

ures and bilateral restriction agreements now in effect will also expire in 1986.

In view of possible changes affecting the economics of these sectors, the Department of Regional Industrial Expansion has asked the Textile and Clothing Commission to review the situation in these two industries and to report by the end of October. The Department has also had meetings in recent weeks with representatives from the textile industry to discuss the present situation, to hear their views on the main aspects of the policy and also to prepare a development agreement aimed at promoting stability in the industry in both the short and long term. Since the present operational framework and implementation techniques will be reviewed and options for a new policy are to be considered during these discussions, the result will be increased co-operation among the main parties concerned.

Adjournment Debate

Mr. Deputy Speaker: The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m. pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

The House adjourned at 6.31 p.m.