

MARRIED.

On Tuesday the 25th ultimo, at St. Paul's Church, Newmarket, by the Rev. S. Ramsey, M.A., Mr. William Graham, Georgina, to Sarah Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. D. B. Robertson, Surgeon Dentist, Georgina.

DIED.

On the 26th ult., of gradual decline, Agnes Margaret, daughter of the Reverend Samuel Armour, Rector of Cavan, aged 26 years and 10 months.

Endeared to all who knew her, by the kindness and affection of her disposition, her short but peaceful life was passed in the calm and quiet exercise of domestic duties.

The ailments incident to a feeble and delicate constitution, (alleviated as they were by the most tender, solicitous and ever watchful care and love,) accompanied by a religious teaching which she was enabled by Divine Grace to appreciate, trained her up, from her earliest days, a gentle and submissive disciple of the meek and lowly Jesus. And when the appointed time had come, her soul was taken "to be with Christ which is far better," and left a body that has failed and decayed by such a gradual process as formed a remarkable answer to the fervent prayers that were offered up for her painless release.

"Precious, in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his Saints."

WISTAR'S BALSAM.—We regard the Wild Cherry tree as one of nature's own physicians, a sort of good Samaritan of the forest; for its "medicinal gum" has relieved the sufferings and saved the lives of thousands. The Balsam prepared by Doctor Wistar is as pure and perfectly reliable preparation of the real Cherry essence, and it is a remedy by no means "bad to take." We speak confidently and strongly in its praise, from having witnessed its renovating influence in consumptive cases, when all other prescriptions had proved of no effect.

(From the St. John Observer, Oct. 17, 1848.)

As at this season of the year and throughout the winter months, coughs and colds are the most prevalent of all the various ills that flesh is heir to, we would advise such of our readers and others who may be thus afflicted, to avail themselves of that excellent medicine, which, judging from our own experience, and that of others, we consider as being one of the safest and most effectual remedies that has ever been concocted for the above complaints, and which meets with the cordial approval of many of the best physicians. And as delays are dangerous, and coughs and colds frequently terminate in consumption, this efficacious and agreeable remedy should be resorted to. Mr. S. L. Tuttle, is the agent in this city, who can enumerate many instances in which the most pleasing results have followed from the use of Wistar's Balsam.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The genuine is signed I. BUTTS.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54, Gold Street New York, continues to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F.R.S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by Jons P. NORTON, M.A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture, in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1,400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows:

viz:—
The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig).
The North British Review, (Free-Church).
The Westminster Review, (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is of their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other Journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and in appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by M. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS:	Per annum
For any one of the four Reviews	$3.00
For any two do.	5.00
For any three do.	7.00
For all four of the Reviews,	8.00
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3.00
For Blackwood and three Reviews,	9.00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10.00
