

Remarks. = I. This number is a reproduction in shorthand of Sullivan's Dominion Catholic first reader, part I, which is a printed key to the above lessons. The Indians, who can already read the shorthand as it is written in this number, will through it learn to read and write the English text of the corresponding lesson in the printed book.

II. All this number is phonography in full. Not even the signs an in on un have been used, although they may be considered as part of the Alphabet for the reason mentioned above.

A proper explanation of these signs will be given in the Seventh number of this series.
