foon be reduced to the Necessity of suing for Peace.

We have had Bloodshed enough. God forgive those who have occasioned this terrible Destruction of the human Species, and spread Misery and Devastation, for so long a Time, in almost every Corner of the Globe. The great Success with which the Arms of Britain have been blessed, puts it in our Power to give Peace to Europe: And it is to the Honour of his Majesty, and those who direct his Councils, that the Distresses of our Enemies have only enabled him to give the World a Proof of his Moderation; and to shew that his Inclination to make Peace, keeps Pace with the Inability of France to prolong the War.

"As his Majesty entered into this War, not from Views of Ambition, so he does not wish to continue it from Motives of Resentment. The De-

" fire of his Majesty's Heart is, to see a Stop put

" to the Effusion of Christian Blood,"

What was declared, in the above Paragraph of his Majesty's Speech from the Throne, to our own Parliament, at the Opening of this Session, has since that, been notified in Form to our Enemy. The Readiness of England and Prussia to enter into a Treaty, and to give Peace to Christendom, which Prince Lewis of Wolfenbuttle hath been authorised to communicate to the French Minister at the Hague, will, no doubt, open the Door for a Negotiation, in a Manner the most likely to be embraced by the Court of Versailles; whose Disgraces and Distresses, too great to be diffembled, and too extensive to be remedied, will dispose them to listen with Attention to every Proposal of Accommodation, made to them by an Enemy whose Sword was unsheathed only to punish Perfidy; and whose Successes, as appears from their making the first Advances towards fer u able

It that this Confi the whice and any may Affin Iffue

In ters doub those great And shall Those each

Conr

them

and i tiarid have fuch for.ters a wher furpi to fir

ardu