OFFICE SAYS HE ISN'T WANTED No Effort Will Be Spared to As Colleagues Oppose Everything He Tries to Do

ST. THOMAS, July 29.-(By Staf

said the chief reason for his resigna-tion was that the Council refused to support him in the matter of the pur-chase of a truck for the fire depart-

The resignation came as a comsurprise after the mayor had bre of the history of the city, and numerous sketches by other local and outside men.

Considerable valuable information about the City of Flowers is contained in the program, and some views of the Horticultural Society's work that show beyond any words what has given the city its name. A reproduction of the London & Port Stanley depot at Talbot street and the beautification work is also interesting.

To be held.

No word was sent by the agent and Ald. Hill said it appeared to him that the agent of the cheaper truck feared to place it in competition with the other. The mayor then declared that Ald. Hill was out of order and this view was shared by other members of the Council. Ald. Hill then produced his resignation and insisted upon its acceptance.

Ald. Hill also objected to the Council.
