

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Limitations of space require that the bibliography be restricted to the sources from which direct quotations appear in the Handbook, as indicated by the page numbers under each.

1. Two hundred years of the S. P. G.
2. The History of the C. M. S., Vols. I-IV.

The early history of the Church of England in Canada is largely the record of the activities of these Societies.

Quotations from the former will be found in Chapter I and, frequently, in Chapter II, and the first part of Chapter VII; and from the latter, in Chapters VI, VII (second part), and IX.

3. Travels and Adventures of Captain John Smith, page 3.
4. Protestant Missions in Pagan Lands, Storrow, pages 5, 6.
5. Indians of North America, Drake, pages 4, 7, 23, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 67, 69, 70.
6. Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia, page 10.
7. Handbook of Indians of Canada. The Geographic Board of Canada, pages 26, 27, 28, 38, 72, 214.
8. The Myths of the North American Indians, Lewis, page 20.
9. The People of the Long House, Chadwick, page 37.
10. Bicentenary Sketches, Vernon, page 32.
