

Retirement Pension

(9) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (10) and (12) to (14):

(a) for the purpose of any claim to receive a retirement pension under the legislation of the United Kingdom, a person aged sixty-five or over who has been resident in the United Kingdom:

- (i) throughout the period of ten years immediately before his claim; or
- (ii) throughout the last year of that ten-year period and throughout earlier periods after attaining the age of eighteen which in the aggregate are at least three times as long as any parts of that ten-year period during which he has not been resident in the United Kingdom;

shall be treated as if he, or in the case of a claim made by a married woman or widow by virtue of her husband's insurance, her husband, had paid a contribution under the legislation of the United Kingdom for every week during which he was resident in Canada;

(b) where the person claiming a retirement pension under the provisions of this paragraph is a woman:

- (i) whose marriage has been terminated by the death of her husband or otherwise;
- (ii) who satisfies one or other of the conditions set out in sub-paragraph (9) (a); and
- (iii) who claims a pension by virtue of her own insurance and has chosen to have her husband's contributions taken into account;
