

Decoration Day.

Then honor and love and tears we bring
To each grave of our patriot dead,
To the soldier who hearken'd to duty's voice,
To the great strong heart that led:
We shower o'er each breast long, long at rest,
In rainbow blossom and hue,
The flowers of our heart, the flowers of our home,—
God bless the brave and the true!

Duluth, Minn.

