The Pelee Island Vineyards are situated upon Pelee Island, Lake Erie, the most southern portion of the Dominion of Canada. The Island is in the middle of Lake Erie, being fifteen miles south of the most southern point of the Canadian mainland. The Island, from its favourable location, is peculiarly adapted for the successful cultivation of the grape.

The first vineyard (Vin Villa), comprising forty acres, was established in 1866; the entire vineyards of the Island now show an acreage of two hundred acres. Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co., of Brantford, have acted as sole agents for the vineyards for the past twelve years, and make shipments of the choicest vintages of the Island vineyards daily to all parts of the Dominion. The fine quality of the Pelee Island wines has done much to redeem the character of Canadian wines. The prices have been reduced this season, so that their standard brands—Dry Catawba, Sweet Catawba, Isabella, St. Emilion, St. Augustine (a sacramental wine), and Claret—are placed at the following reasonable prices:—5 gallon lots, $1.50; 10 gallon lots, $1.40; 20 gallon lots, $1.50; 24 pts. $5.50; F. O. B. at Brantford. These wines can be obtained from the following reliable frms:—Berlin, William Metcalfe; Collingwood, Best & Nettleton; Hamilton, James Osborne & Son, N. D. Galbraith; Kingston, James Crawford; London, A. M. Smith & Co., Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co., John Garvey, T. J. McDonough, Somerville, Connor & Co. Dodd & Bro., Elliott Bros., John Scandutt J. C. Treblecock, Wilson Bros.; Nontain, F. Kingston, Matthieu & Bro.; Ottawa, Bate & Co., Kavanagh Bros., P. Paskerville & Bro.; Owen Sound, Parker & Co.; St. Catharines, R. Fitzgerald, F. Maguire; Port Colborne, D. Gibbons & Co.; Toronto, McCormick Bros., 431 Yonge Street. These firms will furnish these wines at the prices mentioned above, adding freight from Brantford. Catalogues or wines can be obtained from Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co., Sole Agents for the Pelee Island Vineyards, Brantford, Ontario.

1 Life of Christopher Columbus 2 Sketch Book, with Portrait.

Moorish Chronicles.

My new edition of IRVING'S WORKS is pronounced by customers generally the most satisfactory I have ever ispage being the ordinary large 12mo size. It is bound in NINE VOLUMES, arranged as below, in HALF MO-RACEO, marbled edges. excellent week. NINE VOLUMES, arranged as below, in HALF MO-ROCCO, marbled edges: excellent workmanship in every respect, and, considering the excellence and the very low Mahomet and his Successors. price, is incomparably the CHEAPEST EDITION of IRVING ever offered to the public. The price for the set is $8.00, sent prepaid, by Express or mail.

CAXTON EDITION.—I publish also, printed from the same plates as the above, The Caxton Edition of Irving's Works, bound in six vols., fine cloth. Price, $4.75.

For 50 Cents I will send, prepaid, Volume II, of the above set, containing complete (606 pages), as described, Irving's "Sketch Book" and "Knickerbocker's History of New York," bound in half Morocco. This volume, only, at this price. You can, of course, complete your set, if you wish to do so, after you have received this volume, by paying the additional price for the other eight volumes. THIS OFFER is without restriction; if there are HALF A MILLION who want the volume, I will fill their orders as fast as my primers and binders can turn them out. THE OBJECT of this consideration the price would be ridiculous and ruinous.

"It is doubtful if ever a standard work by an American author as handsomely made up as the one now before us was ever put on the market at such figures. Many of our readers, doubtless, have long desired Irving's works, but have refrained from buying them on account of the cost of most editions. They can now secure a fine edition at a price which is within the reach of all."—Morning Herald, Rochester, N. Y.
