CORBETT'S 3 STAR IRISH WHISKY
There is a fascinating mildness about "Corbett's Three Star" Whisky that will please you. It has none of that pronounced flavour identified with many Irish Whiskies, but is a Whisky thoroughly mellowed and matured, breathing an air of purity and charm that cannot fail to appeal. Every bottle of "Corbett's Three Star" has the "Veritor" guarantee of excellence which protects you from inferior brands.

COST HALF A CENT A MILE TO RUN.
MOTORCYCLE.

Figures carefully kept for a period of nine months of the cost of the operation of a motorcycle by a resident of Ohio showed a total cost of only $28.48 for traveling 4172 miles. This expense covered gasoline, oil, repairs and all other actual expenses, but not depreciation of the motor or the working parts of the motor. Forty-four gallons of gasoline were used at a cost of $9.47 and 10 gal. of oil, which cost $10.26. Repairs cost $8.75. The total expense, in proportion to distance traveled, figured out about one-half cent a mile.

BOOKS LOSE AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Winners Are Always Backed According to the Expectations.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 25.—Layers of odds are almost in despair, for even when odds-on favorites do not win, the lucky horses are so heavily backed that the bookmakers are out anyhow. Even when the leading horse is a sure thing, the bargain-hunters take chances on the long shots, and the proportion of these who have won so far have caused the bookmakers to despair. In the German town selling race for two-year-olds, Gordon was picked as a sure thing, and he realized expectations. In the first race also a two-year-old affair, Uncle Jimmie had no apparent rival and he, too, snatched a while Agiler, in the second fixture, was a 6-to-1 shot, he had enough backing to make it none too interesting for the bookies, while Pardon was backed up to 4 to 1 in the fourth, after starting in as a rank outsider, Aldebaran had many friends, despite the price, while Donald McDonald, in the last race of the day, was a prime favorite. Results:

HORSE SHOW OPENS NEXT TUESDAY AT ARMORIES.
Greater interest than ever is centered in the commercial classes this year at the horse show, which opens Tuesday at the armories. Both the two classes are exceedingly well filled, which indicates that the merchants, like the many other exhibitors, are taking a keen interest in the coming show.

The program of the different classes for each performance are being issued today to the exhibitors, and the committee have done their work well, in arranging the different events. A special feature is carded for almost every performance, with the big nights, perhaps being Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The reserve seat plan is now on sale at Tyrrell's, 95 East King street.
