reasonable in the absence of advices on news up to noon to-day, and nothing he died. news up to noon to-day, and nothing has been received at the government offices in regard thereof. A despatch to-day from Dongola makes no mention of the reported fall of Khartoum. It says, however, that the Mahdi at last accounts was collecting forces around Khartoum, and had summoned Gen. Gordon to surrender. rebels had possession of the wells on the caravan route between Debbah and Khartoum. After the crops are harvested the Mahdi's forces will be largely increased.

The Daily News has a despatch from Debbah stating that Gen. Gordon attacked a large force of rebels at Andermann, and after eight hours' fighting put them to flight. Gen. Gordon had twelve vessels well manned. The rebels numbered 25,000. They had four Krupp guns, one of which burst during the engagement. When the messenger left the rebels were returning to renew their attack, having obtained reinforcements to nearly double their original strength.

Khedive had sent a telegram to the government announcing the fall of Khartoum and the capture of Gen. Gordon is authoriatively denied. In the house of lords this afternoon, Earl In the house of lords this afternoon, Earl Granville said that the government had no reason to believe the report of the fall of Khartoum and capture of Gordon was true. Lord Salisbury, referring to the instructions given by the government to Gordon, said it appeared to be the intention of the government to abandon all the Egyptian garrisons in the Soudan.

Earl Granville denied that the government had any intention to abandon Khartoum, but admitted it had no intention to prolong the campaign in order to rescue following source: A French merchant, formerly French consul at Khartoum, learned from a messenger who lately arrived from Khartoum that Gordon was in want of provisions and forced a sortie. He reached Berber. Col. Stewas ortic. He reached Berber. Col. Stewart was able to push further north, and Gordon started to return to Khartoum, and when near Shendy he learned that Khartoum had been handed over to the rebels. Gordon found himself unable to retire or advance, and was killed there.

CAIRO, Nov. 3—Another Canadian voyageur has been drowned while passing the rapids at Wady Halfa.

CAIRO, Nov. 3.—Wolseley arrived at Dongola to-day, and held a conference with the mudir.

Dublin, Nov. 3 .- Frederick J. Allen was to-day remanded to await trial. Evidence was produced showing that he wrote letter to the headquarters of the fenians in Paris giving an account of the receipts in cash for fenian purposes and an account of the avengers' expenses. Among the avengers' names Joe Mullett and Patrick Malloy of men composing them. At Kilkenny it said there were 332 members; at Dublin

The Home Kulers Cause a Scene. LONDON, Nov. 3 .- In the house of com mons this evening Sexton (home ruler) moved an amendment to the address urging that the criminal law of Ireland, esally as regards the composition of ally as regards the composition of all administered at the composition of A violent scene ensued, during which Healy (liberal), Biggar and Marum (home rulers) were repeatedly called to order.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.-The eight anarchist charged with blowing up the Niederwald monument, have been removed from prison at Elberfeld to Leipsic. A plot prison at Elberfeld to Leipsic. A plot was discovered to force the prison at Elberfeld and release the culprica. Several persons implicated in the plot have been arrested.

Paris, Nov. 3.—It is reported that Mr. Ferry has decided to dissolve the chamber of deputies in February. A pour parler between the union and republican leaders in the senate resulted in their giving consent to a dissolution of that body. President Grevy also consents to a dissolution. Bismarck's Fighting Doctor.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—Professor Schwein-ninger, Bismarck's physician, challenges Dubois Reymond to fight a duel on account of remarks made by the latter on the appointment of the professor to a chair in the Berlin university. Reymond refuses to PARIS, Nov. 4.—Five thousand three hundred troops to reinforce the French army in Tonquin start before Nov. 15. A second instalment starts a fortnight

London, Nov. 3.-Negotiations are progress between the various Atlantic steamship companies to raise the passenger tariff between Europe and America.

KIEFF, Nov. 3.—The chief of police has been dismissed on account of laxity in his duty in connection with the recent troubles with university students.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

Capt. Griffith of the steamship Teutonia was arrested in Brooklyn for setting men to work on Sunday at discharging the At Allentown, Pa., Charles Dietrich his family of four persons have been poisoned by eating Bologna sausage. Their condition is serious.

New York bankers believe that the im The steamer Oregon brought a million dollars in gold. The steamer Republic, which leaves Liverpool to-day, has half a million dollars in gold on her.

Lynching Cattle Thieves.

DENVER, Nov. 2.—Meagre information of a terrible lynching affair at Rock creek, two or three different routes; but beyond the assertion that seventeen men were lynched at that point on the charge of cattle stealing nothing is known. Rock creek is in the Gore mountains, a sparsely settled region in the northern portion of Summit county, and the means of communicating are slight. The information, although lacking particulars, is believed to be reliable.

red at Bethany colored church yesterday. wm. Jackson, the pastor, has been charged with misappropriating the funds and the trustees locked him out of the church. He crawled in at the window and reached the pulpit, when Trustee Allen attempted to dislodge him, but the pastor knocked him out with the bible. A pitched battle followed and the police finally quelled the disturbance.

sented an animated appearance to day and excitement ran linguistics. At intervals cheers would be given for Blaine, then for Cleveland. Considerable money was wagered.

Thanksgiving day at the rooms of the Torontos in the Free library building.

that Caceres' infantry battalion at Cuzes mutinied. The uprising was suppressed by cavalry. Five officers and twenty soldiers were shot. Bolivia has refused Caceres assistance and his money is exhausted. His men are without pay and Tuscollosa, Ala., Nov. 3.—The prestant synod of Alabama, by a vote of 41 to 19, passed a resolution condemning the teaching of the doctrine of evolution. Two Coal Mine on Fire-PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—A fire has been in progress in the Knoxville coal mine near this city since Saturday. The flames are spreading. A large number of cars were destroyed. The fire is the work of incendiaries, who saturated the walls of the mine with petroleum.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 3.-Marie Cusimano, an Italian emigrant yet in her teens, gave birth to triplets on the train arriving here yesterday. She had with her three other children born a year ago.

Brigueli's Funeral. New York, Nov. 3 .- The funeral of Brignoli took place to-day. It was largely attended by members of the theatrical profession. Clara Louise Kellogg sang

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The street car drivers struck to-day for $60 a month. They are now paid only $45. Only a few

No More of South Africa Wanted. LONDON, Nov. 3 .- Earl Derby informs deputation of South African merchants a deputation of South African merchants to day that the English government had no intention of abandoning any portion of her South African possessions, but could not extend the limit of her control beyond the present boundaries; also that the government refuses to entertain their appeal for the annexation of Zululand or to establish a protectorate over the Zulu country.

What She Might Expect of Him. George had proposed and been accepted.

'Well," she said, "I can sing and play on the piano and harp, can paint, and at the eminary I was up in the fine arts and poseminary I was up in the line are said to litical economy and logic, and I can crochet beautifully and play lawn tennis, and, and —that's about all, I think. Now, tell me what are some of your accomplishments, George?" "I haven't got any." "Not a single one?" "Well," he said, with a sigh,

As our great eastern contemporary James Gordon Bennett hopped into the James Gordon Bennett hopped into the Palace hotel coach the other day, after his brief sojourn here of forty-eight hours, a gentleman said to the porter who had brought down 'Jim's' satchel: "So that's the boss journalist, is it?" "Journalist?" replied the porter, with great contempt; "he's no journalist—he's a perfect gentleman. He gave me $5."

Paris, Nov. 3.—Three deaths from cholera occurred at Ovan, and ten at Nantes since midnight on Sunday.

Valking-sticks hollowed out and filled pany: L. B. Goodrich, sn important pany: L. B. G

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1884.

THE HUNT CLUB JUMPERS

ENTRIES FOR THE THANKSGIVING

The entries for the Toronto hunt club's steeplechase did not fill, and the club will The meeting ought to prove a succe 25 cents. The entries for the other three

Jas. Laut, b.g. Baron, i yrs., by Terror. J. G. Worts, br.h., J. G. W., 5 yrs., by Sinharles—dam by Jack the Barber. Green steeplechase—R. Bond, b.g. Butler, uritton, g.g. Desire, by Cologram.

s. Smith, br.m. Flirt, by Reveller.
Laut, b.g. Baron, by Terror.
Worts, br.h. J. G. W.
Campbell, gr.g. Gray Friar.
Campbell, bg. Royal Oak, 6 yes., b, Hambletonian.

A telegraphic chess contest, in which nore players will participate than in any the Quebec and Toronto chess clubs shortly. It is expected that the match will start on Nov. 17. The members of the Toronto chess club look forward to the contest with strong hopes of a victory

BRIGHTON BEACH, Nov. 3.—First race, mile, Robert Brewster 1, Miller 2, Miss Daly 3; time 1.211; mutuals paid $49.20. Second race, mile and one furlong, Unknown 1, Little Dan 2, Metropolis 3; time 2 031; mutuals paid $81.15. Third race,

New Yerk Nov. 3.- Noremac, pedestrian, started at 11 o'clock to-day, on a wager of $2,000, put up by Paul Boynton and Herbert Carpenter, to beat Weston's record of 5,000 miles in 100 days, at Mid-lothian hall. He is to walk at least 51 miles every day in 15 hours.

At 11.45 Noremac had covered 51 miles and retired until morning.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 3.-Maud S. rotted a trial mile in 2 131 to-day. She ill trot to lower her recon

Fast double teams are scarce. A backward season for horse-clipping. An English cricket team has gone Englinton, on Yonge street, at 3.30.

There is talk of a match to a finish between Mike Cleary and Pete McCoy. The celebrated Australian race horse Martini Henry is troubled with incipient

There are 444 entries for the Washington park, Chicago, races next June and H. H. Baxter, M. W. Ford and C. A. J. H. H. Baxter, M. W. Ford and C. A. J. Quickberner, of the New York athletic club, propose going to England next June.

The eighth annual meeting of the National Norman horse association will be held at the Grand Pacific hotel, Chicago, on Wednesday, Nov. 12.

The game of baseball is not likely to ever gain very much popularity in France. The average French boy is so much afraid of getting burt that he eschews even the game of football.

Ghost and De Barry, two thoroughbreds, hitched double to skeleton wagon, ran a mile at New York in 1.54, beating the time of Murphy's thoroughbred team, J. O. Nay and John J. Quinn, half a second. O. Nay and John J. Quinn, half a second.
Lord Russell, the 3-year-old brother, to Maud S., is a handsome bay in color. He is destined for the stud. Lady Russell, his sister, is a gray 2-year-old and Russell,
his sister, is a gray 2-year-old and Russell, his sister, is a gray 1 filly. Miss Russell, the dam of Maud S., is again in foal to Harold.
A distinguished party gathered at the residence of R. Honey, in the city of Mexico, recently, to witness the christening of the first thoroughbred foal dropped in the country. The colt is by Princeton, out of imp. Castaway; color dark bay, large star in forekead and hind heels white.
He was christened Anshuac.

He was christened Anahuac.

The executive committee of the American can Jockey chib contemplate making exten-sive alterations at Jerome park before next d sive alterations at Jereme park before next spring. A civil engineer has already staked off the ground for making the turns around the north field smoother. The track will also be changed so as to bring the horses into full view on every part of the course from the stand.

man. He gave me $5."

Information by the Yard.

Postal cards are useful, but their use may be carried to extremes. The dentist gets himself over a postal and writes; "Dear Madam: Your teeth are done."

The hair man writes: "Madam: Your wig is ready." The optician grins and scrawls: "Mrs.—: I will send your glass eye to-morrow." What are letter-carriers and postofice elerks to think of the tert of information?

Walking-sticks hollowed out and filled with rum are the latest agony of fashion.

THE NIAGARA SMUGGLERS

HOME FROM EPHESUS.

The 8.35 train on the Toronto, Grey and Bruce division of the Canadian Pacific steamed into Union station last night only ballot boxes, awaiting the official count, ballot boxes, awaiting the official count, stolen. The boxes had been placed in the grand jury room on the first floor, and the entrance was made through the window, the glass of which was broken. The majority is so large that the theft cannot affect the result of the poll.

ORANGEVILLE, Nov. 3.—During Sunday night parties broke into the office of the returning-officer here and stole five of the ballot boxes containing returns of the vote on the Scott act in Dufferin. There was great excitement in town when the news great excitement in town when the news leaked out. The boxes stolen represent 150 majority for the act; with them the returns show 805 majority.

On Thursday last John McCormack, prisoner in the provincial jail at Winnipeg, was flogged by order of Attorney-Gene Miller for attempted escape on the day Miller for attempted escape on the day previous. There is a good deal of indignation in Winnipeg over the matter.

Free Press: It is unnecessary to comment further at present on this beastly business; but we warn those responsible for it that the like had betternever occur again in Manitoba.

Sun: No matter where the reporter turned after the news had spread that the flogging had taken place, he was accosted by people boiling over with indignation at the action. To flog a man, they said, for simply trying to regain his liberty was an outrage upon humanity, and should not be tolerated in this christian country.

farmer two miles from Bright, fell from over the lays in his barn on Saturday and was injured so severely that he died on City Commissioner Coatsworth yester-day issued building permits to the amount of $50,000. W. S. Lee will erect three of $50,000. W. S. Lee will erect three detached brick dwellings and brick stable on East Mutual street near Carlton street, to cost $7000; S. Herbert, five pair of semi detached three story brick dwellings on Richmond street, west of Peter; cost $25,000; J. Hewlett, four semi-detached two story and two single brick dwellings on Richmond place, near John street, cost $20,000; W. S. Thompson, a brick two-story and attic house on Huron street; cost $4000.

An old pensioner named Edward Gor don marched into No. 3 station last night, and delivered himself up as a prisoner of war, saying he had no home and no friends, and he wished to help Governor Green to earn his salary during the winter.

Rhea will be at the Grand all next week. Her repertoire is as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday matinee, and Saturday evening, Yvonne; Wednesday and Thursday, Fron Fron; Friday evening and Saturday matinee, An Unequal Match.

The Night Schools Opened.

The night schools opened last night, and were attended by a large number of pupils At some of the schools a number of young roughs attended with the intention of kicking up a row, but they were soon

In the Guelph Customs Case Turns Up at

RONTO AND BUFFALO.

United States and Canada. Occasionally a seizure of coal oil or whisky is made. but none of the gang have been brought to justice. A Buffalo paper recently stated that Uncle Sam lost annually $50,000 by smuggling operations on the Niagara river. What the dominion loses is a matter of seigntness but it must avoid the ter of conjecture, but it must exceed the sum mentioned as being lost to the United States.

A special officer of the United States

States.

A special officer of the United States treasury department recently visited this city for the purpose of unearthing some smuggling operations that were said to be carried on by parties residing here and in Hamilton. The scheme was a neat and clever one, and succeeded because of its simplicity. All that was necessary was to lift up the cushion part of the seat in the Pullman and deposit the contraband articles under it, then let down the cushion, and the bold smuggler resumed his seat, and when the customs officer came round looked as iunocent as a lamb.

peived by a big house last night, and he pleased his audience thoroughly. Humbug is a farcical comedy written by Marsreplete with laughable situations. There

Jack Luster. A Humbug. Roland Reed Ned Ramsey. S. S. Bloch Jackson Luster. Fred Hight Albert Worth. Ed. B. Jack Dick Podds. Jos. Gobay Jacob Bartz. O. L. Jenkins & Servant. Jack Luster. A Humbug. Roland Reed
Ned Ramsey. S. S. Bloch
Jackson Luster. Fred Hight
Albest Worth. Ed. B. Jack
Dick Podds. J. Jenkins
Judge Shaw Jos. Gobay
Jacob Bartz. Chas. Patterson
Mrs. Arminda B. Ponsby. MissiAlice Hastings
Nettie Shaw. Miss Blanche Vaughan
Mrs. Judge Shaw. Miss Annie Mortimer

terkeley Street Methodist Church Y. P. A. The Young People's association of the Berkeley street methodist church held their first literary entertainment of the season first literary entertainment of the season last night. A code of rules was adopted and different committees appointed for the ensuing year. A short program was then gone through. A recitation entitled, The Arabs Farewell to his Steed, by J. H. Watt, was encored, as were also solos by the Misses Parr and Brecken. A. Winters in a mouth-organ solo ably spatianed his the Misses Parr and Brecken. A. Winters in a mouth-organ solo ably sustained his reputation as a thorough master of that instrument, as was evidenced by the hearty outbursts of applause on the part of the audience. The meeting was brought to a close by the doxology and pronouncing of the benediction by the pastor, Rev. J.

B. Lynch, the first vice-president, presided at the regular meeting of the Young men's liberal club held in their rooms in the Arcade building last night. The attendroughs attended with the intention of kicking up a row, but they were seen ejected.

Herr Rubinstein, when sired of his triumbal progress through Europe, retires to his phal progress through Europe, retires to his companied by his family, he prepares for the next tive. A vote was taken which resulted in favor of the negative.

The attendance of members was large. A debate on the subject "Resolved, that all tax exemptions be abolished," was held, in which a grown lead to the subject "Resolved, that all tax exemptions be abolished," was held, in which a good many took part. J. T. Brown lead to day's presidential election. The money to day's presidential election. The money tive. A vote was taken which resulted in favor of the negative.

THE "MISSING WITNESS"

According to the Guelph Mercury of Saturday, the "missing witness" in the up in the Royal city on Friday. This wit-ing worth $3.25 a yard be given to hearer.

The clerk suspected the order was forged, and told the boy to go back and ask if a smaller quantity would do. The telephone was put in use, and it was ascertained that the order was a forgery. When the boy returned and said to give him the amount in stock he was questioned as to where he was sent from. He said the man was waiting in Leader lane, and a constable was called, but when the trio reached the lane the man could not be seen.

Three Victories in Three Years. Æ. Irving, counsel for the prosecution, while addressing the jury in the case of Lizzie Smith, who was acquitted on a charge of child murder, paid E. Galbraith, who had been appointed counsel for the defence by the judge, a high compliment, simplicity. All that was necessary was to lift up the cushion part of the seat in the Pullman and deposit the contraband articles under it, then let down the cushion, and the bold smuggler resumed his seat, and when the customs officer came round looked as innocent as a lamb.

A Humbug at the Grand.

Roland Reed is a clever young man, he has a clever play in Humbug, and he carries a clever company with him. This cannot be said of every star. He was received by a big house last night, and he

Prof. J. Yorke Brown, the dancing mas ter who is to open his classes in the acaden. It contains a witty dialogue and is demy at the Grand, on Wednesday next, has already a number of classes throughout the city, and upon the arrival, on is no lag of humor in Humbug, and Roland is the boss Humbugger. If you don't believe this ask the manager of the Toronto electric light company. During the play Mr. Reed introduces several original songs. The engagement of the company last all week, with Thursday and Saturday matinees. To night the presidential election returns will be announced from the stage of the theatre. The cast of Humbug is as follows:

Jack Luster.... Humbug....Roland Reed out the city, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, of Prof. E. Riordan, from Boston, who is about to take up his residence in this city, will be able to arrange for a number more private classes. In the general classes for ladies and for gentlemen will begin this week; will begin on Saturday next, at 8 p.m. Circulars, cards of references, can be had by addressing, Academy, Grand opera to the city, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, at least of the city, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, at least of the city, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, and upon the arrival poston, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, and upon the arrival, on Tuesday next, and upon the arrival poston, and upon t

A small boy carrying a parcel of school books under his arm was stealing a ride on a Spadina avenue bob tailed car yesterday afternoon, and in his anxiety to watch the driver, fell off and narrowly escaped being run over by a passing wagon. As it was his left ankie was sprained and he limped away crying.

Gathering of the Parsens.

At the meeting of the Parsens.

At the meeting of the Toronto ministerial association yesterday Rev. R. N. Burns, B A, read an able paper on the "Intermediate state." The paper was followed by discussion, in which nearly all the members present took part. Rev. Robert Wallace occupied the chair.

Its Twentieth Anniversary.

The twentieth anniversary of the Toronce of the Toronce of Wales, during the regatta.

The Brussels Patriote says the king was attacked on Saturday with nervous disorder. Hishealth has been much shalen by anxiety arising from the political crisis.

At a recent meeting of the association for the advancement of women at Baltimore, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe was elected president for Canada.

Hugh Conway's real full name and age appear at last to have been made known at last to have been made kn

The twentieth anniversary of the Toronto Young Men's Christian association will be held at Shaftesbury hall this evening at 8 o'clock Hon. S. H. Blake, Rev. Dr. Vincent and F. Schiverea of Brooklyn

The Jubilee Concert.
Undoubtedly the concert which the Jubilee singers will give at the pavilion

PRICE ONE CENT.

DOINGS OF OUR DADDIES.

A NOVEMBER NIGHT'S SITTING OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The control of the brilling of the property of the control of the brilling of the control of were turned into wine paisces. He only remained a week, but was soon known all through the neighborhood as "Bob the Dandy." At the Coleman house and first-class restaurants the dinners he paid for were more than princely. He purchased watermelons and filled them with champagne Nothing in New York was too rich for him. If his party were only going a block it would be in cabs, and the jehus, sizing up their man, did not forget to charge him fancy prices. In fact his week's spree in New York cost over $1200, or $200 per day. The party with him did not know where he got his wealth, but suspected all was not right. One of Yarwood's stories was that his father had just died and left him the money.

The Belleville Bank Absconders A more careful examination of the books of the Belleville branch of the Merchanta, bank shows that the two absconding clerks had stolen over $12,000. The books of the branch were badly doctored and full of false entries.

Sareh Bernhardt has returned to Paris. Mdme. Patti has arrived at New York.

Jas. Sutherland, M.P., South Oxford, is at the Rossin.

The Empress Augusta is an ardent admirer of Carlyle.

Blaine likes to write, but he draws the line at autograph-hunters.

Lord Rosebery will shortly be offered a seat in the English cabinet.

A prominent member of the Tennessee bar A prominent member of the Tennessee bar was recently taken for a tramp.

Lord Lytton was the first man to introduce lace frills and canes into England. Thos. McCrosain, warden of the Penetanguishene reformatory is at the Rossin. shene reformatory is at the Rossin.

The illness of Sir Moses Monteflore is of a very grave nature. Queen Victoria yesterday telegraphed inquiring as to his condition.

M. Renan, in arguing, always admits that his adversary is right, and then proceeds to demoli h all the theories of his contestant.

William Chiller Rayant's memory was hon-

From the Regina Leader.

We had the pleasure of a call on Tuesday day last of Hugh J. Macdonald, barrister, day last of Hugh J. Macdonald, barrister, winnipeg, son of Canada's distinguished premier, who has been having a long cruise through various parts of the territories. He icor's much the better of his knocking about, being quite sunburned and stouter than when we last eaw him

More Rainy Weather'