

WATSON'S Cough Drops are the best in the world for the throat and chest—for the voice unequalled. Try them. R. & T. W. stamped on each drop.

CLEARING THE BREAKERS.

OBJECTING PARENT—"Yes; I know how it is with you young people. You'd get along all right so long as the sea is calm and it is smooth sailing; but what would you do in case of a squall?"

PRACTICAL SUITOR—"Well, if the worst comes to the worst, we can employ a nurse."
—Puck.

ACCOUNTED FOR.

"WHY do you sign your name J. John B. B. Bronson?" asked Hawkins.

"Because it is my name," said Bronson. "I was christened by a minister who stuttered."
—Life.

GIRLS, be very shy about marrying a man who can suppress a full-grown sneeze in church. It indicates a bull-headed amount of will-power which will interfere with your happiness some day.

NEWLY-MARRIED HOUSEWIFE (suspiciously)—"This milk looks very thin."

MILK DEALER (who has had experience)—"Yessum. Of course, mum. Come from a thin cow, you know."

AN INVARIABLE OCCURRENCE.

THE irrepressible dude, very early in life, Falls in love with each maiden he sees; In fact he no sooner gets down on his lip, Than he's apt to get down on his knees.

—Brooklyn Life.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE.

HE (pleading)—"Would you love me if I were rich?"

SHE—"I can't say as to that, but I'd probably marry you."
—Detroit Free Press.

THE forthcoming number of the Quarterly Illustrator will be a special summer issue, and will contain over 200 superb illustrations, by 110 well-known artists. This exceptionally large number of illustrations, and the unusual interest of the articles which they accompany, make the third issue of this popular magazine the finest single publication of any art journal ever put forth in this country. The size has been increased to 104 pages of reading matter, and the work of many eminent painters and illustrators is found in this number of the Quarterly Illustrator. A novel attraction is an article on the summer studios of most of our leading artists, with numerous drawings of their warm weather ateliers, made especially for this number of the Quarterly Illustrator by the artists themselves. This notable issue will make its appearance about July 5th. [The Quarterly Illustrator, published by Harry C. Jones, 92-96 Fifth Ave., New York.]

MR. M. A. THOMAS is now at St. Leon Springs, where he has assumed the management of the Palatial hotel there.

NO HURRY.

EATON SALTZER—"Where are those oysters I ordered on the half shell?"

WAITER—"Don't get impatient, sah. We're drestle sho't on shells, but yo're next."

NO TELLING.

MR. WHOOPENUP, of Harlem, reached home at three o'clock in the morning one day last week.

"William, is that you?" asked his wife.

"W-w-w hy!" said William with profound surprise, "w-who else d-did y-you expect?"

SHORT-LIVED USEFULNESS.

"WAS your new setter of any use to you when you went hunting?"

"Oh, yes; he made it possible for me to say I killed something without lying."

A FORE-HANDED FIGHTER.

BUTTS—"They say Corbett is a very economical fellow and saves his money."

WUITS—"That's all right. A man in his business has to be close-fisted to succeed."
—Brooklyn Life.
