

- WYNFORD—(Best), Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, qualifications of, as an advocate and a judge, C. F., iv. 297, 300; antipathy of Lord Tenterden to, 299; judgment of, in Blundell v. Catterall overruled, 304; in Rex v. Harvey and another, 310; raised to the Bench, L. C., x. 21; his question about clergy, 322; inadvertent error of, in adjudging a Scotch appeal, 322; completely subservient to Lord Brougham, 384; unseemly altercation with Brougham, 400-1.
- WYNN—Charles Williams, answered by Brougham, L. C., x. 274.
- WYNN—Sir John, letter to, from Lord Keeper Williams, L. C., iii. 132, 169.
- WYNNE'S—Eunomus, account in, of the Talbot Revels, in the Inner Temple, L. C., vi. 50.

Y

- YATES—Mr. Justice, anecdotes of, C. F., iii. 180; appointed a Judge of the King's Bench, 292; opinion on the common-law right of authors, 325; his judgment in the famous case of Perrin v. Blake, 331; exchanges into the Court of Common Pleas, 332.
- YAXLEY—Serjeant, curious retainer of, L. C., iii. 41.
- YEAR—Books, antiquity and contents of, C. F., i. 157, 160, 184, 349; L. C., i. 200; edition by Serjeant Maynard, iv. 436.
- YELVERTON—made a Judge by Charles I., L. C., iii. 71; as Attorney-General prosecutes Sir E. Coke for rescuing his daughter, C. F., i. 308; prosecuted in the Star Chamber and heavily fined, 314; L. C., iii. 71-2; convicted of corruption, C. F., ii. 20.
- YNOISA—Spanish ambassador, plot by, against Buckingham, L. C., iii. 158.
- YORK—assembly of peers at, L. C., iii. 249-50.
- YORK—county of, claims a liberal representative, L. C., x. 350.
- YORK—Grand Court of the Circuit at, C. F., iv. 112.
- YORK—Archbishop of, temp. Henry IV. tried for treason, and executed, L. C., i. 302.
- YORK—Duchess of (Anne Hyde), personal appearance