

G2. How would a person be dealt with under the legislation for planning or taking part in a nuclear explosion?

According to the proposed legislation, any person found guilty of carrying out a nuclear explosion or causing, encouraging or participating in a nuclear explosion or a nuclear weapon test explosion is liable to a term of up to imprisonment for life.