ROSBACH, the Peer of any Mineral Water in the World. ROSBACH & CO. COMMERCIAL NEWS. A good deal of strength is noted in Commerce and Merchants, which stocks are presumably wanted for investment.

Commercial Cable is stronger, there being some good buying yesterday. The selling price was 162 3/4 bid. Toronto Street Railway shares opened higher yesterday at 76 1/2, and after selling at 77, closed at 78 1/2 bid.

Stocks generally are lower on Wall-street. There is some liquidation by operators who bought lately in anticipation that gold exports had ended and that the market would be favorable. The outlook is very uncertain just now, selling stocks, which the British are doing as large. Congress, too, which will open in December, the trust stocks are being sold in view of future legislation, and it looks as if the market would be depressed.

Wheat in Chicago became very weak yesterday, the decline being attributed to heavy receipts, with rains in Illinois and Missouri. The weaker cables at close also helped to frighten holders. The situation is apparently not strong one. The local speculative element is bullish, and the country generally is well loaded. Heavy offerings of only moderate shipments has a depressing tendency.

Central Prison Investigation. Only one witness remains to be heard before the Central Prison investigation comes to a conclusion. This witness is to be examined. Persons are to be examined. Persons are to be examined. Persons are to be examined.

One by One We add new things—the restaurant will be ready—and, as other departments, it will tell the tale of how you've been used in this line. The restaurant man gives you as cheap tea—as poor butter—as poor bread and as little as possible as he can—but the John Eaton way of doing business will rule in the restaurant of course—the very best (our own special) and a pot of tea instead of a cup that you get elsewhere—more bread—a bigger and better piece of pie—the same meat that is making the whole town talk—perhaps on Saturday we may invite you—watch.

Matchless - Marvelous - Retailing We have been paying all attention to the Mantle Department—the selling was enormous—yesterday new management took hold of furniture and carpets—and here's the first way to make the people know it: Furniture. At $28.49—Solid Oak Bedroom Suites, French Dresser, 1 1/4 beveled British Mirror, 20x40, polished finish, worth $35.

Heroic, Unceasing Efforts Never have there been such clothing offerings. Here's hundreds upon hundreds of suits and overcoats for men and boys that appeal to the intelligence of the Bargain hunter. Such huge selling could not happen if the prices were not always right—but for tomorrow we rip up the prices still more. We are plunging ahead by leaps and bounds—beating our own past by double—and that means beating all others. Hear the music—it's sweet strains ring in the ears of all clothing buyers—come and join the crowds, if only to see a busy store to-morrow.
