WHOSE ARE THESE MILLIONS?

The Pullman Palace Car company finds itself in a queer dilemma. It is embarrassed with a surplus of $26,000,000 which it dare not distribute because it fears the act will invite hostile legislation. During the past eight years, the Pullman company paid dividends equal to 130 per cent. of its capital stock, and has increased its holdings largely besides. Now it has so much money that it does not know what to do with it.

Its enormous earnings were made possible by the exorbitant rates the company charges for accommodations in its cars, aided by its policy of keeping the wages of its employees screwed down to the lowest notch so that the public may feel that it has to make them up in "tips." In addition, it has fixed prices for food so cars cannot be obtained for less than high hat square meals in its dining room, except in the very few instances that a meal is served at the old price of $1. These are the reasons the Pullman people have piled up $26,000,000 which they are afraid to distribute. In all ways out of the dilemma that have been proposed it is significant that there is not one which even suggests that these heavy charges be cut down or that the wages of its employees be raised. What the traveling public will have to say about such a state of affairs when it becomes generally known will not look nice in print. The whole matter illustrates the phase of corporation life so prominently forced to the front by recent political events, that the motto of all combines is "Keep what you get and get what you can."

HYMENEAU.

PORTER-THOMAS.

The marriage of Dr. C. Allan Porter son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Porter, and of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thomas, Miss Isabelle Morton Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thomas, was solemnized at the bride's home on Centre street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, by Rev. E. E. Williams of Randolph, formerly pastor of the Central Baptist church, the divine service being read.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of greenery, in a recess trimmed with evergreens, plants and autumn leaves. The other rooms were decorated with the same effect. The best man was Herbert L. Thomas, brother of the bride, and Miss Alice Porter, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. The ushers were Ernest V. Thomas, Ingram Porter and Eugene L. Dunham, of Middleboro, and Charles B. Jenney, of New Bedford. Mrs. George L. Thomas played the wedding march. The bride wore white China silk with ribbon and lace trimmings and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore white mulle with a blue silk sash. A reception was held from 3 until 4, the couple being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Porter. Guests were present from Taunton, New Bedford, Milton, Boston, Rockland, Brockton and Randolph. Refreshments were served by Pastor & Klar, in charge of Miss Flora Porter, of Middleboro, Father Chubbuck, of Randolph, and Mildred Jenney, of New Bedford. The couple left on the afternoon train for a trip to Maine, and on their return will reside on Centre street. They will be at home after Nov. 19th.

Dr. Porter was graduated from the High school in 1898, and from Baltimore Dental College in 1902, and is now practicing successfully at Rockland. Miss Thomas was graduated from the High school in 1902. The couple received many presents, including cut glass, china, linen, silverware and furniture.—Middleboro, Mass., Gazette.

HOPKINS-PIGGOTT.

A number of friends and relatives gathered on Wednesday morning, Nov. 7th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Piggott to witness the marriage of their daughter Arvilla Hortense to Milford T. Hopkins. Mendessou's wedding match was played at the conclusion of the ceremony, performed by Rev. Mr. Langille. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins received the good wishes of their friends under a bridal arch of hemlock, the bride looking her best in a smart suit of navy blue with a pretty little hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was one hundred dollars, and that of her parents was also a very substantial sum of money. A large number of other extremely pretty and useful presents were received. After a very enjoyable luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins accompanied by some of the wedding guests drove to Bridgetown, and were showered with rice, as they boarded the noon express for a trip to Boston and New York.

OBITUARY.

MRS. G. W. GREENE.

Mrs. G. W. Greene, of Brickton, passed peacefully away at an early hour last Sabbath morning after six weeks of intense suffering which she bore without a murmur, realizing from day to day that Jesus was ever near. The funeral which took place on Wednesday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. W. M. Brown, who spoke very highly of the departed sister. He was assisted by Revs. Jos. Gassie and M. W. Brown. Mrs. Greene leaves a husband, eight sons and three daughters to mourn the sad loss of a devoted wife and kind and loving mother. The interment took place at Pine Grove cemetery. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved in their sad hours of affliction.

One of life's pathetic tragedies, an incident in the train of human events where joy and grief are strangely blended, is told with the death today of Rev. Lewis Morris Wilkins, rector of the Episcopal Church at Cullen, Berkimer county, Rev. Mr. Wilkins suffered a stroke of apoplexy yesterday afternoon while on an electric car in this city, and his life went out at St. Luke's Hospital as an early hour this morning.

But a little time before he was stricken with approaching death Rev. Mr. Wilkins had greeted his daughter on her bridal trip—a daughter whom he had not seen in three years. Her happiness over the reunion turned to deepest grief, the daughter remained with the father during the last hours of his life, and his life went out at St. Luke's Hospital as an early hour this morning.

Rev. Mr. Wilkins and Mrs. Wilkins left their home yesterday for this city to meet their daughter and her husband, F. K. Ferguson, of Fiction, Nova Scotia. The daughter had left the family home, at Chico, Cal., to follow her profession as a nurse and became superintendent of a hospital at Los Angeles before coming to the East and Nova Scotia. In that place she was married on Oct. 25th last to Mr. Ferguson, and they were on their bridal tour when they came to this city.

Rev. Mr. Wilkins and Mrs. Wilkins came from California last July and took up their residence at Cullen, a small town near Richfield Springs. They looked forward happily to the meeting with their daughter and her husband, and Mr. Wilkins was so what excited as the time for the reunion drew near. He seemed to be in his usual good health yesterday morning, however, and no thought of the approaching tragedy was present in his mind as he started for Utica. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins met their daughter and Mr. Ferguson at the Central-Hudson depot, and within half an hour had started for home on an electric car.

Mr. Wilkins was chatting gladly with his daughter when the stroke came. The car was stopped near No. 6 Engine House and Mr. Wilkins was taken inside, where he was attended by Dr. R. L. Baker. Dr. Baker directed that he be taken to a hospital and held out little hope for recovery. Mr. Wilkins failed steadily during the evening and death came just before dawn.

Mrs. Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson left on an early train for Cullen, the daughter to comfort the mother, who had looked forward so happily to the visit. Rev. Mr. Wilkins was known in this diocese of the Episcopal Church. His charge is located in the Albany diocese, and because he was a recent comer none of the clergy of Utica had gained his acquaintance. He was 67 years old and an earnest worker for the advancement of religious thought. Besides the wife and daughter who were with him when he died, Mr. Wilkins has a son in California and another son in Chicago.—Utica Observer, Nov. 3.

Another Suggestion

To the Editor of the Monitor.
Sir,—Following up the suggestions made in your columns with regard to making the town more attractive, I should like to suggest a swimming bath as a means of healthy recreation, and of great utility to the youth of this sea bound province, from which so many take up employment calling them to undergo the perils of the sea. We hear a great deal about manual training now-a-days, but the art of self-preservation in the water seems to be of first importance, and in all the large public schools of the mother country is part of the school curriculum. Trusting this may seem to you worthy of consideration as a suggestion for the popularization of the town.

Yours for the public weal,
A. OWEN PRICE.
