

NEWS has come to us from time to time of Rev. J. W. McLennan B. D., ('86) since his departure for the west to recruit his failing health. He is much improved and is now recovering some of the unoccupied western fields in the U. S. for Christ and Presbyterianism.

REV. W. L. MACRAE, '86, visited the hall before his return to Trinidad. He has been very busy during his furlough, and we feel sure his work will produce practical results in the many congregations, where by word and picture he has made our work in Trinidad better known. We wish him renewed success as he resumes his labours.

THE latest adventure in high school journalism is The Academy Annual, published by the students of the Halifax Academy. The paper is neat in appearance, and filled with interesting reading. We congratulate those young journalists on their success, and if true to their motto, discimus facere faciendo, we will hope even for better in their next.

THE Junior Class, although the smallest in college, possesses a unique feature which is worthy of note. Of the eight members of the class five have offered themselves for service in the Foreign field. The majority of the five, we understand, are looking forward to assist in carrying on the noble work begun by the brave McKenzie in Corea.

SINCE our last issue the following clergymen visited us at the Hall:—Rev. D. Henderson, Blue Mountain; Rev. J. A. Forbes, Glace Bay; Rev. D. McDonald, Strathlorne; Rev. P. M. McDonald, Wolfville; Rev. J. P. Falconer, Bedford; Rev. G. E. Ross, N. W. Arm; Rev. J. F. Polley, Little River; Rev. David Wright, Springhill; Rev. Henry Dickie, Windsor; Rev. J. A. Falconer, Truro; Rev. C. MacKinnon, Stewiacke; and Rev. A. S. Morton.

THE graduating class which, at present, numbers fourteen, is the largest in the history of the college. This fact is surely an indication of the growth and popularity of our college by the sea. The following are the names of the graduates:—Ralph G. Strathie, D. A. Frame, G. F. Johnson, W. W. McNairn, A. D. Archibald, Edwin Smith, Robt. Murray, E. W. Johnson, John McIntosh, L. H. McLean, A. L. Fraser, C. D. McIntosh, A. H. Foster, Arch. Williamson.
