

THE LAW
OF Defamation in Canada

A Treatise on the Principles of the Common Law and the Statutes of the Canadian Provinces concerning Slander and Libel as Civil Wrongs, with the Articles of the Criminal Code of Canada concerning Libel as an Indictable Offence

BY

JOHN KING, M.A., K.C.,

of Osgoode Hall, Toronto, one of the Lecturers to the Law Society of Upper Canada.

To place a bridle on men's tongues, so that they be restrained from calumny, without laying irksome fetters on the ordinary communications of society, and to curb the licentiousness, without, at the same time, cramping the salutary freedom of the press, is one of the most arduous, but, at the same time, valuable achievements of legislative wisdom.—STARKIE.
