

TORONTO CUP HAS FINE LIST OF 48 ENTRIES

SATISFACTORY LIST OF ENTRIES FOR ELEVEN O. J. C. STAKES

Belmont Park and Kentucky Cannot Keep the Horses Away From the Woodbine-Races Open Next Week.

Entries to the Ontario Jockey Club's eleven stakes that closed on May 8 are satisfactory to the Board. There are a large number of good horses engaged in each event and the list is a splendid one especially bearing in mind that every effort has been made to keep horses from Belmont Park, in addition to the great attractions of Kentucky. The races open on Saturday of next week, when the King's Plate will be decided. The Toronto Cup is on the following Wednesday.

The following is the number of entries and added money:

TO CUT 'EM LOOSE TODAY AT WOODBINE

Trainers Are Expected to Let Their Charges Down—The Daily Trials.

This should prove a big morning at Woodbine Park, as several of the trainers are expected to cut their charges loose. Yesterday the Seagram and Davies horses were sent along.

The Seagram trio, Volvodo, Battle Song and Maid of Frome, galloped a mile in 1:52.5, and the 1 1/4 miles in 2:08. Rustling breezed three-quarters in 1:35, and the two-year-olds, Sea Lord, Dark Rosalein and Molsen, the half in 53.3. Gold Bud and Meter, with Plate Glass setting the pace, went a mile in 1:48.5. Plate Glass, with Jockey Warrington up, galloped a mile in 1:44.5, with First Sight in closest pursuit. Neat and Spring Maid put in three-quarters in 1:17.2-5, with the former showing the way.

The railbirds are still talking of the move they missed Saturday afternoon, when Maudslou did the distance in 2:15.2-5, the best work by a plate horse since.
