N. McRAE, Wyebridge, writes: "I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, etc., and for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is a sure cure for burns, wounds, and bruises." Mrs. O'HEARN, River street, Toronto, uses Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for her cows for Croup and Sore Teats; she thinks there is nothing like it. She also used it when her horses had the colic with the very best results. Do not be deceived by any other Oil in place of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil

CONSUMPTION is a disease contracted by a neglected cold—how necessary then that we should at once get the best cure for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. The most popular remedies for these complaints are Scott's Emulsion and Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. Mr. J. F. Smith, Druggist, Dunville, writes: "It gives general satisfaction and sells splendidly."

FOR THE KIDNEYS, LIVER & URINARY ORGANS THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER. There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day declare that every disease is caused by deranged kidneys and liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured. Here is where WARNER'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver, and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good. For Diabetes ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. For sale by all dealers.

Words of the Wise.

IT is easy to see, hard to foresee.—Franklin. ONE cannot always be a hero, but one can always be a man.—Gotha. NO man was ever so much deceived by another, as by himself.—Lord Greville. THERE is a brotherhood of error as close as the brotherhood of truth.—Argyll. GENIUS, at first, is little more than a great capacity for receiving discipline.—George Eliot. MY soul is full of whispered song, My blindness is my sight; The shadows that I feared so long Are all alive with light. The while my pulses faintly beat, My faith doth so abound, I feel grow firm beneath my feet, The green, immortal ground. —Alice Cary.

If there is any person whom you dislike, that is the very person of whom you ought never to speak.—Cecil. HE that hath tasted of the bitterness of sin will fear to commit it; and he that hath felt the sweetness of mercy will fear to offend it.—Charnock. KIND looks, kind words, kind acts, and warm handshakes, these are secondary means of grace when men are in trouble, and are fighting their unseen battles.—Dr. Hall. AS a transparency on some night of public rejoicing, seen by common day, with the lamps from within removed, even such would the Psalms be to me, uninterpreted by the Gospel.—S. T. Coleridge. IN studying the Word of God, digest it under these two heads; either as removing some obstructions that keep God and thee asunder, or as supplying some uniting power to bring God and thee together.—Cecil. REST, and be silent! For, faithfully listening, Patiently waiting, thine eyes shall behold Pearls in the waters of quietness glistening, Treasures of promise that He shall unfold. Rest, and be silent! for Jesus is here, Calming and stilling each ripple of fear. —F. R. Havergal.

THERE is evil enough in man, God knows! But it is not the mission of every young man and woman to detail and report it all. Keep the atmosphere as pure as possible, and fragrant with gentleness and charity.—Dr. Hall. USAGES, diversions, styles of dress and undress have crept into reputable society which owe their fascination to the stimulus they subtly supply to the lower and more dangerous appetites. Why should you allow your sons and daughters at an evening party what would shock and alarm you if you saw it anywhere else? Does immodesty become modest by simply going into company?—Bishop Huntington.

MORALITY is the body, of which the faith in Christ is the soul—so far, indeed, its earthly body, as it is adapted to its state of warfare on the earth, and the appointed form and instrument of its communion with the present world; yet not terrestrial, nor of the world, but a celestial body, and capable of being transfigured from glory to glory, in accordance with the varying circumstances and outward relations of its moving and informing spirit.—Coleridge.

RUSKIN says truly: "We want one man to be always thinking and another to be always working, and we call one a gentleman and the other an operator; whereas, the workman ought often to be thinking and the thinker often to be working, and both should be gentlemen in the best sense. The mass of society is made up of morbid thinkers and miserable workers. It is only by labour that thought can be made healthy, and only by thought that labour can be made happy, and the two cannot be separated with impunity."

If you stand a quarter of a mile off from your father you will be sorely puzzled to know what he says or what he means; but if you go within five feet of him everything will be plain. So, my Christian brother, if you stand off and away from God, your Heavenly Father, in the midst of earthly absorptions, you will undoubtedly be much at a loss to know what is His will; but if you live near to Him, walking with God (as the Scripture expression so significantly gives it), you will have no difficulty of this sort.—Howard Crosby.

"BECAME SOUND AND WELL." R. V. PIERCE, M.D. Dear Sir,—My son had been ill for over two years, and had tried other medicines, became sound and well by your "Favourite Prescription." My name is cured by its use, after several physicians had failed to do her any good. Yours truly, THOMAS J. METHVIN, Hatcher's Station, Ga.
