

THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE

has, during 186 years, originated or supported a variety of Agencies in this country and abroad of the greatest importance to the progress of Christianity. The Society's means for affecting its purpose are derived chiefly from voluntary contributions, such as annual subscriptions, Church offertories, and legacies; and THERE IS GREAT NEED that its income should be increased, so that its work may be maintained and extended.

It is the Bible and Prayer Book Society of the Church of England. It is the Church of England Tract and pure Literature Society. It is a Church Education Society. It is a Missionary Society. It is a Church and School and College Building Society for the Colonial and Missionary Dioceses. It is an Emigrants' Spiritual Aid Society, and in connection with this work has arranged that emigrants may be commended to any of the following Clergy:—
