

Stevens, Hon. H. H.—*Con.*Address in reply—Con.

1930, 543, 544, 545; closing of markets during Liberal regime; placing of special tax on lumber by United States in 1931; increase in lumber exports in 1932 and 1933, 546; action taken by government to protect Canadian industries from unfair dumping from other parts of the world; average rate of duty on all goods in 1929-30 and 1933; reduction in rate of duty under British preference; imposition of exchange dumping duty owing to dislocation of international exchanges, 547; League of Nations statistics as to fall in the world trade; economic collapse of virtually all countries in Europe; statement of Canadian domestic exports to United Kingdom for 1931, 1932 and 1933, 548, 549; situation from trade standpoint of Europe, 550; quota system and dislocation of trade owing to collapse of international exchange; steadily increasing price level for primary products; government assistance to Mr. McFarland in his wheat marketing operations, 551; systems of quotas and high rates prevailing in world markets, 552

Advertising and publicity in the United Kingdom, 3200

Agricultural products, prices for last 12 months, 694-5

Alberta coal industry, investigation, 1277

Anthracite coal production in Canada, 463

Australian and New Zealand butter imports since 1930, 1250, 1596

Australian wheat and flour, imports, 3660, 3712, 3741, 4197, 4510, 4589

Bimetallic currency, M., 952

British and Foreign News Service, 909

Budget, 2640. Clear and frank statement of country's financial position; criticism of Mr. Ralston lacking in any constructive feature, 2640; consideration of certain factors which vitally affect our trade and commerce; sub-normal price of farm products and consequent loss of purchasing power; displacement of private ownership and personal supervision of business by a bond form of capital and corporate management; tendency to merge business under a limited control; report of government committee of 1913 on industrial mergers and over capitalization, 2641; number of mergers formed from 1922 to 1929 and effect on our national life; Mr. T. E. Gregory in Gold, Unemployment and Capitalism on growing tendency towards development of mergers in business, and consequent failure; production capacity of mill-controlled bakeries in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, 2642; problem of development of huge commercial and industrial organizations; growth of international cartels in Europe and readjustment of economic structure, 2643; the steel, chemical, rayon, lead and zinc cartels, 2644; new elements entering into question of international trade; effect of war debts in inhibitions and impediments to trade; balance of trade and debtor and creditor countries, 2645; visible and invisible items in our trade, 2646, 2657; estimated balance of international payments for Canada; not desirable to add to public debt for purpose of balancing our imports and exports, 2648; recovery in our export trade as shown by figures for 1930 and 1934, 2649; increase in our exports to France and United States; jurisdiction of the tariff board; the jute twine case; criticism of the gold tax; list of dividends paid by leading Canadian mines, 2651; tax on gold imposed by South Africa, 2652; new and momentous changes have taken place in economic structure of the world; proper and courageous course for Canada, 2653

Stevens, Hon. H. H.—*Con.*Budget—Con.

Bureau of statistics

Daily bulletin, 464, 915, 1129

Estimates, 1128

Figures of, 21

Trade figures, 2646-7

Work of, 1133

Butter exports and imports for 1933, 697

Canada Grain Act Amdt., 1929, 2323, 4034-36

"Canada, 1933," photographs, 914

"Canada, 1934," 2037, 2064

Canada Shipping Act Amdt. bill, 3991

Canada Year Book, publication, 4652

Canned salmon exports, 977, 1130

Cartels and mergers, growth of 2641-6

Cattle exports, 2166

Rates charged on shipments by steamship companies, 2241, 4635-40

Census employees, 1128, 1133

Coal prices, increase in, 4127

Cold storage statistics, 1159