

And debate continuing;

Mr. Peters, seconded by Mr. Germa, moved in amendment thereto,—That this Bill be not now read a second time, but that it be read a second time this day six months hence.

After debate thereon, the question being put on the said proposed amendment;

And more than five members having risen to demand that the “Yeas” and “Nays” be entered upon the record, the said vote was postponed until 8.00 o'clock p.m. this day, in accordance with section (7) of provisional Standing Order 6.

The House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Cameron (High Park), seconded by Mr. Habel,—That Bill S-15, An Act to incorporate Seaboard Finance Company of Canada, be now read a second time.

And debate continuing;

The hour for Private Members' Business expired.

At 8.00 o'clock p.m., pursuant to section (7) of provisional Standing Order 6 the House was deemed to have reverted to “Private Members' Business”.

Whereupon the question which had been deferred from the hour for “Private Members' Business” was put by Mr. Speaker as follows:

Mr. Allmand, seconded by Mr. Isabelle, moved,—That Bill S-14, An Act respecting British Northwestern Insurance Company, be now read a second time.

Mr. Peters, seconded by Mr. Germa, moved in amendment thereto,—That this Bill be not now read a second time, but that it be read a second time this day six months hence.

And the question being put on the said proposed amendment, it was negatived on the following division;
