The Weekly Review. The Weekly Review.

The Weekly Review.

The improvement in trade during the week has been more general, but the inclement weather has tended to minimize the volume of business. This influence has probably been felt more in the northern part of the province owing to the snow blockades. The same cause has contributed to make the circulation of money slow, but an allround improvement is looked for with finar Situation unchanged. There is a moderate demand chiefly for small lots. Prices steady an unchanged; supers 22/46 to 23/46, extra 27/46 to 286, black and No. 1 10c to 21c. Trade seasonably quiet. Linseed oil has advanced twice during the week, raw being quoted at 67c and boiled at 70c, 3c dearer. Demand for all kinds of paints light. Payment s are not satisfactory.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Trade is a trifle quieter owing to unfavorable weather. Business for immediate requirement is dull and that for spring has not fully opened up. The wages question is also a disturbing element. Payments slow. DRYGOODS.

DRYGOODS.

The bulk of the spring trade seems to be about over and business during the week has fallen off slightly. There has, however, been a fair amount doing. Good spring weather would no doubt give trade an impetus. Large quantities of dress goods, especially checks and fancy, are moving, and there is a fair enquiry for gloves, hosiery and underwear. Parasols are beginning to be enquired for and large quantities have been shipped during the last 'ew days. Payments fair and the outlook decidedly hopeful.

HARDWARE.

There has been no alteration in prices this week. The volume of trade has been visibly affected by the snow blockades in the north, travelers having been prevented from going over their routes and farmers from making trips into towns and villages. It is anticipated that in the course of a week there will be a visible improvement. Stocks are light and nigher prices are loosed for. Paymen's have been somewhat interfered with by the weather, but still there does not appear to be much cause for complaint.

The market is assuming a healthier tone, but still the demand is lighter than we are warranted in anticipating. The uncertainty in the sugar market materially affects that branch of the trade, buyers are only making from hand to mouth purchases. The tea trade is an oasis in the desert, there being a fair turnover at good profits. Canned goods market is healthy; the demand for the moment is light, but a good demand is anticipated for the future; stocks light Dried fruits dull, but prices steady, kyrups in moderate demand. Payments improving and prospects are considered good. GROCERIES.
