

Year; which every Man would be glad to buy off at as cheap a Rate. To this must be added, that this 10*l.* per annum, is not Half (as the Tax is given for 30,000*l.* out of 67,500*l.*) of what he, or somebody else for him must pay towards the Interest of this Year's Loan of 2,000,000*l.* Moreover, in one Case there would be no Debt to be repaid; in the other, an encreased one of 2,000,000*l.*

Thus is the Method we now take, destructive, both to the Government and to every Individual. But, thank God, we have a Resource at Hand; a Resource which will make this Country terrible to it's Enemies; and, if pursued to the full Extent of which it is capable, will make us a great, a glorious, a flourishing, and a happy People.

Let us stop, and take a View of our future Condition, if this should take Place. All our present burthensome Taxes abolished.
