This concluded one of the most successful tournaments ever held in Canada. Every satisfaction was given. There was not one word of dispute. The prizes were very equally distributed, and every one went home well pleased in the way in which it was conducted. Captain Parnell, of the Sedentary Militia, had a large tent, in which an excellent dinner was obtained for 25c every day. Captain M. D. Dawson and Private Thomas Wastie, obtained the highest number of points in matches 1, 4 and 6, both scoring 88 points, but the former missing one shot. The prize of $10 for the best score fell into the hands of the latter. Sergeant Coombs, also of the 7th Battalion, came next, making a total of 87.

Before concluding, Mr. Editor, allow us to state, that the D. A. A. G., Lieut. Col. J. B. Taylor had the master cook of one of the Regiments stationed here, and erected a camp cooking arrangement after the most approved style. It is a most complete thing, and the Volunteers present had an opportunity of learning something of which they had been previously entirely ignorant. It is a simple and great improvement on the old style, not requiring quarter the amount of wood or trouble, and most essential to the comfort of Volunteers under canvas.

Yours respectfully, A VOLUNTEER.
