

Watford Guide-Advocate

Volume XLVIII—No. 17

WATFORD, ONT., FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1922

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
In United States $2.50

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

No change in Watford markets. For used cars see R. Morningstar, Watford, 14a-6t.

Two ranges of Print Bungalow Dresses 79c and 98c at Swift's. A new telephone directory is out this week.

Get your lawn mower sharpened and oiled up. It will soon be a case of "Get into the garden, William."

Holeproof Hosiery at Swift's, $1.75 the pair.

Wednesday next the summer weekly half holiday commences. Yes, it is time to paint up—this applies to buildings, not faces.

Bread has gone up two cents a loaf. Hard lines for a man with a big family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Phillips and two sons, Port Huron, spent the week-end at Col. Kenward's.

Suits with snap and style at Swift's—made-to-order, Art Tailored.

The art of listening in on radio is a simple exercise for those who have had experience with rural party lines.

The Synod of Huron is in session at London this week. Rev. S. P. Irwin and Dr. Jas. Newell are in attendance.

Colonel Race, of Mitchell, was in town this week making his yearly visit in connection with the Gravenhurst Sanitarium.

W. B. Laws' poetry published last week the third line of the tenth verse should read: "What great creations can be wrought."

Pool room owners are now liable under an act passed last year, for a provincial tax of $30 a table in addition to the license paid the municipality in which they reside.

Do your wall-papering now while the stock is complete. We have all the latest designs of wall and ceiling paper. Let us show you—P. Dadds & Son, 17m-4t.

The main street pavement got a thorough washing by means of the fire hose on Monday. Plenty of water for such purposes now that we have waterworks.

Rev. Wilber R. Williamson and wife arrived from the Mission field in South China last week and is now at the home of his father recruiting his health.

Mary had a little match. And scratched his head to see if she could find the gasoline. She did—but where's Marie?

Salvation Army officers and soldiers from Strathroy made a canvass of Watford and vicinity last week in connection with their annual self-denial campaign. They met with fair success.

A Suit or Spring Coat, Art tailored—They are right—Swifts.

The Income Tax mail is said to be very heavy at the office in London this week. Has your report been sent in? Remember you are liable to a fine if you neglect sending it.

There are already a few cases in town. If you feel dull and heavy these warm bright days depend upon it you have what is known as spring fever. A couple of days fishing is the best cure.

There will be no wage reduction for the regular C.T.R. section men, and the gangs will be increased on May 1st. The extra summer gangs will be paid 25c an hour and will be employed laying new rails.

20 dozen Lisle Hose, regular half dollar quality, sale price 25c. Swifts. He spent his health to get his wealth. And then with might and main, He turned around and spent his wealth.

To get his health again. White shoes will be more popular this summer than in bygone summers. From every section comes reports of a steady, healthy growing—call for "whites." Not so long ago, white footwear was regarded more as a luxury for the rich.

Have we to state for the 1001st time that items of news sent by mail must be accompanied by the writer's name or they will not be published. Sending a note signed "A Reader" will not secure publication. We must know who "A Reader" is.

10 only Ladies' Serge Dresses, in brown, navy, black. Sale price $9.75 regular $12.00—Swift's.

Several Public Library Boards hold a yearly "Return Book Week" which is working well. Why not try it in Watford. The plan is to give every person who has a library book out over the expired time a chance to return it without a fine or annoying questions.

Kant Krease Kollars—the new soft collar that will not crease, at Swift's. The Board of Education has purchased a mimeograph for use of the High School.

Mrs. Kincaid will hold an auction sale of household furniture on Saturday, May 6th. See bills.

William Styles has purchased from Mrs. Ben Doan, lot 206 Ontario st., and has since sold the buildings thereon.

Colonel Race gave a very interesting travel talk to the students of the High and Public Schools on Wednesday afternoon.

The new patterns in wall-paper are very attractive. Would be pleased to show them, whether you desire to paper or not. Prices are reasonable.—P. Dadds & Son, 17m-4t.

The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. D. Maxwell on Thursday afternoon, May 4th. This will be the annual meeting and election of officers.

Arrangements have been made to have Cornelius Pearce engaged daily to keep the main street pavement clean. The money necessary to pay for this work will be raised by a small amount being paid weekly by each property holder, which Mr. Pearce will collect every Saturday.

A ten-cent postage stamp, printed in blue, will be issued soon, the department announces, and issued in filling of future requisition by post-masters. Attention is called to the fact that the imperial rate of postage applies to letters posted in Canada.

The Hydro Commission's auditor's report of the Watford System for 1921 is to hand and shows a net surplus after deducting operating expenses and depreciation of $1539.26. There is still about $900 owing the Commission by this municipality, part of which will probably be paid off this year. This is a very satisfactory showing.

The Sewing Class under the auspices of the Women's Institute will commence Monday, May 1st, at 2.30 in the Armory. Each pupil must supply the following: Note book, one 12 inch ruler; one spool white cotton No. 40; needles No. 7 long; pins, scissors and thimble, number in class 15. The fees for the 10 lessons is $2.50 for non-members and $2.25 for members of Institute.—Sec'y.

Boys' smart all-wool Tweed Suits in 4 styles and shadings, $6.75 to $12.00. Great value. Size 27 to 35.—Swift's.

A delightful surprise was given Mrs. Kincaid, Erie street, on Tuesday evening of this week when thirty members of the Women's Institute and friends invaded her home to spend an evening with her before she leaves Watford. Mrs. Kincaid was given two beautiful bouquets, one of them being in the Institute colors of purple and gold. Mrs. Kinnell read an address and Mrs. McKercher, President, and several others spoke of the regret the Institute feels at losing an energetic and agreeable member. Music, readings, charades etc., followed by luncheon filled the rest of this pleasant evening.

The woollen markets are open to everybody. There are plenty of good styles from which to choose, but not everybody can make the kind of clothes that will stay right. Permanence of style, ability to give long wear, are matters of inner goodness, thoroughness such as only a skilled organization can give. Quality cloths and expert tailors.—Swift's Clothing to order.

Trinity church congregation observed the ninth anniversary of the opening of their new church on Sunday last. Rev. D. W. Collins of Windsor was the special preacher. There was a Litany service in the morning and full Evensong at night. Mr. Collins preached two powerful sermons taking for his text in the morning Christ's question to the Apostles "Whom do men say that I am," (Matt 16:13) and in the evening from the disciples question to Jesus: "Why could not we cast him out," (Matt 17:13). There was a very large congregation at the evening service and all present were deeply interested in the speaker's words and carried home with them many new thoughts or had old ones impressed upon their minds in an telling manner. The choir repeated the Easter anthem "He is Risen," and Mr. W. G. Connolly sang a solo "The Lord is My Shepherd," during the offertory.

Will you do us a special favor? Pay your bill by May 4th. We need the money.—Swift, Sons & Co.

For the last time this year the attention of the public is directed to the fact that return of income tax for the year ended December 31st, 1921, must be delivered to the Inspector of Taxation on or before Monday next, April 30th. All individuals in receipt of an income, whether derived from salary, wages or return on investments whose gross does not fall within the statutory exemptions, are affected, and should take immediate steps to carry out the requirements of the law and thus avoid the penalties that are imposed for the neglect of this duty.

At a meeting of the Watford Cemetery Board held on Monday evening, April 24th, Mr. E. A. Brown was re-elected chairman and Mrs. F. H. Rogers secretary-treasurer. Members of the Board for this year are: Mrs. J. Hawes, Mrs. J. D. Brown, Mrs. H. Humphries, Mrs. T. A. Adams, Mrs. F. Pritchett, Mrs. F. H. Rogers, Mr. E. A. Brown, W. G. Connolly and W. Harper. The ladies are a committee to arrange flower beds, etc. The large beds of perennials planted last year were reported to be growing and should make a beautiful showing this year. Mr. E. A. Brown and W. G. Connolly were appointed a committee to secure caretaker and get prices on wire fencing also on gates for the cemetery. The financial statement, also the letter being sent out by the Board, will appear next week.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

At a meeting of the Watford Cemetery Board held on Monday evening, April 24th, Mr. E. A. Brown was re-elected chairman and Mrs. F. H. Rogers secretary-treasurer. Members of the Board for this year are: Mrs. J. Hawes, Mrs. J. D. Brown, Mrs. H. Humphries, Mrs. T. A. Adams, Mrs. F. Pritchett, Mrs. F. H. Rogers, Mr. E. A. Brown, W. G. Connolly and W. Harper. The ladies are a committee to arrange flower beds, etc. The large beds of perennials planted last year were reported to be growing and should make a beautiful showing this year. Mr. E. A. Brown and W. G. Connolly were appointed a committee to secure caretaker and get prices on wire fencing also on gates for the cemetery. The financial statement, also the letter being sent out by the Board, will appear next week.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

Much of the repair work so badly needed has been finished but there are still many improvements to be made so we bespeak for the Board the same generous support they have met with in the past.

BROOKE

Mr. John R. Pollock has sold his farm lot 24, con. 13, to Wm. Bowie and will have a clearing sale on May 4th. He intends moving to Strathroy. Men's shirt sale at Swift's. Size 14 to 17 1/2, values $2.00 to $2.50. Our Spring Shirt Sale Price on all lines $1.59.—Swift, Sons & Co.

Miss Lucy Pollock of Forest, spent the Easter holidays with her aunt, Mrs. John Wm. Bryce and her cousin, Mrs. L. Coristine of Satorville.

Mrs. Ellen Coristine has moved from Enniskillen back to her old home in Brooke, on the 12th con.

Mr. John W. Lucas passed away on Tuesday last at the home of his brother-in-law, George Ross, lot 16, con. 9, aged 68 years, 3 months and 7 days. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at Alvinston cemetery.

WARWICK

Mrs. D. D. Campbell and daughters Marion and Lillian, Glencoe, spent the Easter holidays at Mrs. Campbell's former home in Warwick.

Mr. Geo. M. Ross, Leamington, visited relatives here this week.

On Thursday evening, April 13th, the Warwick W. L. held their regular meeting in the Town Hall. The meeting opened in the usual way after which minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Roll call was answered by an Easter greeting, after which correspondence was read.

The presentation of the National Anthem. The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, May 11. All members are requested to be present as this will be the Annual meeting.

The Junior Scouts held their regular meeting at the Rectory, Warwick Village, on Friday evening, April 21, 1922. Meeting opened by prayer followed by a hymn. The roll call was answered by a verse from Matthew, 5th chapter, 8th verse, and their motto. Moved by Harold Barnes, seconded by Victor Atchinson, that we send $2.50 to some boy in Bishop White's school; Chimes—Carried. The Scouts were visited by Major Franklin, of Elarton, who gave some interesting points of the Scouts meeting. Closed by hymn and benediction by Rev. Mr. Shore.

CHOP STUFF

Glencoe baseball players have organized with P. E. Lumley manager and W. A. Haggarty, secretary, chairman.

The presentation of a mounted deer was made to the Glencoe High School last week by Alfred Aldred.

A man in Colchester township is wearing an otter cap which is 65 years old which was handed down to him by his father. No wonder some men get rich.

Work on the new Tuberculosis sanitarium has been commenced. This is to replace the building burned down about two years ago at Union-on-the-Lake.

John J. Dehan, railway mail clerk running between London and Sarnia, died suddenly of heart failure on Saturday last at his home in London. He was on his run on Friday last.

Tuesday last week at Chas. Cox's home, Kingsville, a small dish of hot water blew over and struck the little 2-year-old child, scalding both legs badly, from knee to the ankle.

Owing to the heavy sleet storm the United Telephone Company of Ilderton will probably not rebuild its line. The company suffered a loss of $10,000, and has been so hard hit that it may not recover.

At the Synod of Huron meeting this week the congregation of the Anglican church at Sombra was granted the sum of $200 to help repair the church building which was greatly damaged in a recent wind-storm.

There are only five men in Sarnia doing business today who were doing business in Sarnia fifty years ago, J. F. Elliott, Colonel C. S. Ellis, James McLangan, customs officer William Williams of the Gas office and Robert Glynn.

D. A. Campbell is the newly appointed principal of the new Sarnia Collegiate Institute. Mr. Campbell will have charge of the equipment and furnishing of the new structure and will assume complete charge after the summer holidays.

On Thursday, while standing on a stepladder papering, Mrs. Samuel Brown, Wardsville, fell and broke her hip. Her husband nine years ago while attending his bees fell from a ladder and broke his hip, from which he has never fully recovered.

Russell McAlpine, who sold out his garage at Alvinston, has purchased one in Wardsville.

The township of Euphemia has issued a court writ through Ivey, Elliott & Ivey against the Bothwell Urban and Rural Telephone Co., Ltd., for $256, being the amount of taxes levied on the township of Euphemia for the year ending December 31st 1921.

Robbers broke open a huge liquor vault owned by a farmer of Gosfield South and stole liquor valued at $6,000. The vault was opened by means of an acetylene torch, and a watch dog left to protect the premises during the absence of the family was chloroformed.

The St. Catharines Standard is demanding a Commission to investigate the costs of the roads that Biggs built. The extravagant costs of these roads are alarming the Province, and an investigation into where the money has gone would be welcome to the majority of the people.

Evidently when some persons got the radio craze they lost both common sense and good judgement. It has been ascertained by an inspection of the fire alarm wiring in Amherstburg that radio bugs have stripped the wire between four poles in Ward 3 in order to provide themselves with aerials.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shannon of Petrolia; Mrs. and Mrs. David Shannon, Uttoxeter; Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon; and family and Miss Mae Rankin of Forest; and Mr. and Mrs. George Hill and family of Warwick, spent an enjoyable Easter at the home of their sister and friends, Mr. and Mrs. James Rankin, 8th con., of Plympton.

About forty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shepherd, 14 con., Bosanquet, on Friday evening to spend a sociable time with Earl and Allen Dew, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dew, before their departure for their new home which they have recently purchased in Plympton. During the evening a presentation was made, each of the boys receiving a fountain pen. Miss Eunice Mason read an appropriate address and the presentation was made by Ralph Stutt.

An enthusiastic gathering of Liberals paid tribute to Senator F. F. Pardee at a banquet held at the city hall Sarnia on Thursday night, when 200 Liberals of the constituency met to pay recognition to the senator's public work. Speeches of a felicitous nature were made by Senator McCole of Chatham; Allen McQueen of Toronto; Silas Miller of Moore; Thos Marshall, M.P.P. for Lincoln; and Senator Pardee. J. R. Donohue, president of the West Lambton Young Liberals' Club, who organized the event, acted as chairman.

Grand Trunk freight service will be increased by 12 trains, which will operate each week, commencing May 1, is announced by divisional officers. These trains will be operated between Sarnia and Hamilton to convey the ore which is navigated to Point Edward by the lake freighters. The additional trains will be in charge of Sarnia crews and the additional freight service will increase the freight business considerably.

Death came in tragic fashion to-night to Furlow Coates, a farmer residing on the outskirts of Mount Brydges. Shortly after 5 o'clock he was kicked by a horse and death relieved him of his sufferings an hour later. Mr. Coates had returned from seeding and was putting his team in the barn. One of the horses refused to go and Mr. Coates pulled on the reins. At once the horse kicked viciously at him, striking him in the side, breaking five ribs and throwing him against a cement wall where he fractured the base of his skull. Dr. Pardy was called at once and rendered treatment, but without avail.

On Monday of last week, Howard Gardner of Walkerville, who is erecting a house on the hill opposite the Brown and Wigle Woolen Mills site, at Kingsville, was building a bridge to his place just west of the W.E. & L.S. tracks. He had some steel rods which were being used to reinforce some concrete work. He had raised one of these rods, intending to place it in position and bend it to its place, when the wind caught it, causing it to strike the high tension wire on the W.E. & L.S. transmission line. The miracle is, Mr. Gardner was not instantly killed. As it was, he was burned on hands and quite badly on his feet, but will come around all right in a short time. He was taken to his home where he is now convalescing.

Boys
QUARTERS SEASON
R AND AT NG OF GO
WORSTEDS H SERGES rments for n and boys men & boys
BOYS $32.00
abardines patterns or fancy ed shape-y popular w
AR
RE
Co.
W.W.N.

so invitingly at it seemed me!"?
It comes in ints. Sheets epondence ony Lawn?
REN
TATE
e"
ED. $7-00
in keeping with a Raw Sugar
.....50c
ER.....50c
OLISH.....25c
.....25c
AX.....90c
FEN LOWER
subscription stand?
29
son, Petrolia regular post os for $2.00
lock, Petrolia