

now reached its fourth edition and has been made as perfect as careful revision can make it. The author is to be greatly congratulated upon the results of labor and devotion to this branch of ophthalmology. The publishers have produced a very attractive volume.

THE INTERVERTEBRAL FORAMINA IN MAN.

The Morphology of the Intervertebral Foramina in Man, including a description of their contents and adjacent parts, with special reference to the nervous structures. Supplement to "The Intervertebral Foramen." By Harold Swanberg, member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. An introduction by Prof. Harris E. Santee. Illustrated by 11 original full-page plates. Chicago Scientific Publishing Co., 221 South Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill., 1915. Price, $1.75.

This is a valuable original contribution to the study of the intervertebral foramina, their morphology, the contents and their function. We can recommend this book to all who wish a clear account of this portion of the anatomy.

RELIGIO MEDICI MODERN.

Being the Beliefs and Opinions of an old Medicine Man. By Neo Kama, M.D., London: John Bale, Sons and Danielsson, 83-91 Great Titchfield Street, Oxford Street, W., 1915. Price, 2 shillings 6 pence net.

This is a delightful little book. It is full of fine thoughts and wise sayings. The author says: "If the Creed of Humanity substitutes Humanity alone for God, leaving all other manifestations of life outside, it is a one-sided affair and unworthy of the name of religion." This gives the key to the position taken in the book. This position is cleared up by much sound teaching and wide observation. The book is worthy of a careful reading.

INTERNATIONAL CLINICS.

A Quarterly of Illustrated Clinical Lectures and Especially Prepared Articles on Treatment, Medicine, Surgery, Neurology, Paediatrics, Obstetrics, Gynaecology, Orthopaedics, Pathology, Dermatology, Laryngology, Hygiene, and Other Topics of Interest to Students and Practitioners.
