

- MEDICAL EXAMINERS: Number of, in Canada, 235
- MEDICAL EXPENSES: Refund of personal expenses, 156-159
- MEDICAL RECORDS: Opinions from examining physicians included, 130
- NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN: Support of, respecting amendment to section 32 of Pension Act, 188
- NEW ZEALAND: Data re Old Age Pensions in; considered respecting Bill No. 19, 259
- NURSING ALLOWANCE: Special, considered, 154
- OGDEN, DR.: Toronto Chest Clinic, 148
- OLD AGE PENSIONS: Data respecting situation in New Zealand, Australia, British Columbia, considered with respect to Bill No. 19, 259
- ONUS OF PROOF: See Ackerman, Col. C. H., re, 22-23—Baker, Capt. E. A., re, 16-17—Bray, Harry, 29-30—Currie, Gen. Sir A. W., 1-9—Dingle, Major N., 20-21—Gilman, Capt. C. P., 31—LaFlèche, Col. L. R., 9-11—Lambert, Rev'd Stanley, 12-15—McDonagh, Frank G. J., 15-16—Moore, A. E., 19-20—Myers, Richard, 18—Peat, Dr. R. B., 24-29—Spencer, Eli E., 22—Wakelyn, Arthur, 23—Soldiers believe they do not get benefit of doubt (Bowler), 33—Canadian Legion offers to co-operate with parliamentary committee on questions of, 33—Canadian Legion offers three legal men to confer with sub-committee of parliamentary committee respecting (LaFlèche), 34, 106
- PENSIONS: Should be no time limit for receipt of applications (Bowler), 36—Section 13 of present Pension Act, respecting time limit for applications, is unsatisfactorily drawn (Thompson), 37—Parents of deceased members of forces, if subsequently fallen into dependent condition, should receive pension (Bowler), 38—In all cases where son is killed, parents are pensioned, unless estrangement is proved (Thompson), 39—If estrangement between son killed and parent no longer a barrier towards obtaining pension, then Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick would benefit most (Thompson), 39—Totally dependent parent received $60; father and mother receive $75 (Thompson), 39—Father, if not disabled, is not entitled to pension on account of son having been killed (Thompson), 39—Before allowing pension to parents, proof is usually required that son killed had assigned half his pay (Bowler), 40—Hundreds and hundreds of cases where pension is paid to parents, although son killed did not assign pay (Thompson), 40—Deduction from pension for pre-enlistment disability should not, except in exceptional cases, exceed ten per cent (Bowler), 41, 50—If man is accepted for service, State should not later deny that he was fit (Bowler), 41—Pensionable degree of combatant depends, not merely on nature of injury or disease, but on length of service and condition when discharged (Thompson), 43—Pensionable degree of combatant depends considerably on condition at time of enlistment (Kee), 43—Pensionable degree of combatant is arrived at by considering his condition before entering army, hospitalization in army, length of service and kind of service (Kee), 44—If medical record shows fitness on enlisting, the assessing later of any disability present at time of enlistment is very difficult (Bowler), 45—Pre-enlistment disability ratings vary greatly (Bowler), 46—Method described of computing pensionable disability when pre-enlistment sickness disclosed after enlistment (Kee), 46—Investigators employed by Pension Board (Kee), 48—Example of case where investigators employed by Pension Board (Thompson), 49—Investigators used for all "dependent parents" cases (Thompson), 49—Members of forces who have accepted final payment in lieu of pension should, upon complaint, be re-examined and, if disability continues, have pension restored (Bowler), 51—Twenty-two thousand of commuted pensions in connection with which between 9 to 11 million dollars paid in lump sum (Thompson), 52—Five or six thousand commuted pensions have been restored to pension list (Thompson), 52—Commutated pensions should be restored (Bowler), 53—Commutation as regards pensions should be eliminated in future (Bowler), 54—Statement showing number of pensioners in each province, with amounts paid, 1920 and 1929 (Peat), 57—Pensions to dependent brothers and sisters (Barrow), 78; (Thompson), 81—Canadian Legion recommendations (Roper), 100—Canadian Legion recommendations respecting Militia Pension Act (Roper), 96, 100—Soldiers' counsel should be appointed to prepare and present cases (Roper), 102—Board of Pension Commissioners' decisions represent quorum of Board (Kee), 117—Seventy to one hundred applications made daily by ex-service men to Pension Board (Kee), 118—Large number of cases granted on first appeal; pension awarded in most cases, 302—Cases inadequately prepared to secure, 306—Right to appeal to secure if possible, 311—Final awards under Imperial System, 312 (Topp)—Class 4 pensioners, 345—Information given to applicants re further pro-