

The Missionary Review of the World for December is out with its usual quota of valuable articles for and about the missionary fields of the world. It has able contributions and articles upon the following subjects: The True Forward Movement, or a Higher Standard of Consecration; The Place of Schools in Mission Work; The American Mission in Egypt; The Industrial Home for Boys; The Gospel among the Jews; The Forerunners of Carey, Part II.; The Status of Moslem Women According to the Teaching of the Qur'an; A Moslem Back-Fire; Attitude of the Educated Classes of India toward Christianity; Slavery by Contract; and Prayer League for Native Workers in China; together with extracts and translations from foreign periodicals, editorial notes and general missionary intelligence from all parts of the world. Funk & Wagnalls Company, Publishers, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York.

The Magazine of Christian Literature: The Christian Literature Co., New York.

The November number of this useful periodical continues the articles of Archdeacon Farrar on the great Philanthropies, which is embellished by numerous engravings, as is also the continuation of "Cloister Life in the days of Cœur de Lion." "The Teaching of our Lord as to the authority of the Old Testament," by Dr. Ellicott, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, is also continued. Articles on "The Policy of the Pope," "Native Agents and their Training," "The Sovereignty of God in Predestination," and many others of great interest to the Christian public, as well as to the Christian scholar, are to be found in it, making altogether an attractive number.

The Pulpit: Edwin Rose, Buffalo, N.Y., contains, as usual, several eloquent and suggestive sermons by eminent divines.

The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass. This excellent weekly, well printed and beautifully illustrated, gives promise of keeping up to its usually high standard by a very brilliant announcement of articles and authors for 1892. It is always of a good moral tone and gives wholesome reading for young people of all sizes and capacity.

Germania: A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance for students of that tongue.

The Churchman: New York; M. H. Mallory & Co. 47 Lafayette Place, New York. A weekly Church paper, well known as one of the best Church periodicals published.

Newbery House Magazine: Griffiths, Farren, Okeden & Welsh, London, England. This magazine comes every month as a welcome visitor. Its articles are usually on themes of interest to Churchmen, but frequently are of a general nature, instructive for all. Numerous illustrations from time to time are found in it.
