

Employment Service Under the Unemployment Insurance Act, a Dominion Government employment service has been instituted with employment offices in all main centres across Canada.

Clothing Allowances Over six months' service, $35; under six months' service, $27 in winter, $17 in summer.

Transportation Transportation with travelling expenses provided to point of enlistment, or to place of bona fide residence at time of enlistment, or to any other point in Canada that can be reached without additional expenditure.

Rehabilitation Grant Grant of 30 days' pay and dependents' allowances to those with more than 183 days' continuous service.

Unemployment Insurance Discharged persons who enter insurable employment are entitled, after 15 weeks of such employment, assuming that they have made the contributions required of them, to be credited with the time they spent in the armed forces since July 1, 1941, the date at which the Unemployment Insurance Act became effective, without the necessity of making contributions to the unemployment insurance fund for such period of service with the forces.

Out-of-Work Benefits Benefits similar to unemployment insurance benefits are payable to discharged persons who are capable of employment, but for whom no work is available, for a period not exceeding their length of service, with a maximum of 12 months.

Temporary Incapacitation Benefits similar to those payable under the provisions for out-of-work benefit may be paid to discharged persons who are temporarily incapacitated.

Farmers and Others Awaiting Returns Benefits similar to out-of-work benefits and subject to similar limitations may be paid to those engaged in farming or other business on their own account while awaiting returns from their enterprise.

Welfare Division A welfare division of the Department of Pensions and National Health has been established with welfare officers stationed at all main centres throughout the Dominion to assist former members of the forces in becoming re-established, and to advise them on legislation affecting discharged persons and also with respect to their individual problems throughout the Dominion.

Citizens' Committees Citizens' committees have been established in most centres throughout the Dominion to co-operate with welfare officers in assisting discharged persons in their re-establishment problems.